Shared Visions In World Religions:

Sourcebook of the World's Religions Joel Beversluis, 2011-02-08 Now in its third edition this is the most comprehensive work available on the rich variety of paths available to today's spiritual seekers More than an academic reference it explores how religions can collaborate to help the world Essays exploring the realm of building an interfaith community add to the book's detailed portraits of the major religious traditions The Sourcebook also contains essays on spiritual practices as diverse as theosophy wicca and indigenous religions This revised edition of the Sourcebook offers an unparalleled look at where spirituality is headed in the coming millennium Covenant and World Religions Alon

Goshen-Gottstein, 2023-06-06 Finalist for The Rabbi Sacks Book Prize 2023 A new paradigm for relations between religions one of acceptance and collaboration requires not only a willingness to move beyond a tradition of hostility and competition but also significant theological rethinking Within Jewish Orthodoxy there have been very few voices that have advanced and justified a vision of other faiths in this light to this day the reigning paradigm is one of practical collaboration while avoiding theologically based engagement or reflection Two of the most important Orthodox Jewish voices advocating change have been those of Irving Yitz Greenberg and Jonathan Sacks This book presents the theological moral and social views of these two leading rabbis It focuses on the significance of covenant for both and how they adapt this concept to enable the development of a Jewish view of other religions In considering how they may have influenced each other it also studies the limitations and internal contradictions that characterize their work as they attempt to point the way forward in a spirit of dialogue to continuing theological reflection on Judaism's approach to world religions Ecological Imaginations in the World Religions Tony Watling, 2011-10-20 The field of religion and ecology is an emerging and growing movement that is becoming relevant and influential in the world It seeks to analyse encourage inspire use compare and combine religious traditions to engage and shape environmental issues Tony Watling seeks to ethnographically analyse this important field and its expressions In particular he analyses and compares its explorations of different world religions for ecological themes and the resulting expressions of ecological visions in what he terms religious ecotopias idealized environmentally friendly reimaginings of nature and humanity and correspondingly religion which seek to influence environmental attitudes

Between Eden and Armageddon Marc Gopin, 2002 Although violence is often perpetrated in the name of religion history shows that religious people have played a critical role in peacemaking within numerous cultures Encyclopedia of World Religions Encyclopaedia Britannica, Inc., 2008-05-01 A guide to the religions of the world and to the concepts movements people and events that have shaped them It includes features such as entries on religious movements and concepts historical and legendary figures divinities religious sites and ceremonies images that show sacred places vestments rituals objects and texts and more The Changing World Religion Map Stanley D. Brunn, 2015-02-03 This extensive work explores the changing world of religions faiths and practices It discusses a broad range of issues and phenomena that are related to religion including nature ethics secularization gender and identity Broadening the context it studies the interrelation between religion and other fields including education business economics and law The book presents a vast array of examples to illustrate the changes that have taken place and have led to a new world map of religions Beginning with an introduction of the concept of the changing world religion map the book first focuses on nature ethics and the environment It examines humankind's eternal search for the sacred and discusses the emergence of green religion as a theme that cuts across many faiths Next the book turns to the theme of the pilgrimage illustrated by many examples from all parts of the world In its discussion of the interrelation between religion and education it looks at the role of missionary movements It explains the relationship between religion business economics and law by means of a discussion of legal and moral frameworks and the financial and business issues of religious organizations The next part of the book explores the many new faces that are part of the religious landscape and culture of the Global North Europe Russia Australia and New Zealand the U S and Canada and the Global South Latin America Africa and Asia It does so by looking at specific population movements diasporas and the impact of globalization The volume next turns to secularization as both a phenomenon occurring in the Global religious North and as an emerging and distinguishing feature in the metropolitan cosmopolitan and gateway cities and regions in the Global South The final part of the book explores the changing world of religion in regards to gender and identity issues the political religious nexus and the new worlds associated with the virtual technologies and visual media

Global Religions and International Relations: A Diplomatic Perspective P. Ferrara, 2015-12-24 With a religious re emergence in international relations this book provides an introduction to the role religions play within the global political arena Culled from theoretical practical and real world experiences Ferrara explains the role religion now plays in global affairs on diplomatic and political levels

Flourishing Miroslav Volf, Tony Blair, 2016-01-12 More than almost anything else globalization and the great world religions are shaping our lives affecting everything from the public policies of political leaders and the economic decisions of industry bosses and employees to university curricula all the way to the inner longings of our hearts Integral to both globalization and religions are compelling overlapping and sometimes competing visions of what it means to live well In this perceptive deeply personal and beautifully written book a leading theologian sheds light on how religions and globalization have historically interacted and argues for what their relationship ought to be Recounting how these twinned forces have intersected in his own life he shows how world religions despite their malfunctions remain one of our most potent sources of moral motivation and contain within them profoundly evocative accounts of human flourishing Globalization should be judged by how well it serves us for living out our authentic humanity as envisioned within these traditions Through renewal and reform religions might in turn shape globalization so that can be about more than bread alone

Who are We? Association for Core Texts and Courses. Conference, 2011 This book contains essays of literary and philosophical accounts that explain who we are simply as persons and essays that highlight who we are

Religion and Peacebuilding Harold Coward,Gordon S. Smith,2012-02-01 In the wake of September 11 2001 religion is often seen as the motivating force behind terrorism and other acts of violence Religion and Peacebuilding looks beyond headlines concerning violence perpetrated in the name of religion to examine how world religions have also inspired social welfare and peacemaking activism Leading scholars from the Aboriginal Hindu Buddhist Confucian Jewish Muslim and Christian traditions provide detailed analyses of the spiritual resources for fostering peace within their respective religions The contributors discuss the formidable obstacles to nonviolent conflict transformation found within sacred texts and living traditions Case studies of Northern Ireland Bosnia Cambodia and South Africa are also examined as practical applications of spiritual resources for peace

Routledge International Handbook of Religion in Global Society Jayeel Cornelio,François Gauthier,Tuomas Martikainen,Linda Woodhead,2020-11-29 Like any other subject the study of religion is a child of its time Shaped and forged over the course of the twentieth century it has reflected the interests and political situation of the world at the time As the twenty first century unfolds it is undergoing a major transition along with religion itself This volume showcases new work and new approaches to religion which work across boundaries of religious tradition academic discipline and region The influence of globalizing processes has been evident in social and cultural networking by way of new media like the internet in the extensive power of global capitalism and in the increasing influence of international bodies and legal instruments Religion has been changing and adapting too This handbook offers fresh insights on the dynamic reality of religion in global societies today by underscoring transformations in eight key areas Market and Branding

Contemporary Ethics and Virtues Intimate Identities Transnational Movements Diasporic Communities Responses to Diversity National Tensions and Reflections on Religion These themes demonstrate the handbook's new topics and approaches that move beyond existing agendas Bringing together scholars of all ages and stages of career from around the world the handbook showcases the dynamism of religion in global societies It is an accessible introduction to new ways of approaching the study of religion practically theoretically and geographically Pax Pneuma Cheryl Bridges-Johns, Anthea Butler, Arlene Sanchez-Walsh, Marlon Millner, Martin William Mittelstadt, 2009-03-24 PCPJ MISSION STATEMENT To encourage enable and sustain peacemaking and justice seeking as authentic and integral aspects of Pentecostal Charismatic Christianity witnessing to the conviction that Jesus Christ is relevant to all tensions crises and brokenness in the world The PCPJ seeks to show that addressing injustice and making peace as Jesus and his followers did is theologically sound biblically commanded and realistically possible Editorial Board Cheryl Bridges Johns Pentecostal Theological Seminary Anthea Butler University of Pennsylvania Jong Hyun Jung University of Southern California Martin Mittelstadt Evangel University Dario Lopez Rodriguez Gamaliel Biblical Seminary of the Church of God Lima Peru Paul Alexander Managing Editor Azusa Pacific University Assistant Editors Erica Ramirez Wheaton College Brian K Pipkin Mennonite Disaster Services Robert G Reid Brite Divinity School Global Visioning Ahmed Abaddi, 2017-07-05 This volume makes the case for global visioning the collective process of looking at a larger picture and building common ground for the future The contributors agree that only by such a process will people be able to address mounting problems like global warming war terrorism and poverty which threaten the Earth's population This latest volume in the Peace Policy series addresses three main themes On Spirituality and Ethics advocates an international culture of nonviolence International and Transnational Relations makes a case for global fellowship On Education and Culture argues that educating children is the first step in reforming the world The contributors seek solutions to the question of how people can start seeing issues from a global point of view rather than from narrow national perspectives In keeping with the global nature and scope of the world's problems the contributions come from very diverse countries including Japan Morocco South Africa Germany Italy Belgium and the United States This work will inspire participation in this much needed exercise of collective global problem solving Words on Cassette, 2002 R R Bowker Publishing, 2002 Judaism for the World Arthur Green, 2020-09-22 An internationally recognized scholar and theologian shares a Jewish mysticism for our times Judaism one of the world's great spiritual traditions is not addressed to Jews alone In this masterful book Arthur Green calls out to seekers of all sorts offering a universal response to the eternal human questions of who we are why we exist where we are going and how to live Drawing on over half a century as a Jewish seeker and teacher he shows us a Judaism that cultivates the life of the spirit that inspires an inward journey leading precisely toward self transcendence to an awareness of the universal Self in whose presence we exist As a neo hasidic seeker he is both devotional and boldly questioning in his understanding of God and tradition Engaging with the mystical sources he translates the insights of the Hasidic masters into a new religious language accessible to all those eager to build an inner life and a human society that treasures the divine spark in each person and throughout Creation The Power of Appreciative

Inquiry Diana Kaplin Whitney, Amanda Trosten-Bloom, 2003 The Power of Appreciative Inquiry describes a new strategy that inspires people and brings about a higher performance level in any organization This method encourages people to study discuss learn from and build on what works well when they are at their best rather than focusing on what's going wrong The theory practice and spirit of this approach to organizational change is described in plain language The authors provide guidelines for defining the change agenda initiative or project forming the steering team and launching an organization wide kick off Case histories demonstrate how organizations can attain sustained positive change by studying their strengths

Sculpture in Religion Rebecca Murphy, AI, 2025-02-26 Sculpture in Religion explores the multifaceted role of three dimensional art in shaping religious beliefs and practices across various cultures The book examines how sculptures of deities saints and sacred narratives influence both the construction of sacred spaces and the evolution of religious thought A key insight is the exploration of theological rationales behind religious imagery asking why some religions embrace it while others prohibit it Another focus looks at how religious sculpture has been used to legitimize power and reinforce social hierarchies The book analyzes religious sculpture not just as decorative but as a dynamic force in shaping religious identities Beginning with a theoretical framework it proceeds through case studies from ancient Egyptian Greek Roman Buddhist Hindu Christian and Islamic traditions showing cross religious approaches to sacred iconography The central chapters explore localized traditions while later chapters address iconoclasm and reform It uses archaeological findings textual sources and art historical analyses to provide a comprehensive understanding of religious sculpture's enduring power
