Central Intelligence Agency, 1976 Governing Death, Making Persons Huwy-min Lucia Liu, 2023-01-15. Governing Death Making Persons tells the story of how economic reforms and changes in the management of death in China have affected the governance of persons. The Chinese Communist Party has sought to channel the funeral industry and death rituals into vehicles for reshaping people into modern citizens and subjects. Since the Reform and Opening period and the marketization of state funeral parlors the Party has promoted personalized funerals in the hope of promoting a market oriented and individualistic ethos. However things have not gone as planned. Huwy min Lucia Liu writes about the funerals she witnessed and the life stories of two kinds of funeral workers: state workers who are quasi government officials and semilegal private funeral brokers. She shows that end of life commemoration in urban China today is characterized by the resilience of social conventions and not a shift toward market economy individualization. Rather than seeing a rise of individualism and the decline of a socialist self, Liu sees the durability of socialist religious communal and relational ideas of self woven together through creative ritual framings in spite of their contradictions. Appearances and Activities of Leading Chinese Officials National Foreign Assessment Center (U.S.), 1979 Index to United States Documents Relating to Foreign Affairs, 1828-1861 Adelaide Rosalia Hasse, 1921 The Amerasia Papers, 1970 Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Senate Committee on the Judiciary United States.
