

As for the prose poets

- Even some of them find it hard to assess.
- “I hesitate to use the word form when speaking of prose poems, because for all the interesting poets who have written them, the prose poem has yet to yield up a method.” (“The Prose Poem in America, written by prose poet Russell Edson, 1976)
- “The prose poem has the unusual distinction of being regarded with suspicion not only by the usual haters of poetry, but also by many poets themselves.” —Charles Simic

Shared Margins Samuli Schielke, Mukhtar Saad Shehata, 2021-07-05 Shared Margins tells of writers writing and literary milieus in Alexandria Egypt's second city It de centres cosmopolitan avant gardes and secular revolutionary aesthetics that have been intensively documented and studied since 2011 Instead it offers a fieldwork based account of various milieus and styles and their common grounds and lines of division Structured in two parts Shared Margins gives an account of literature as a social practice embedded in milieus that at once enable and limit literary imagination and of a life worldly experience of plurality in absence of pluralism that marks literary engagements with the intimate and social realities of Alexandria after 2011 Literary writing this book argues has marginality as an at once enabling and limiting condition It provides shared spaces of imaginary excess that may go beyond the taken for granted of a societal milieu and yet are never unlimited Literary imagination is part and parcel of such social conflicts and transformations its role being neither one of resistance against power nor of guidance towards norms but rather one of open ended complicity

Shared Lives Roy McConkey, John Dunne, Nick Blitz, 2009-01-01 Written by three authors who combine a wealth of expertise as researchers clinicians and practitioners this challenging book presents a renewed vision for the support of people with intellectual disabilities Its primary focus is the positive contributions that people with an intellectual disability can make to the lives of others and to their wider communities if given the opportunity Many real life examples are given Central to this is the nurturing of mutual relationships between people and their supporters be they paid workers community volunteers or family members Also explored is how people can come together in supportive communities that enrich and extend their experiences of life The building of alliances and the creation of partnership working across different organisations are essential to this The emphasis is on the role of the paid supporter which is still critical in the lives of many people but smaller community based networks of support with a shared vision of inclusive societies are seen to be the hallmark of modern service systems This book is refreshingly different and has a remarkable feel good quality It is essential reading for those striving to build person centred services
