Vanhoozer, 2003-07-31 Postmodernity allows for no absolutes and no essence Yet theology is concerned with the absolute the essential How then does theology sit within postmodernity Is postmodern theology possible or is such a concept a contradiction in terms Should theology bother about postmodernism or just get on with its own thing Can it Theologians have responded in many different ways to the challenges posed by theories of postmodernity In this introductory 2003 guide to a complex area editor Kevin J Vanhoozer addresses the issue head on in a lively survey of what talk about God might mean in a postmodern age and vice versa The book then offers examples of different types of contemporary theology in relation to postmodernity while the second part examines the key Christian doctrines in postmodern perspective Leading theologians contribute to this clear and informative Companion which no student of theology should be without Unfettered Hope Marva J. Treier, 2015-12-09 In this inaugural volume in the Studies in Christian Doctrine and Scripture Daniel J Treier and Kevin J Vanhoozer set forth a programmatic proposal for evangelical theology rooted in the claim that the church's vocation is to mirror the witness of Scripture in its doctrine and discipleship The Faces of Forgiveness F. LeRon Shults, Steven J. Sandage, 2003-05-01 While forgiveness has historically been regarded as a religious concern it has also become a popular topic in contemporary psychology Unfortunately there has been little effort to combine a Christian understanding of forgiveness with psychology The Faces of Forgiveness winner of the Narramore Award from the Christian Association for Psychological Studies steps in to fill this void The authors fuse Christian forgiveness and psychology with the unifying motif of the face thereby building on the considerable psychological research linking emotions related to forgiveness with the human face At a deeper level the face can serve as a metaphor for integrating forgiveness wholeness and salvation The authors argue that forgiveness should take a central role in our understanding of salvation because it is warranted by the Bible and engages our postmodern context Pastors psychologists family counselors and students of psychology and theology will find The Faces of Forgiveness a helpful resource

Emilsen, Patricia Curthoys, 2025-04-25 Often theological colleges are the site of tension between the aspirations of the overall institution of the church and the goals of the particular college itself While they are usually the first called upon to solve the numerous problems facing the modern church yet just as likely they are criticized for being too academic too out of touch with contemporary society and too expensive A fair reading of the ten essays in Things That Matter will refute or at the very least question these criticisms The authors of this inspiring collection although far from uncritical clearly show that since 1999 when United Theological College the Uniting Church's premier college in New South Wales became part of Charles Sturt University's School of Theology there have been great benefits for students faculty the church and the broader community

Heidegger, Bonhoeffer and the Concept of Home in Christian Youth Work Phoebe Hill, 2022-05-25

This book explores what it means to be and become at home in theological perspective located in the context of a youth club Drawing on ethnographic research Phoebe Hill presents an account of what an authentic Christian hospitality could look like in a youth setting and the ways in which the young people the strangers at the door might enable the Christian youth worker to become more fully at home Discourses around Christian hospitality often unwittingly perpetuate implicit power imbalances The youth club offers a context for Christian hospitality that tips the power in favour of the young people who attend enabling the youth leaders to share and create home with young people in a distinctive way As young people leave the Church in droves the Church faces the urgent and daunting task of finding new ways of being with young people on their own terms this book offers one solution Hill argues that homecoming is an essential task of humanity We are connected in this common pilgrimage and the need to find places and spaces where we can be at home Becoming at home may be harder than ever before numerous sociological philosophical and theological factors are compromising our ability to dwell in the contemporary world
