The Quest for Entrepreneurial Universities in East Asia K. Mok, 2013-12-18 With the rise of the knowledge economy universities are under pressure to embrace not just their traditional missions of teaching and research but a third mission of serving economic and social development This book examines the major strategies that governments in East Asia have adopted to promote this kind of innovation in the education sector

Gender, Health, and History in Modern East Asia Angela Ki Che Leung, Izumi Nakayama, 2017-11-22 This groundbreaking volume captures and analyzes the exhilarating and at times disorienting experience when scientists government officials educators and the general public in East Asia tried to come to terms with the introduction of Western biological and medical sciences to the region The nexus of gender and health is a compelling theme for this is an area in which private lives and personal characteristics encounter the interventions of public policies The nine empirically based studies by scholars of history of medicine sociology anthropology and STS science technology and society spanning Japan Korea China Taiwan and Hong Kong from the 1870s to the present demonstrate just how tightly concerns with gender and health have been woven into the enterprise of modernization and nation building throughout the long twentieth century The concepts of gender and health have become so commonly used that one might overlook that they are actually complicated notions with vexed histories even in their native contexts Transposing such terminologies into another historical or geographical dimension is fraught with problems and what makes the East Asian cases in this volume particularly illuminating is that they present concepts of gender and health in motion The studies show how individuals and societies made sense of modern scientific discourses on diseases body sex and reproduction redefining existing terms in the process and adopting novel ideas to face new challenges and demands Whether reviewing the comparative national histories of birth control debating early cases of transsexual surgery or highlighting the resurgence of traditional Asian medical commodities this volume provides accessible and productive studies on these intriguing topics in Asia Scholars of modern East Asia and indeed anyone concerned with the analysis of gender and health in light of intersecting postcolonial studies will find the book rewarding Rayna Rapp New York University A bold and important volume that explores the interweaving of gender body and modernity throughout East Asia With vivid articles on sexuality reproductive technologies and sexual identities the book opens multiple possibilities for how Asia as method can shine new light on persistent theoretical questions from biopower to biocitizenship Ruth Rogaski Vanderbilt University

The East Asian High-tech Drive Yunpeng Zhu, Hal Hill, 2006-04-26 East Asia has been an area of high economic growth for several decades The East Asian High Tech Drive argues that to maintain the growth momentum the more advanced East Asian economies need to pay particular attention to policies designed to upgrade their industrial capabilities The authors argue that effectively functioning institutions predictable commercial policies investments in human capital and infrastructure openness and macroeconomic stability are essential for growth and technological development Regarding the two lower income economies in the sample Indonesia is found to have the smallest improvement in the skill intensity of its exports while the Philippines has registered the slowest economic growth For both countries industrial upgrading issues are not as imperative as achieving or regaining rapid labour intensive growth as both recently experienced major political instabilities

Science and Confucian Statecraft in East Asia, 2019-03-27 Science and Confucian Statecraft in East Asia explores science and technology as practiced in the governments of premodern China and Korea Contrary to the stereotypical image of East Asian bureaucracy as a generally negative force having hindered free enquiries and scientific progress this volume offers a more nuanced picture of how science and technology was deployed in the service of state governance in East Asia Presenting richly documented cases of the major state sponsored sciences astronomy medicine gunpowder production and hydraulics this book illustrates how rulers and scholar officials concern for efficient and legitimate governance shaped production circulation and application of natural knowledge and useful techniques Contributors include Francesca Bray Christopher Cullen Asaf Goldschmidt Cho ying Li Jongtae Lim Peter Lorge Joong Yang Moon Kwon soo Park Dongwon Shin Pierre tienne Will Methods, Moments, and Ethnographic Spaces in Asia Nayantara S. Appleton, Caroline Bennett, 2021-04-15 Asia is changing Socio political shifts in the world economy technological advances of monumental scales movements of people and ideas alongside ongoing post colonization projects across the region have created an emerging Asia one confident and assertive of its place in the contemporary geopolitical sphere As political and economic powers reassert Asian sovereignty in opposition to perceived Northern dominance and dramatic and rapid development in the region shift the relationship between the centre and the periphery new renderings and imaginations of hierarchies of identity and power come to the fore This changing environment leads to emerging challenges for anthropologists working in the region both those who have been working there for years and new scholars entering the field This volume considers these changes and the implications of this on our practice By focusing on Asia as a site of enquiry the contributors to this book discuss tensions and opportunities arising in their ethnographic fieldwork in light of a changing Asia Drawing on personal reflections on Asia s global positioning in this contemporary moment the contributors consider how fieldwork is being negotiated within the changing dynamics of anthropology in the region This book then is a discussion on the shifting landscape of field sites and the resultant emerging research methodologies and is aimed at those who are already deeply immersed in fieldwork as well as those who are seeking ways to undertake it Empire in Asia: A New Global History Brian P. Farrell, Donna Brunero, 2018-09-20 Asia was the principle focus of empire builders from Alexander and Akbar to Chinggis Khan and Qianlong and yet until now there has been no attempt to provide a comprehensive history of empire in the region Empire in Asia addresses the need for a thorough survey of the topic This volume covers the long 19th century commonly seen in terms of high imperialism and the global projection of Western power This volume explores the dynamic volatile and often contested processes by which by the early years of the 20th century Asian states space and peoples became deeply integrated into the wider dynamics of global reordering Drawing on case studies from across Asia the contributors discuss key themes including ideology concepts of identity religion and politics state building and state formation the relationships between space people and sovereignty the movements of goods money people and ideas and the influence and impact of conflict and military power The two volumes of Empire in Asia offer a significant contribution to the theory and practice of empire when considered globally and comparatively and are essential reading for all students and scholars of global imperial and Asian history Science, Medicine, and Technology in East Asia , Viet Nam at the Crossroads Keith A. Bezanson, International Development Research Centre (Canada), 1999 Viet Nam at the Crossroads The Role of Science and Technology Industrial Restructuring in East Asia Seiichi Masuyama, Donna Vandenbrink, Siow Yue Chia, 2001 Divided into three parts this volume covers industrial restructuring in Southeast Asian economies restructuring in Asia s newly industrialized economies and industrial restructuring in the two large Asian economies Island Tinkerers Honghong Tinn, 2025-01-07 How Taiwan rose to global prominence in high tech manufacturing from computer maker to the world's leading chip manufacturer How did Taiwan a former Japanese colony and the last fortress of the defeated Chinese Nationalists ascend to such heights in high tech manufacturing In Island Tinkerers Honghong Tinn tells the critical history of how hobbyists and enthusiasts in Taiwan including engineers technologists technocrats computer users and engineers turned entrepreneurs helped transform the country with their hands on engagement with computers Rather than engaging in wholesale imitation of US sources she explains these technologists tinkered with imported computing technology and experimented with manufacturing their own versions resulting in their own brand of successful innovation Defying the stereotype of the West innovates and the East imitates Tinn tells the story of Taiwanese technologists efforts over the past six decades Beginning in the 1960s they grappled with the black boxed computers that were newly available through international technical aid programs Shortly after multinational corporations that outsourced transistor and integrated circuit assembly overseas began employing Taiwanese engineers and factory workers Island tinkerers developed strategies to adapt modify assemble and work with computers in an inventive manner It was through this creative and ingenious tinkering with computers that they were able to gain a better understanding of the technology opening the door to future manufacturing endeavors that now include Acer Foxconn Asus and Taiwan Semiconductor Manufacturing Company TSMC Institutional Change in Southeast Asia Fredrik Sjöholm, Jose L. Tongzon, 2005 Institutional Change in Southeast Asia examines the institutional changes taking place in and challenges facing the region since 1997 The book focuses on determinants to the adjustments and on implementations of the reforms It also describes various differences in the reform process between countries in the region Southeast Asia's economic development over the last decades has been impressive Most of the region achieved consistently high growth rates accompanied by significant structural transformation and industrialization poverty alleviation and improvements in their overall standard of living as indicated by such social indicators as greater longevity more widespread delivery of basic education and lower infant mortality rates However the crisis that struck Southeast Asia in 1997 had severe economic social and political consequences in the region It also threw into doubt the future economic prosperity of the countries in Southeast Asia and raised intriguing questions about the quality of their institutions and their approach to economic development Sjöholm and Tongzon argue that the economies of Southeast Asia need to reform their institutions if the previous rapid development is to continue The institutional weaknesses have been addressed to different degrees and with different success in the affected countries Against the backdrop of Southeast Asia's importance in the world economy it is hardly possible to overestimate the need to understand this process of change Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance, 2009 Identifies and describes specific government assistance opportunities such as loans grants counseling and procurement contracts available under many agencies and programs
