An Encyclopedia of Shamanism Volume 1 Christina Pratt, 2007-08-01 Shamanism can be defined as the practice of initiated shamans who are distinguished by their mastery of a range of altered states of consciousness Shamanism arises from the actions the shaman takes in non ordinary reality and the results of those actions in ordinary reality It is not a religion yet it demands spiritual discipline and personal sacrifice from the mature shaman who seeks the highest stages of mystical development

Shamans, Nostalgias, and the IMF Laurel Kendall, 2009-09-01 Thirty years ago anthropologist Laurel Kendall did intensive fieldwork among South Korea's mostly female shamans and their clients as a reflection of village women's lives In the intervening decades South Korea experienced an unprecedented economic social political and material transformation and Korean villages all but disappeared And the shamans Kendall attests that they not only persist but are very much a part of South Korean modernity This enlightening and entertaining study of contemporary Korean shamanism makes the case for the dynamism of popular religious practice the creativity of those we call shamans and the necessity of writing about them in the present tense Shamans thrive in South Korea's high rise cities working with clients who are largely middle class and technologically sophisticated Emphasizing the shaman's work as open and mutable Kendall describes how gods and ancestors articulate the changing concerns of clients and how the ritual fame of these transactions has itself been transformed by urban sprawl private cars and zealous Christian proselytizing For most of the last century Korean shamans were reviled as practitioners of antimodern superstition today they are nostalgically celebrated icons of a vanished rural world Such superstition and tradition occupy flip sides of modernity's coin the one by confuting the other by obscuring the beating heart of shamanic practice Kendall offers a lively account of shamans who once ministered to the domestic crises of farmers as they address the anxieties of entrepreneurs whose dreams of wealth are matched by their omnipresent fears of ruin Money and access to foreign goods provoke moral dilemmas about getting and spending shamanic rituals express these through the longings of the dead and the playful antics of greedy gods some of whom have acquired a taste for imported whiskey No other book length study captures the tension between contemporary South Korean life and the contemporary South Korean shamans work Kendall's familiarity with the country and long association with her subjects permit nuanced comparisons between a 1970s then and recent encounters some with the same shamans and clients as South Korea moved through the 1990s endured the Asian Financial Crisis and entered the new millennium She approaches her subject through multiple anthropological lenses such that readers interested in religion ritual performance healing gender landscape material culture modernity and consumption will find much of interest here

Blue Shaman Hugh Malafry,2008-04-01 Who are the Shapers What is their will of us In the First Time the kingdoms of earth and the realms of light were one Wise in the ways of the Otherworld the Na Akhu El Sages of the Motherland tended the ongoing creation in the earth Masters of the Four Forces and the cycles of creation they shaped the pattern of things to come before they took form and kept the balance of life in the worlds But the Kingdom of the Sun fell and a catastrophic dark age ensued obscuring the way of the Makers In the cataclysmic destruction of the world that was the way of the Otherworld and of the First Time was lost and Man forgot the realms of light Nevertheless veiled by the commonplace a vestige of the Na Akhu El Sages survives and subtly intervenes at crucial moments to keep the way they have shaped to restore Man to the First Time In ancient Egypt this remnant is known as the Akhu the Shining Ones of the First Time who serve the Lord Osiris Knowing the secrets of life and death the making and unmaking of things and the way of resurrection and ascension into the Otherworld they are worshiped as deathless gods In thirteenth century Egypt the alchemist Flegetanis of Alexandria confronts an ancient adversary the shaman Morgon Kara in a dispute over a fallen Templar who has become the key to the survival of the Na Akhu El Sages A contest unfolds in a subtle weave of intrigue and betrayal in a quest for the meaning of a lost way and the resurrection of a man whose awakening holds the key to the fate of the world to come
