Hall, 1996 You didn't give me the titles that need correcting What's the matter with you The West Bank of Greater New Orleans Richard Campanella, 2020-05-06 Winner of the SESA Book Award The West Bank has been a vital part of greater New Orleans since the city's inception serving as its breadbasket foundry shipbuilder railroad terminal train manufacturer and even livestock hub At one time it was the Gulf South's St Louis boasting a diversified industrial sector as well as a riverine mercantilist and agricultural economy Today the mostly suburban West Bank is proud but not pretentious pleasant if not prominent and a distinct affordable alternative to the more famous neighborhoods of the East Bank Richard Campanella is the first to examine the West Bank holistically as a legitimate subregion with its own story to tell No other part of greater New Orleans has more diverse yet deeply rooted populations folks who speak in local accents who exhibit longstanding cultural traits and in some cases who maintain family ownership of lands held since antebellum times even as immigrants settle here in growing numbers Campanella demonstrates that West Bankers have had great agency in their own place making and he challenges the notion that their story is subsidiary to a more important narrative across the river The West Bank of Greater New Orleans is not a traditional history nor a cultural history but rather a historical geography a spatial explanation of how the West Bank's landscape formed its terrain environment land use jurisdictions waterways industries infrastructure neighborhoods and settlement patterns past and present The book explores the drivers conditions and power structures behind those landscape transformations using custom maps aerial images photographic montages and a detailed historical timeline to help tell that complex geographical story As Campanella shows there is no greater New Orleans without its cross river component The West Bank is an essential part of this remarkable metropolis The Railway Magazine, 1908 A Chronological History
