Shanghai Painters and Their World Walters Art Gallery (Baltimore, Md.),1991 Figuring the Body Lisa R. Claypool,2001 Chinese Ways of Seeing and Open-Air Painting Yi Gu,2021-02-01 How did modern Chinese painters see landscape Did they depict nature in the same way as premodern Chinese painters What does the artistic perception of modern Chinese painters reveal about the relationship between artists and the nation state Could an understanding of modern Chinese landscape painting tell us something previously unknown about art political change and the epistemological and sensory regime of twentieth century China Yi Gu tackles these questions by focusing on the rise of open air painting in modern China Chinese artists almost never painted outdoors until the late 1910s when the New Culture Movement prompted them to embrace direct observation linear perspective and a conception of vision based on Cartesian optics The new landscape practice brought with it unprecedented emphasis on perception and redefined artistic expertise Central to the pursuit of open air painting from the late 1910s right through to the early 1960s was a reinvigorated and ever growing urgency to see suitably as a Chinese and to see the Chinese homeland correctly Examining this long overlooked ocular turn Gu not only provides an innovative perspective from which to reflect on complicated interactions of the global and local in China but also calls for rethinking the nature of visual modernity there Art Worlds Roberta Wue,2014-12-09 The growth of Shanghai in the late nineteenth century gave rise to an exciting new art world in which a flourishing market in popular art became a highly visible part of the treaty port s commercialized culture Art Worlds examines the relationship between the city s visual artists and their urban audiences Through a discussion of images ranging from fashionable painted fans to lithograph illustrated magazines the book explores how popular art intersected with broader cultural trends It also investigates the multiple roles played by the modern Chinese artist as image maker entrepreneur celebrity and urban sojourner Focusing on industrially produced images mass advertisements and other hitherto neglected sources the book offers a new interpretation of late Qing visual culture at a watershed moment in the history of modern Chinese art Art Worlds will be of interest to scholars of art history and to anyone with an interest in the cultural history of modern China By focusing on objects sites social networks and technologies this elegantly conceived book enriches our understanding of art production and consumption in nineteenth century Shanghai The author makes masterful use of newspapers guidebooks diaries and advertisements as well as paintings to present readers with the compelling story of a city and its artists Tobie Meyer Fong author of What Remains Coming to Terms with Civil War in 19th Century China and Building Culture in Early Qing Yangzhou Rich in findings forensic in visual analysis and not least elegantly crafted Wue s book on painting printing and the social worlds of art in late Qing Shanghai is an exemplary contribution A must read volume Shane McCausland author of Zhao Mengfu Calligraphy and Painting for Khubilai s China Art and Artists of Twentieth-century China Michael Sullivan,1996 This visually stunning book focuses on the rebirth of Chinese art in the twentieth century under the influence of Western art

Transforming Traditions in Modern Chinese Painting Jason C. Kuo, 2004 Modern Chinese painting embodies the constant renewal and reinvigorations of Chinese civilization amidst rebellions reforms and revolutions even if the process may appear confusing and bewildering It also demonstrates the persistence of tradition and limits of continuities and changes in modern Chinese culture Most significantly it compels us to ask several important questions in the study of modern Chinese culture How extensively can cultural tradition be reinterpreted before it is subverted At what point is creative reinvention an act of betrayal of tradition How has selective borrowing from Chinese tradition and foreign culture enabled modern Chinese artists to sustain themselves in the modern world By focusing on the art of Huang Pin hung 1865-1955 particularly his late work this book attempts to provide some answers to these questions

Xenotropism and the Awakening of Literary Expatriatism through Writing Memoirs Christine Velde, 2016-08-03 Although there have been many discussions about challenges faced by individuals going through East to West migrations there are few literary accounts about those moving from the West to the East Yet these migrations are becoming more frequent now due to advances in technology and the fact that a writer's work can now involve an increasingly global audience One way of expressing these challenges is through writing memoirs Xenotropism and the Awakening of Literary Expatriatism through Writing Memoirs exemplifies the craft of memoirs written while living in a foreign country and explains how this is different from writing from home The book is a theoretical analysis of xenotropism based on the work of three prominent writers in China's history Emily Hahn Nien Cheng and Qiu Xiaolong The author explores the relationship between xenotropism turning towards foreign ideals and practices its complexities and challenges and the writing of a memoir and its impact on mental health This discourse will contribute to new knowledge in the field of creative writing and Asian studies by illustrating how xenotropism or turning towards foreign ideals and practices results in both personal and artistic development and builds an understanding and acceptance of different cultures within an individual These processes of change and understanding in turn facilitate the writing of a memoir which is a cathartic process having a positive effect on one's mental state Readers interested in creative writing or Asian literary studies will be
