Under Construction Dug McGuirk, 2019-06-11 This so called life is a journey and it doesn't matter who you are you are special and unique with something to offer and enjoy period The obstacles and detours the roads present are not any easier in one car or another it just boils down to how you navigate your way through and around them One of McGuirk's key principles centers on the concept of State i.e. your state of mind how you feel State is the emotional fuel you want to fill up on the things or experiences that make you feel good Most people have been fueling up the wrong way their entire life and their state is not what it ought to be They fill up on poor quality emotions then spend their lives trying to escape important things because they can't find a way to derive pleasure from them One of the worst things people fill up on is alcohol and drugs sure it helps temporarily but it doesn't take long before they're coughing and sputtering on the exit ramp and nothing works for them any more they're feeling guilty unfulfilled empty Fueling up the right way is what successful people do they fill up with it first thing in the morning every day of their lives They create their own happiness because they know that by feeling great it will be easier to attain the abundance and success they really want For the millions of people fueled on desperation broken down and in need of repair Under Construction is a shop It is the place to learn how to give yourself a tune up McGuirk provides all the tools you need to keep from struggling on the road but ultimately it's your shop you are the mechanic If you're ready and willing to turn your world around and start really enjoying your life journey Under Construction is the perfect guide Quit pushing your rusting old car around and start taking laps in the winner's circle with McGuirk navigating you CAN do it

George Gershwin Walter Rimler, 2011-02-16 George Gershwin lived with purpose and gusto but with melancholy as well for he was unable to make a place for himself no family of his own and no real home in music He and his siblings received little love from their mother and no direction from their father Older brother and lyricist Ira managed to create a home when he married Leonore Strunsky a hard edged woman who lived for wealth and status The closest George came to domesticity was through his longtime relationship with Kay Swift She was his lover musical confidante and fellow composer But she remained married to another man while he went endlessly from woman to woman Only in the final hours of his life when they were separated by a continent did he realize how much he needed her Fatally ill unprotected by and perhaps estranged from Ira he was exiled by Leonore from the house she and the brothers shared and he died horribly and alone at the age of thirty eight Nor was Gershwin able to find a satisfying musical harbor For years his songwriting genius could be expressed only in the ephemeral world of show business as his brilliance as a composer of large scale works went unrecognized by highbrow music critics When he resolved this quandary with his opera Porgy and Bess the critics were unable to understand or validate it Decades would pass before this his most ambitious composition was universally regarded as one of music s lasting treasures and before his stature as a great composer became secure In George Gershwin An Intimate Portrait Walter Rimler makes use of fresh sources including newly discovered letters by Kay Swift as well as correspondence between and interviews with intimates of Ira and Leonore Gershwin It is written with spirited prose and contains more than two dozen photographs
