Shanghai Crucible Of Modern China:

Shanghai Betty Peh-T'i Wei,1988      Cities of Jiangnan in Late Imperial China Linda Cooke Johnson,1993-07-01

This book examines cities of the Jiangnan region of south central China between the twelfth and nineteenth centuries an area considered to be the model of a successfully developing regional economy The six studies focus on the urban centers of Suzhou Hangzhou Yangzhou and Shanghai Emphasizing the regional focus the authors explore the interconnections and sequential relationships between these major cities and analyze common themes such as the development of handicraft industry transport and commerce class structure ethnic diversity and internal immigration and the social and political pressures generated by developments in manufacturing taxes and government politics The book provides a valuable resource on commercial development and internal economic and social development in pre modern China particularly on specific regional development and the historical role of traditional Chinese cities      Shanghai's Bund and Beyond Niv

Horesh,2009-06-23 As China emerges as a global powerhouse this title examines its economic past and the shaping of its financial institutions      Shanghai Yue-man Yeung,1996 As China s largest city best known for its pre eminent achievements in the early part of the twentieth century Shanghai grew modestly in comparison with southern China after the adoption of China s open policy in 1978 With the 1990 announcement of Pudong as an area for special development Shanghai has raced ahead seemingly on its way to an economic and cultural resurgence that is likely to accelerate development and modernization in the Yangzi Delta and China at large This volume focuses on the physical and socioeconomic transformation of Shanghai across a wide range of topics Drawing on the experience and expertise of researchers primarily in Hong Kong this study is a major contribution to the subject of economic development and social change in China It seeks to understand analyze and interpret how Shanghai has transformed itself in recent years      Chinese Modern Xiaobing Tang,2000-04-03

An analysis of the Chinese experience of modernity through the literary works films and other cultural artifacts that represent it      Interracial Lovers in Revolutionary China D. E. Mungello,2023-07-14 In the twentieth century China underwent a monumental dynastic change and was transformed from an outmoded monarchy into a modern communist state This century of revolutionary change was marked by political upheaval and social chaos It was a period in which Chinese began to go abroad to study and conduct business while foreigners came to China for economic opportunity and adventure In the process Chinese and foreigners began to meet and form romantic relationships These love affairs fengliu yunshi are notable because they coincided with the last phase of Western imperialism including its lingering racial prejudices and even laws against interracial sexual relationships Conversely in China there were periodic outbreaks of hostility and violence against foreigners This book explores the interracial relationships of twenty two people who transcended these obstacles to cross color lines and fall in love      Robert Hart and China's Early Modernization Richard Smith,John K. Fairbank,Katherine Bruner,2020-03-23 As the Ch ing government s Inspector General of the Maritime Customs Service Robert Hart was the most influential Westerner in China for half a century These journal entries continue the sequence begun in Entering China's Service and cover the years when Hart was setting up Customs procedures establishing a modus operandi with the Chinese bureaucracy and inspecting the treaty ports They culminate in Hart's return visit to Europe with the Pin-chun Mission and his marriage in Northern Ireland Smith Fairbank and Bruner interleave the segments of Hart's journals with lively narratives describing the contemporary Chinese scene and recounting Hart's responses to the many challenges of establishing a Western style organization within a Chinese milieu

Overseas Chinese Christians in Contemporary China Sin Wen Lau, 2020-08-25 Overseas Chinese Christians in Contemporary China explores how diasporic Chinese understandings of what it means to be Chinese are changing in post 1978 China Ethnographically it focuses on overseas Chinese Christian business people residing in Shanghai Hyper mobile well educated and financially secure these elites adopt a long term view of their time in the country This study examines how these elites put Christianity to work mediating their hopes fears and obligations in order to illuminate the ways in which this overseas Chinese experience departs from existing academic models of diasporic Chinese as either bridge builders or pragmatic capitalists By focusing on religion this study offers novel insights into how overseas Chinese are making a place for themselves in a globalising China

The Selected Papers of Margaret Sanger, Volume 4 Margaret Sanger, 2016-10-01 When Margaret Sanger returned to Europe in 1920 World War I had altered the social landscape as dramatically as it had the map of Europe Population concerns sexuality venereal disease and contraceptive use had entered public discussion and Sanger's birth control message found receptive audiences around the world This volume focuses on Sanger from her groundbreaking overseas advocacy during the interwar years through her postwar role in creating the International Planned Parenthood Federation The documents reconstruct Sanger's dramatic birth control advocacy tours through early 1920s Germany Japan and China in the midst of significant government and religious opposition to her ideas They also trace her tireless efforts to build a global movement through international conferences and tours Letters journal entries writings and other records reveal Sanger's contentious dealings with other activists her correspondence with the likes of Albert Einstein and Eleanor Roosevelt and Sanger's own dramatic evolution from gritty grassroots activist to postwar power broker and diplomat A powerful documentary history of a transformative twentieth century figure The Selected Papers of Margaret Sanger Volume 4 is a primer for the debates on individual choice sex education and planned parenthood that remain all too pertinent in our own time

Endogenous Origins of Economic Reforms in India and China Rajiv G. Maluste, 2011-07 Attitudinal change in the context of economic reforms has been referred to in Rodrik and Subramanian 2005 DeLong 2003 Kohli 1989 and Panagariya 2004 2008 This dissertation provides empirical support for this literature establishing an earlier start for India's economic policy liberalisation than presented in stylized accounts It demonstrates the endogenous nature of the origins of these policy shifts Attitudinal change literature had directed attention to the need for further research into India's policy changes of the early 1980s and for studying broader comparability issues in other developing countries This research makes a contribution towards filling these gaps This dissertation shows that India started its economic liberalisation under the Indira Gandhi administration from 1980 to 1984 These findings depart from the conventional view that India's economic policy changes were initiated by the Narasimha Rao government in 1991 or by the Rajiv Gandhi administration in the mid to late 1980s The dissertation establishes that policy shifts of the early 1980s had endogenous origins in the political leadership's attitudinal changes The Indira Gandhi administration of the early 1980s revisited the statist policies of its previous tenure from 1966 to 1977 The new approach entailed more openness towards private enterprise scaling back the role of the public sector and starting India's integration into the global economy The dissertation also discusses the comparable role of attitudinal changes at the start of China's policy liberalisation led by Deng Xiaoping from 1978 to 1982 It focuses on the significance and challenges faced by China's political leadership in bringing about societal attitudinal change The dissertation concludes by drawing comparisons between India and China developing a linkage between their endogenous attitudinal changes and economic policy liberalisation Globalization and Networked Societies Yue-man Yeung, 2000-07-01 The world in the last two decades of the twentieth century fundamentally and radically changed at a speed and on a scale never before witnessed The challenge posed at the beginning of the third millennium is enormous for governments and people the world over Globalization along with globalism continues its unrelenting and accelerating march as it draws more countries cities and people closer into interdependent relationships Globalization and Networked Societies attempts to tease out some of the salient elements of this process especially as it has affected urban centers in Pacific Asia over the past twenty years Globalization and rapid economic growth have transformed the region and its cities on varied spatial scales bringing new opportunities and challenges for governments the private sector and individuals All countries in Pacific Asia are covered in this work with special attention given to Hong Kong and to China a late bloomer in the Asia scene but nevertheless one that has experienced phenomenal growth and accelerated globalization in recent decades The empirical analyses reveal the outcome dilemmas and meanings of globalization in the urban regional scene Unstately Power Lynn T. White, III, 2015-06-03 A critique of America's flawed Asia policy that centres on US Japan relations but harkens back to the same disastrous views that drew America into Vietnam The technique is a narrative flow of short vignettes woven into longer chapters the main strands are personal reflections and interviews Sinophone Studies Shu-mei Shih, 2013-01-15 This definitive anthology casts Sinophone studies as the study of Sinitic language cultures born of colonial and postcolonial influences Essays by such authors as Rey Chow Ha Jin Leo Ou fan Lee Ien Ang Wei ming Tu and David Wang address debates concerning the nature of Chineseness while introducing readers to essential readings in Tibetan Malaysian Taiwanese French Caribbean and American Sinophone literatures By placing Sinophone cultures at the crossroads of multiple empires this anthology richly demonstrates the transformative power of multiculturalism and multilingualism and by examining the place based cultural and social practices of Sinitic language communities in their historical contexts beyond China proper it effectively refutes the diasporic framework It is an invaluable companion for courses in Asian postcolonial empire and ethnic studies as well as world and comparative literature Mass Politics In The People's Republic Alan P.L. Liu, 2019-03-04 Exploring the crucial link between state and society in the People's Republic of China PRC this book analyzes the interaction between the Chinese Communist Party and the country's major social groups It explores how public opinion contributes to a mass political culture in China Sericulture Grace Wright, 2006-01-01 Through their labor in the production of silk women had an important place in the economy of China. The government encouraged this as a legitimate female occupation from the Shang dynasty into the 19th century. It gave women a position in society outside of the family structure wherein they could support themselves.
