Salut Galarneau:

Women and Narrative Identity Mary Jean Matthews Green, 2001 A feminist re reading of the Quebec literary tradition from Laure Conan and Gabrielle Roy to contemporary figures such as France Thoret and R gine Robin Salut Galarneau! Jacques Godbout, 1967 Mindscales of Montreal Ceri Morgan, 2012-10-15 In examining a number of francophone Montr al novels from 1960 to 2005 this interdisciplinary study considers the ways in which these connect with material landscapes to produce a city of neighbourhoods In so doing it reflects on how Montr al has been seen as both home and not home for francophone Quebecers Morgan offers an overview of the fiction examines micro and macro geographies of Montr al and identifies some key literary trends In so doing it reflects on the importance of the imaginary in our experiencing and understanding of the urban Jacques Godbout, Salut Galarneau! : a Guide for Students and Teachers Jacques Godbout, May, Cedric, Richardson, Alistair, University of Birmingham. Regional Canadian Studies Centre, 1984 The Cambridge Companion to the French Novel Timothy Unwin, 1997-10-28 This volume offers a unique and valuable insight into the novel in French over the past two centuries In a series of essays acknowledged experts discuss a variety of topics including nineteenth century realism women and fiction popular fiction experiment and innovation war and the Holocaust the Francophone novel and postmodern fiction They offer a challenging reassessment of major figures while deliberately reading traditional views of literary history against the grain Theoretical discussion is combined with close reading of texts and exploration of context comparison with other genres and other literatures and reference to novels from earlier periods This companionable introduction includes a chronology and guide to further reading From it emerges a strong sense of the vitality and energy of the modern French novel and of the debates surrounding it The Postwar Novel in Canada Rosmarin Heidenreich, 2006-01-01 As a comparative study which includes the analysis of both English Canadian and Quebec novels this book provides an overview of the novel as it has developed in this country since the Second World War Focusing on narratological rather than thematic elements the book represents a systematic application of the insights and analytical tools of reader reception theory in particular the models proposed by Wolfgang Iser and Hans Robert Jauss Placing the emphasis on the text and its effects rather than on the historical or psycho sociological genesis of the text the author invokes the models and paradigms of other literatures to establish a broader cultural context permitting the significance of a literature to emerge as a carrier of meaning in and beyond the culture that produces it Tracing a critical path from Hugh MacLennan s hierarchic romance structures and Gabrielle Roy s social realism to the metafiction of Hubert Aquin and Timothy Findley the author reveals that the novel s narratological features themselves are often closely linked with ideological positions Masculinities in Twentieth- and Twenty-first Century French and Francophone Literature Edith Biegler Vandervoort, 2011-05-25 The study of masculinities and gender identity in contemporary literature is relatively new and with each year of this millennium gains momentum Indeed as the women s movement becomes forceful in developing nations the question of tolerance to gays lesbians bisexuals and transvestites undergoes a similar process At a time when women refuse to be subjected to war crimes when they begin entering the workforce and realize the need to support their families independently and when they refuse to remain in abusive marriages or remain silent in countries where governments ignore their needs men and women are questioning the meaning of gender in their culture and often seek alternatives to established gender roles In some countries this entails organized demonstrations for additional civil rights while in others the expression of sexual freedom remains a question of remaining silent or risking public execution Thanks to the scholarly commitment of its authors this book examines the range of masculine expression on three continents Europe Africa and the Americas In this collection they write about men s past and present challenges male friendships and male immigrants and outcasts Paralleling the independence movement of France s former colonies the goal of this collection is to continue the expression of freedom toward understanding and tolerance of all variances of sexuality

Canadian Cultural Poesis Garry Sherbert, Sheila Petty, Annie Gérin, 2006-02-03 Annotation Examining culture as social identity this collection explores issues such as gender technology cultural ethnicity and regionalism in four general areas the media individual and national identity languages and cultural dissent

Operation Freak Christian Flaugh, 2012-06-01 In Operation Freak Christian Flaugh embarks upon an exploration of the intricate connection between the physical bodies and narratives that subjected to all manner of operations generate identity The author spotlights such voluntary and involuntary acts to show how discourses of ability disability and bodily manipulation regularly influence the production in and of various Francophone texts Flaugh's foundation is the critical examination of mutually informing narratives Francophone novels that hyperbolically signal normative discourses through quintessential freaks monstres such as the Siamese twin the bearded lady and the exotic witch and the related sociocultural master narratives from North America North Africa and the Caribbean Employing disability and freak culture theories alongside studies of identification and narrative Flaugh's close readings move beyond polarized discussions of disabled and non disabled bodies They expand such discussions to articulate how ability like identity and narrative is impermanent It passes and it is passed throughout a spectrum at the same time that it intersects regularly with various narratives of identity like citizenship gender and race Each chapter reveals how operation is a profit driven identification process informed by abilities and constantly reproduced by surgeons slave masters writers and the freak protagonists themselves An unflinching look at such manipulation Operation Freak illustrates the undeniably visceral relation between bodily ability identity narrative and normality carved onto the body of the freak of culture monstre de la culture

The Spiritual Geography of Modern Writing Constantin V. Ponomareff, 1997 This collection of essays deals with the spiritual crisis in modern society and focusses in particular on European writers of the 19th and 20th centuries The essays trace themes of spiritual unease narrowing of inner human space impoverishment of the self growing human isolation dehumanization and the writers' attempts to overcome this malaise The essays also try to show how inhuman political and social environments and feelings of cultural impasse can become mitigated and reclaimed by socially conscious acts of creative writing Obsession self delusion creative frustration and personal tragedy are seen to haunt this kind of modern writing which is at the same time infused with the writers' profound sense of moral responsibility to society and marked on occasion by that rare experience of Epiphany and transcendence

Ici-là Mary Gallagher, 2003 In Caribbean writing place is intimately inflected by displacement place and displacement are not dichotomous every here invariably implies a there In line with this extreme imbrication of dis location Caribbean writing in French explores questions of increasing global pertinence such as the relation between writing and displacement local and distant space text and place identity and migration passage and transformation Contributions range across genres and the work of writers such as Aimé Césaire Patrick Chamoiseau René Depestre Édouard Glissant Michel Ollivier Gisèle Pineau Simone Schwarz-Bart and Ernest Pignon-Thomé Topics explored include the poetics of dwelling space the postmodern or postcolonial dynamic of the Creole town and the textualization of place and displacement Also included are essays on the drama of distance the metamorphosis of recent Haitian writing the literary reverberations of the figure of Toussaint L'Ouverture and links between Ireland and the French Caribbean

Francophone Literatures Belinda Elizabeth Jack, 1996 The canon of French literature has been the subject of much debate and now increasingly francophone literatures are demanding more attention in student French literature courses The first study in English of francophone literatures this book introduces the diverse bodies of texts in French from the numerous French speaking areas around the world with separate sections covering Africa French Canada the Creole Islands and Europe and will provide students at both undergraduate and A level with a comprehensive introductory survey of the subject Francophone literatures emerge from rich bi and multi lingual cultures in part as colonial legacies They also challenge the monopoly of the French literary tradition This introductory survey celebrates the linguistic difference of such texts and the creative possibilities offered by deviance from an established tradition demanding new critical approaches The texts studied here cast a new light upon French literature in terms of their diverse perspectives upon writing history politics and culture their violent rewritings subversive versions and parodies sometimes forming an elaborate pastiche of celebrated French texts Guides to further reading a select bibliography and an extensive index combine to make the book an extremely readable introductory overview of a hitherto little explored area

Jacques Derrida (Routledge Revivals) William Schultz, Lewis L.B. Fried, 2016-06-17 First published in 1992 this book represents the first major attempt to compile a bibliography of Derrida's work and scholarship about his work It attempts to be comprehensive rather than selective listing primary and secondary works from the year of Derrida's Master's thesis in 1954 up until 1991 and is extensively annotated It arranges under article type a huge number of works from scholars across numerous fields reflecting the interdisciplinary and controversial nature of Deconstruction The substantial introduction and annotations also make this bibliography in part a critical guide and as such will make a highly useful reference tool for those studying his philosophy
