Sharing Cancer Jeri Lampman, 2005-03-01 Sharing Cancer is not a thick hard to read volume covering every type of cancer all the treatment options and projected outcomes. It is about the journey cancer patients and caregivers travel. Through the use of shared experiences readers learn about battling cancer facing death being a caregiver dealing with helpful friends and family and being a survivor. Hints charts and lists are included which make the care of the patient easier but Sharing Cancer also addresses the need to be prepared when cancer wins. Cancer doesn't just strike the patient it invades everyone whose life is connected. This book helps guide you through that invasion.

A New Deal for Cancer Abbe R. Gluck, Charles S Fuchs, 2021-11-16 An unprecedented constellation of experts leading cancer doctors policymakers cutting edge researchers national advocates and more explore the legacy and the shortcomings from the fifty year war on cancer and look ahead to the future. The longest war in the modern era longer than the Cold War has been the war on cancer. Cancer is a complex evasive enemy and there was no quick victory in the fight against it. But the battle has been a monumental test of medical and scientific research and fundraising acumen as well as a moral and ethical challenge to the entire system of medicine. In A New Deal for Cancer some of today's leading thinkers activists and medical visionaries describe the many successes in the long war and the ways in which our deeper failings as a society have held us back from a more complete success. Together they present an unrivaled and nearly complete map of the battlefield across dimensions of science government equity business the patient provider experience and more documenting our emerging understanding of cancer's many unique dimensions and offering bold new plans to enable the American health care system to deliver progress and hope to all patients.
