The Human Tradition in Modern Brazil Peter M. Beattie, 2004 The Human Tradition in Modern Brazil makes the last two centuries of Brazilian history come alive through the stories of mostly non elite individuals The pieces in this lively collection address how people experienced historical continuities and changes by exploring how they related to the rise of Brazilian national identity and the emergence of a national state By including a broad array of historical actors from different regions ethnicities occupations races genders and eras The Human Tradition in Modern Brazil brings a human dimension to major economic political cultural and social transitions Because these perspectives do not always fit with the generalizations made about the predominant attitudes values and beliefs of different groups they bring a welcome complexity to the understanding of Brazilian society and history Forming Abstraction Adele Nelson, 2022-02-22 Art produced outside hegemonic centers is often seen as a form of derivation or relegated to a provisional status Forming Abstraction turns this narrative on its head In the first book length study of postwar Brazilian art and culture Adele Nelson highlights the importance of exhibitionary and pedagogical institutions in the development of abstract art in Brazil By focusing on the formation of the S o Paulo Biennial in 1951 the early activities of artists Geraldo de Barros Lygia Clark Waldemar Cordeiro H lio Oiticica Lygia Pape and Ivan Serpa and the ideas of critics like M rio Pedrosa Nelson illuminates the complex strategic processes of citation and adaption of both local and international forms The book ultimately demonstrates that Brazilian art institutions and abstract artistic groups and their exhibitions of abstract art in particular served as crucial loci for the articulation of societal identities in a newly democratic nation at the onset of the Cold War Catalog of Copyright Entries.
