Phillip,1990-10-01 How many of us have felt like Phillip Z He has a staunch belief in the Twelve Steps yet struggles with the concept of a Higher Power In A Skeptic's Guide to the 12 Steps the author investigates each of the Twelve Steps to gain a deeper understanding of a higher power He examines what may seem like unsettling concepts to us including surrendering one's will and life to God and he encourages us to understand the spiritual journey of recovery despite our skepticism Outside the Camp Garth Cross,2017-01-13 If you're looking for a feel good read Outside the Camp is not it If you want joy without lament grace without sin light without darkness or love without pain read something else In fact the wince factor of this book is through the roof and I thought someone ought to warn you But if you want to read something that is profoundly and Biblically true revolutionary and life changing this is it Garth has given God's people a wonderful gift and I rise up and call him blessed You will too Steve Brown professor author radio show host and leader of Key Life Network I have more thoughts emotions and places your story took me than I am able to capture I had to let you know that the Lord has deeply impacted me through your book Thank you Jim Amandus Senior Pastor at Highlands Community Church near Seattle Outside the Camp tells the story of a former pastor's journey through a season of turmoil and personal failure The story of his decade of disillusionment sets the context for his observations as a church outsider in regards to how evangelical churches often fail in response to the wounded the outcasts and the sinners in their midst Offered in the form of Biblical lament three concerns are addressed the evangelical church does not truly offer or even fully understand the gospel of grace it preaches instead suggesting that believers need to try harder and do more to prove themselves worthy of God's favor the faith community is artificial rather than authentic and too often the wounds of its soldiers are left unattended people whose pain is too deep and complex for the church to easily comprehend are referred outside the church for the help they need to survive or they are simply neglected The book concludes with a consideration of God's intent to restore sinners by offering grace that is full and free with a call for the church to once again communicate the unadulterated gospel to all who need its healing balm The Jekyll and Hyde Syndrome Beverly Engel,2011-01-13 Beverly Engel brings her expertise to this important examination of the Jekyll and Hyde Syndrome the first book to address this abusive syndrome She discusses the origins of the disorder names its seven major manifestations explains how to identify Jekyll and Hyde behavior in other people and in oneself and outlines clear steps for how to heal Jekyll and Hyde tendencies for good Forbidden Fruits Ray Broadus Browne,1984 This volume examines the concept of taboos and tabooism and a dozen powerful ones in our society and suggests the control they exert on our everyday lives Rising from the Dead Patricia Nanoff,2013-10-23 Bridging the gap between spirituality and the recovering community Rising from the Dead Stories of Women's Spiritual Journeys to Sobriety tells the stories of alcoholic women in long term sobriety whose faith based rehabilitation healed and transformed their lives Using the format adopted by Alcoholics Anonymous in telling their stories each woman tells how it was what happened and how it is now Their stories are first examined within the more secular models of treatment and then in relation to theological categories and models Illustrating the catastrophic nature of alcoholism as well as the hopeful path to recovery this book offers a practical and valuable guide for professionals working in the Christian community to assist women suffering from addiction Rising from the Dead describes the 12 step spiritual approach to treating addiction and offers strategies for strengthening and developing the spiritual lives of those afflicted with this burden This book examines the use of stories from a therapeutic and Christian perspective and suggests models for therapeutic listening and counseling It also covers narrative construction issues with shame and guilt threshold experiences God language and much more An indispensable book on healing through communities of faith Rising from the Dead Stories of Women s Spiritual Journeys to Sobriety is ideal for pastors pastoral counselors chaplains parish nurses and seminary faculty teaching in the area of addiction ministry

The Other Side of Sin Andrew Sung Park, Susan L. Nelson, 2012-05-21 The good news of Jesus Christ is for both sinners and the sinned against For the past two thousand years Christian theologians have focused on the experience of sinners but treated their victims inadequately To counterbalance this perspective a diverse group of Christian scholars consider sin from the other side To make sense of Christianity from this standpoint they offer a more complex and comprehensive analysis of human participation in evil and its reconciliation than the simple formula of sin and repentance The Other Side of Sin is an original fresh and exciting adventure into one of the most needed areas of theological thinking

The Child's Song Donald Capps, 1995-01-01 Theological ideas and biblical injunctions have frequently been employed to legitimate the physical abuse of children Some theological ideas are inherently abusive because they create fear in a child s mind causing a child to feel alone odd and of little worth Donald Capps exposes the abuses that theology and the Bible have inflicted on vast numbers of children In particular he is concerned with the hidden abuses of children by well intentioned adults and the role that religion plays in the legitimation of these abuses

Dual Diagnosis Joel Solomon, Sheldon Zimberg, Edward Shollar, 2013-06-29 Patients who have both a psychiatric disorder and a substance abuse problem cause most clinicians to throw up their hands in despair The clinical problems that these dual diagnosis patients present are enormously complex Diagnostically how is one to tell if disorders of mood and thinking for instance are signs of a mental illness or consequences of substance abuse How is one to obtain important historic information when the patient may be unable or unwilling to provide it and there are no readily available collateral sources of information In any case why bother Treatments for dually diagnosed patients are ineffective patients won't stay in treatment recidivism occurs at a very high rate To make matters even more difficult traditional health care reimbursement mechanisms do not provide for the multimodality clinical programs and special services needed by the patient who is both mentally ill and a substance abuser. So the clinician needs an effective bureaucratic strategy as well as a treatment strategy. For the most part, clinicians have handled the problem by ignoring it.

Unspoken Legacy Claudia Black, 2017-12-22

A far-ranging examination of how the effects of addiction and trauma in the family can reverberate for generations. Trauma and addictive disorders are often a result of psychological injuries experienced as a child. These injuries typically produce long-term and harmful generational consequences on loved ones and other family members. Claudia Black presents a searing portrait of a broken family system exploring how addiction and trauma develop and how their damaging repetition uproots and frequently destroys one's family tree. Filled with vignettes highlighting the various causes of trauma, Dr. Black helps readers understand its physiology and psychology and gives them healing, proactive steps to build healthier relationships. Claudia Black, PhD, is internationally recognized for her pioneering and cutting-edge work with family systems and addictive disorders. Her work with children affected by drug and alcohol addiction in the late 1970s fueled the advancement of the codependency and developmental trauma fields. Dr. Black's passion to help young adults overcome obstacles and strengthen families built the foundation of the Claudia Black Young Adult Center at The Meadows. Not only is Dr. Black the clinical architect of this innovative treatment program; she is also actively involved with the treatment team, patients, and their families.
