
SHANE COMES HOME

★ RINKER BUCK ★

The first to die in Iraq,
Lieutenant Shane Childers was more than a legendary Marine—he also lived an amazing American life.

“There hasn’t so far been a better portrait of the wartime American military at its best, nor one of the kind of family and community that produces a very high percentage of the men and women called to go to war.”

Backseat To Baghdad Ross W. Simpson,2022-11-03 It was Shake and Bake Time when I rode into battle in Iraq with the First Marine Division s lead assault battalion I saw Operation Iraqi Freedom in March 2003 from the backseat of a Humvee in Counter Mech Platoon 1st Battalion 5th Marines The first night was frightening as we crossed through No Man s Land between two sand berms that separate Kuwait from Iraq its warring neighbor to the north Three weeks later we arrived in the Iraqi capitol of Baghdad bloodied but not broken No better Friend no worse Enemy is the motto of the First Marine Division And the author had no better friend in the military than Mattis who signed the American flag Simpson carried in his helmet liner before he left 1MarDiv's headquarters in Baghdad and headed home to Northern Virginia. Their enduring friendship over three decades is why Mattis, the best-selling author of Call Sign Chaos, a book about learning to lead, graciously agreed to write a few words about Backseat To Baghdad. Today's unsung heroes are those young men and women who look past today's political rhetoric and volunteer their lives to defend America. In Backseat To Baghdad, Ross shows those troops in combat with all their humanity and humor and the tragedies and triumphs of young men coming of age when they were soldiers once and young. Keenly portrayed thanks to his many deployments alongside them, in this book Ross reveals the extraordinary character of our citizens serving as soldiers, sailors, airmen, and Marines. Jim Mattis Burning the Big House

Terence Dooley, 2022-04-19 The gripping story of the tumultuous destruction of the Irish country house spanning the revolutionary years of 1912 to 1923. During the Irish Revolution, nearly three hundred country houses were burned to the ground. These Big Houses were powerful symbols of conquest, plantation, and colonial oppression and were caught up in the struggle for independence and the conflict between the aristocracy and those demanding access to more land. Stripped of their most important artifacts, most of the houses were never rebuilt, and ruins such as Summerhill stood like ghostly figures for generations to come. Terence Dooley offers a unique perspective on the Irish Revolution, exploring the struggles over land, the impact of the Great War, and why the country mansions of the landed class became such a symbolic target for republicans throughout the period. Dooley details the shockingly sudden acts of occupation and destruction, including soldiers using a Rembrandt as a dartboard, and evokes the exhilaration felt by the revolutionaries at seizing these grand houses and visibly overturning the established order.
