Saint Dominic's Press ,1995 Saint Dominic's Press Michael Taylor,Brocard Sewell,1995 Annual Bibliography of the History of the Printed Book and Libraries Dept. of Special Collections of the Koninklijke Bibliotheek,1999-08-31 This twenty seventh volume of ABHB Annual bibliography of the history of the printed book and libraries contains 5076 records selected from some 1000 periodicals the list of which follows this introduction They have been compiled by the National Committees of the following countries Arab Countries Italy Australia Latin America Austria Latvia Lithuania Belarus Belgium Luxembourg Bulgaria Mexico The Netherlands Canada Croatia Poland Estonia Portugal Finland Rumania France Russia Germany South Africa Great Britain Spain Hungary Sweden Switzerland Iceland Ukraine Ireland Israel USA Benevolent readers are requested to signal the names of bibliographers and historians from countries not mentioned above who would be willing to co operate to this scheme of international bibliographic collaboration The editor will greatly appreciate any communication on this matter Subject As has been said in the introduction to the previous volumes this biblio graphy aims at recording all books and articles of scholarly value which relate to the history of the printed book to the history of the arts crafts techniques and equipment and of the economic social and cultural envi ronment involved in its production distribution conservation and descrip tion Of course the ideal of a complete coverage is nearly impossible to at tain However it is the policy of this publication to include missing items as VIII INTRODUCTION much as possible in the forthcoming volumes The same applies to coun tries newly added to the bibliography Bibliography and Modern Book Production Percy Freer,2024-08-01 Bibliography and Modern Book Production is a fascinating historic journey through the fields of print history librarianship and publishing It covers key developments from 1494 to 1949 in bibliography and book production from the history of scripts and paper manufacture to the origins of typefaces and printing Although not a textbook the book was a guide for library students in the 1950s on the essential literature of librarianship As the first librarian appointed to Wits University in 1929 Percy Freer s near encyclopaedic knowledge of the subject of bibliography enabled him to develop a key resource for relevant library examinations in South Africa and abroad Due to its immense value as a historic record and to acknowledge Freer s contributions as scholar librarian and publisher it is being reissued as part of the Wits University Press Re Presents series to make it accessible to scholars in book histories publishing studies and information science The Private Library ,1997 A Select Bibliography of the Principal Modern Presses, Public and Private, in Great Britain and Ireland Geoffrey Stewart Tomkinson,First Edition Club (London, England),1928 Annual Bibliography of the History of the Printed Book and Libraries Abhb,1998 The Annual Bibliography of the History of the Printed Book and Libraries records articles of scholarly value that relate to the history of the printed book to the history of arts crafts techniques and equipment and of the economic social and cultural environment involved in their production distribution conservation and description British Wood-engraved Book Illustration, 1904-1940 Joanna Selborne,1998 Twentieth century British wood engraved book illustration up to the beginning of the Second World War was among the most versatile and inventive of the graphic arts In a climate of typographical renaissance various wood engravers made a significant impact on the appearance of the printed page transforming good books into works of art and influencing modern standards of book production This book reveals the methods by which these pioneering artists broke with nineteenth century illustrative practices The author surveys the subject in relation to the cultural and historical background and within the context of mainstream developments in the visual arts placing emphasis on the working relationship of illustrators with both private presses and commercial publishers Detailed study of unpublished material including art school records publishers and print societies archives and artists correspondence throws new light on the work and practices of the more innovative wood engravers Private Press Books ,2000 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1995 Historical Dictionary of the Russian Civil Wars, 1916-1926 Jonathan D. Smele,2015-11-19 This book is a detailed reference of the twentieth century struggles that were waged across and beyond the decaying Russian Empire at the end of the First World War as tsarism and democratic alternatives to it collapsed and the world's first Communist state the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics was born At the same time it is a necessary corrective to studies that have viewed events of the time as a unitary Russian Civil War that sprang from the Russian Revolution of 1917 Instead it contributes to the ongoing process of integrating the civil wars into a continuum of crises that wracked the Russian Empire and its would be successor states across a prolonged period The Historical Dictionary of the Russian Civil Wars 1916-1926 covers the history of this period through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has almost 2 000 cross referenced entries on individuals political and governmental institutions and political parties and military formations and concepts as well as religion art film propaganda uniforms and weaponry This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the Russian Civil War The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson,I. R. Willison,1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries Opening the Scrolls Godfrey Anstruther,1987 Design & Applied Arts Index ,1996 Selective Check Lists of Press Books Will Ransom,1945 Dictionary Catalog of the William Andrews Clark Memorial Library William Andrews Clark Memorial Library,1974 Divine Cartographies W. David Soud,2016-07-01 Recent critical studies of late modernism have explored the changing sense of both history and artistic possibility that emerged in the years surrounding World War II However relatively little attention has been devoted to the impact of poets theological deliberations on their visions of history and their poetic strategies Divine Cartographies God History and Poiesis in W B Yeats David Jones and T S Eliot triangulates key texts as attempts to map theologically driven visions of the relation between history and eternity W David Soud considers several poems of Yeats s final and most fruitful engagement with Indic traditions Jones s The Anathemata and Eliot s Four Quartets For these three poets working at the height of their powers that project was inseparable from reflection on the relation between the individual self and God it was also bound up with questions of theodicy subjectivity and the task of the poet in the midst of historical trauma Drawing on the fields of Indology theology and history of religions as well as literary criticism Soud explores in depth and detail how in these texts theology is poetics
