Salish People Vol 4 The Sechelt And The Southeastern Tribes Of Vancouver Island:

The Salish People: The Sechelt and the southeastern tribes of Vancouver Island Charles Hill-Tout, 1978 Volume I of The Salish People deals with the people of the Thompson and Okanagan It includes stories told to Charles Hill Tout by Chief Mischelle of Lytton in 1896 The introduction provides biographical sketches of the two men who make this collaboration the remarkable document it is Hill Tout the self educated and dedicated ethnologist newly arrived from England and Chief Mischelle of Lytton one of the most talented and informed people that a beginning field worker could hope to meet "In vain I tried to tell you" Dell Hymes, 2016-11-11 From the Introduction This book is devoted to the first literature of North America that of the American Indians or Native Americans The texts are from the North Pacific Coast because that is where I am from and those are the materials I know best The purpose is general All traditional American Indian verbal art requires attention of this kind if we are to comprehend what it is and says There is linguistics in this book and that will put some people off Too technical they will say Perhaps such people would be amused to know that many linguists will not regard the work as linguistics Not theoretical they will say meaning not part of a certain school of grammar And many folklorists and anthropologists are likely to say too linguistic and too literary both whereas professors of literature are likely to say anthropological or folklore not literature at all But there is no help for it As with Beowulf and The Tale of Genji the material requires some understanding of a way of life Within that way of life it has in part a role that in English can only be called that of literature Within that way of life and now I hope within others it offers some of the rewards and joys of literature And if linguistics is the study of language not grammar alone then the study of these materials adds to what is known about language Rewriting Marpole Terence N. Clark, 2013-03-30 This book examines prehistoric culture change in the Gulf of Georgia region of the northwest coast of North America during the Locarno Beach 3500 1100 BP and Marpole 2000 1100 BP periods The Marpole culture has traditionally been seen to possess all the traits associated with complex hunter gatherers on the northwest coast hereditary inequality multi family housing storage based economies resource ownership wealth accumulation etc while the Locarno Beach culture has not This research examined artifact and faunal assemblages as well as data for art and mortuary architecture from a total of 164 Gulf of Georgia archaeological site components Geographic location and ethnographic language distribution were also compared to the archaeological data Analysis was undertaken using Integrative Distance Analysis IDA a new statistical model developed in the course of this research Results indicated that Marpole culture was not a regional phenomenon but much more spatially and temporally discrete than previously thought Artifactual assemblages identified as Marpole were restricted to the areas of the Fraser River northern Gulf Islands and portions of Vancouver Island In contrast the ethnographic territory of the Straits Salish showed no sign of Marpole culture but rather a presence of Late Locarno Beach culture The pattern found in artifacts was replicated in the distribution of art and mortuary architecture variation suggesting the cultural differences between Marpole and Late Locarno Beach cultures was real and not merely a statistical anomaly Published in English Canadian Books in Print ,1990 America, History and Life ,1985 Provides historical coverage of the United States and Canada from prehistory to the present Includes information abstracted from over 2 000 journals published worldwide Canadian Book Review Annual ,1979 La excepción y la norma : las sociedades indígenas de la Costa Noroeste de Norteamérica desde la arqueología Assumpció Vila,Jordi Estévez,2010-04-15 Este trabajo ha sido llevado a cabo por un equipo de investigadores que han realizado un trabajo de campo sobre unas sociedades cazadoras recolectoras las fueguinas en la Costa Noroeste de América del Norte Estas sociedades al ser las más primitivas y más simples sirven para explicar el cambio prehistórico hacia sociedades productoras de alimentos con diferenciación social horizontal El estudio arqueológico se centra en la utilización de posturas técnicas cercanas al particularismo histórico para poner en crisis el evolucionismo unilineal y la caracterización universal de las sociedades cazadoras como las más primitivas asociaciones de bandas igualitarias Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1980 Subject Catalog Library of Congress,1979 National Union Catalog ,1979 Includes entries for maps and atlases Bibliographic Guide to North American History ,1982 Subject Catalog, 1979 Library of Congress,1979 International Books in Print ,1979 Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,1981 A multidisciplinary index covering the journal literature of the arts and humanities It fully covers 1 144 of the world's leading arts and humanities journals and it indexes individually selected relevant items from over 6 800 major science and social science journals The Salish People: The Squamish and the Lilloet Charles Hill-Tout,1978 Includes the Origin Myth as recounted by a storyteller whose mother saw Captain Vancouver sail into Howe Sound in 1792 The Salish People: Volume III Charles Hill-Tout,1978-01-02 Stories of the people of the Fraser Valley from Vancouver to Chilliwack with the earliest account of BC archaeological sites The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books, 1986 to 1987 British Library,1988 The Salish People Charles Hill-Tout,1978 The Sechelt and southeastern tribes of Vancouver Is The Sechelt and the South-eastern Tribes of Vancouver Island Ralph Maud,1978 Coast Salish, Their Art, Culture and Legends Reg Ashwell,1978 Discusses the origins and culture of the Coast Salish Indians
