Valle,Steen Halling,2013-03-08 When I began to study psychology a half century ago it was defined as the study of behavior and experience By the time I completed my doctorate shortly after the end of World War II the last two words were fading rapidly In one of my first graduate classes a course in statistics the professor announced on the first day Whatever exists exists in some number We dutifully wrote that into our notes and did not pause to recognize that thereby all that makes life meaningful was being consigned to oblivion This bland restructuring perhaps more accurately destruction of the world was typical of its time 1940 The influence of a narrow scientific attitude was already spreading throughout the learned disciplines In the next two decades it would invade and tyrannize the social sciences education and even philosophy To be sure quantification is a powerful tool selectively employed but too often it has been made into an executioner's axe to deny actuality to all that does not yield to its procrustean demands Finding a Higher Love Elizabeth Clare Prophet,2020-09-15 Finding a Higher Love shares a much needed spiritual perspective on love sexuality and relationships Every relationship says Elizabeth Clare Prophet has its challenges whether we find ourselves with our soul mate twin flame or what she calls a karmic partner And yet she explains our intimate relationships and search for true love are in reality a quest for wholeness that offers us a unique opportunity for deep spiritual growth and inner transformation With warmth and compassion she explores the real purpose and power of relationships Her profound insights as well as her practical tools and techniques will show you how to open your heart spiritualize your partnerships and magnetize the highest love that is yours to have Dancing with Fear Paul Foxman, Ph.D.,2011-02-15 Panic attacks phobias avoidant behavior worrying compulsive behavior unwanted obsessions and body symptoms such as racing heart breathing difficulties sweating shaking nausea
