Sallie Casey Thayer and Her Collection Carol Shankel, 1976      Perspectives on a Legacy Collection Celka Straughn, Kristan M. Hanson, 2020-09      Flowers, Dragons & Pine Trees Mary M. Dusenbury, 2004 This beautifully illustrated volume introduces a little known but outstanding collection of Asian textiles in the Spencer Museum of Art at the University of Kansas      Collecting Prints, Posters, and Ephemera Ruth E. Iskin, Britany Salsbury, 2019-12-12 Why did collectors seek out posters and collect ephemera during the late nineteenth and the twentieth centuries How have such materials been integrated into institutional collections today What inspired collectors to build significant holdings of works from cultures other than their own And what are the issues facing curators and collectors of digital ephemera today These are among the questions tackled in this volume the first to examine the practices of collecting prints posters and ephemera during the modern and contemporary periods A wide range of case studies feature collections of printed materials from the United States Latin America France Germany Great Britain China Japan Russia Iran and Cuba Fourteen essays and one roundtable discussion all specially commissioned from art historians curators and collectors for this volume explore key issues such as the roles of class politics and gender and address historical contexts social roles value and national and transnational aspects of collecting practices The global scope highlights cross cultural connections and contributes to a new understanding of the place of prints posters and ephemera within an increasingly international art world      The Art Museum as Educator Barbara Y. Newsom, Adele Z. Silver, 2023-12-22 Art Museum Educator A Collection of Studies as Guides to Practice and Policy is an essential resource for professionals and enthusiasts alike offering a comprehensive exploration of museum education with a special focus on visual arts and art museums Edited by Barbara Y Newsom and Adele Z Silver this volume compiles reports and case studies that reveal the complexities and potential of educational programs within museum settings While primarily concerned with art museums the insights shared here are applicable across all types of museums making it a valuable guide for those invested in improving museum education globally This book stems from the work of the Council on Museums and Education in the Visual Arts a group formed with the goal of understanding and enhancing museum education practices With contributions from educators and experts across the country the studies provide both a critical assessment of past successes and failures and a framework for future innovations in the field By delving into the real world challenges museum educators face and offering practical guidance Art Museum Educator seeks to elevate the discourse inspire new approaches and help museums better serve their diverse audiences This collection stands as a crucial reference for museum professionals looking to refine their educational strategies and for policymakers seeking to understand the vital role museums play in lifelong learning This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again

using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1985      Frank Lloyd Wright--the Lost Years, 1910-1922 Anthony Alofsin, 1993 New definition to the little known work Wright produced during this period which he describes as Wright's primitivist phase He traces this influence in his art through Wright's explorations of primitivist sources innovations in sculpture and an intensification of the architect's use of ornament Less tangible but as important was Wright's view of himself his art and society and Alofsin uncovers the European impact on the architect's image of himself as a

Spooner Hall ,2009-11-10 Many people wonder which is the best building on campus It's a popular question to ask the architectural faculty Although I don't have any idea about what they may mean by best I have always given the same answer Spooner Hall Even before I went inside Spooner I could see that it was a building of distinction It is well proportioned and it is evident from the way that it has adapted and survived that it has a good bone structure Barry Newton KU Professor of Architecture Here is the biography of a much loved architectural landmark Spooner Hall the sixth building to be erected at the University of Kansas is a Romanesque structure in two colors of stone Oread limestone quarried onsite and imported Dakota red sandstone and sits proudly atop Mount Oread with a beautiful view over the valley to the east Carol Shankel and Barbara Watkins bring together photographs and documents that trace the building from its construction in 1893 to its current use highlighting the many colorful personalities associated with the building along the way Their book celebrates not only the building's architectural richness and importance but also its changing roles For more than a century Spooner Hall has shown itself to be remarkably adaptable to the University's needs and aspirations Funded by a gift from William B Spooner a Boston leather merchant and philanthropist the building was designed by the nationally known architectural firm of VanBrunt excerpts from official university reports newspapers and correspondence and Carol Shankel's interview with two former KU art museum directors who share their special memories of the building      A History Lover's Guide to Lawrence, Kansas Tristan Smith, Watkins Community Museum, 2025-04-01 Explore and Learn LFK Lawrence was founded in 1854 by the New England Emigrant Aid Company and it has a bevy of historical locations for visitors Downtown's infamous Mass Street was nearly destroyed twice by warmongering guerrillas like William Quantrill It was central to the era of John Brown and Bleeding Kansas and the site of the Wakarusa War From famous beat writer William Burroughs to poet Langston Hughes vaudeville actor George Nash Walker and basketball inventor James Naismith the city has been home to a great slice of American historical figures and events Uncover some familiar landmarks as well as some hidden gems as Tristan Smith with the help of the Watkins Community Museum takes readers through Lawrence's unique landscape      To Inspire and Instruct Christina Nielsen, 2021-02-03 This collection of essays which derive from a symposium held at the Art Institute of Chicago in 2005 tells the story of how medieval art was collected by both individuals and institutions in the American Midwest This book will appeal to both medievalists and scholars of nineteenth and twentieth century American history In addition it will also appeal to scholars who are interested in museum studies and the history of collecting The essays in the first section

Collecting and Displaying Medieval Art consider the formation of medieval art collections at influential cultural institutions in three of the most important centers of industry and culture in the Midwest Chicago Detroit and Cleveland The second section Medieval Art as Inspiration and Education examines the motives of both private donors and museum professionals in forming collections and establishing period rooms and cloistered spaces at museums in Toledo Kansas City and St Louis among others At the opposite end of the spectrum was a new trend in curatorial practice beginning in the 1930s that favored the dismantling of period rooms and espoused displaying historical works of art in more distinctly modern settings a theme that pervades section three Medieval Art and Modernism An essay on medieval art in Midwestern university art museums and another one that considers the impact of works from medieval collections in special exhibitions serve as a remarkable coda to the rest of the volume Two appendices follow this one that provides an overview of medieval art collections in Midwestern university museums and another which provides a biographical sketch of prominent dealers of medieval art from 1900 1950

The Saturated World Beverly Gordon, 2006 Explores the way middle class American women in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries added meaning to their lives through their domestic amusements leisure pursuits that took place in and were largely focused on the home Women elaborated on their everyday tasks and responsibilities with these amusements thus cultivating a heightened aesthetically charged saturated state and created self contained enchanted worlds ABM

, 1982 Abstracts of journal articles books essays exhibition catalogs dissertations and exhibition reviews The scope of ARTbibliographies Modern extends from artists and movements beginning with Impressionism in the late 19th century up to the most recent works and trends in the late 20th century Photography is covered from its invention in 1839 to the present A particular emphasis is placed upon adding new and lesser known artists and on the coverage of foreign language literature Approximately 13 000 new entries are added each year Published with title LOMA from 1969 1971 Reframing

Japonisme Elizabeth Emery, 2020-09-17 Japonisme the nineteenth century fascination for Japanese art has generated an enormous body of scholarship since the beginning of the twenty first century but most of it neglects the women who acquired objects from the Far East and sold them to clients or displayed them in their homes before bequeathing them to museums The stories of women shopkeepers collectors and artists rarely appear in memoirs left by those associated with the japoniste movement This volume brings to light the culturally important yet largely forgotten activities of women such as Cl mence d Ennery 1823 1898 who began collecting Japanese and Chinese chimeras in the 1840s built and decorated a house for them in the 1870s and bequeathed the Mus e d Ennery to the state as a free public museum in 1893 A friend of the Goncourt brothers and a fifty year patron of Parisian dealers of Asian art d Ennery s struggles to gain recognition as a collector and curator serve as a lens through which to examine the collecting and display practices of other women of her day Travelers to Japan such as the Duchesse de Persigny Isabella Stewart Gardner and Laure Durand Fardel returned with souvenirs that they shared with friends and family Salon hostesses including Juliette Adam Louise Cahen d Anvers Princesse Mathilde and

Marguerite Charpentier provided venues for the discussion and examination of Japanese art objects as did well known art dealers Madame Desoye Madame Malinet Madame Hatty and Madame Langweil Writers actresses and artists Judith Gautier Th r se Bentzon Sarah Bernhardt and Mary Cassatt to name just a few took inspiration from the Japanese material in circulation to create their own unique works of art Largely absent from the history of Japonisme these women and many others actively collected Japanese art interacted with auction houses and art dealers and formed collections now at the heart of museums such as the Louvre the Mus e Guimet the Mus e Cernuschi the Mus e Unterlinden and the Metropolitan Museum of Art
