twenty something Matt Weber a Harvard graduate television producer and certified rosary bead carrier employs his sharp wit earnest candor and gift for great storytelling to illustrate for young adult Catholics both the real challenges and the immense joys of publicly living out the Catholic faith The fact that Weber has discovered a way to have a deep ever growing faith life that also manages to be culturally relevant will offer hope to many currently disengaged Catholics in the 18 to 35 age range From smuggling ice cream sundaes into cloistered convents to telling jokes to an outdoor statue of Mary at a busy intersection in Boston Fearing the Stigmata amusingly but honestly explores the tension this layman experiences between wanting to be holy yet fearing being made holey and wanting to be good yet not wanting the cost to be too high Indeed Weber attends Mass every Sunday morning but the temptation is there he admits to sneak out early so he won t miss kickoff
