Sharing Ideas A Rhetoric For Beginning Writers:

Sharing Ideas Robert Perrin, 1985 Rhetoric Review V18#2 Survey Theresa Jarnagi Enos, 2017-10-03 First published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor and Francis an informa company The Rhetoric of Cool Jeff Rice, 2007-05-11 The Rhetoric of Cool Composition Studies and New Media offers a historical critique of composition studies rebirth narrative using that critique to propose a new rhetoric for new media work Author Jeff Rice returns to critical moments during the rebirth of composition studies when the discipline chose not to emphasize technology cultural studies and visual writing which are now fundamental to composition studies Rice redefines these moments in order to invent a new electronic practice The Rhetoric of Cool addresses the disciplinary claim that composition studies underwent a rebirth in 1963 At that time three writers reviewed technology cultural studies and visual writing outside composition studies and independently used the word cool to describe each position Starting from these three positions Rice focuses on chora appropriation commutation juxtaposition nonlinearity and imagery rhetorical gestures conducive to new media work to construct the rhetoric of cool An innovative work that approaches computers and writing issues from historical critical theoretical and practical perspectives The Rhetoric of Cool challenges current understandings of writing and new media and proposes a rhetorical rather than an instrumental response for teaching writing in new media contexts Reading, Writing, and the Rhetorics of Whiteness

Wendy Ryden, Ian Marshall, 2013-03-01 In this volume Ryden and Marshall bring together the field of composition and rhetoric with critical whiteness studies to show that in our post race era whiteness and racism not only survive but actually thrive in higher education As they examine the effects of racism on contemporary literacy practices and the rhetoric by which white privilege maintains and reproduces itself Ryden and Marshall consider topics ranging from the emotional investment in whiteness to the role of personal narrative in reconstituting racist identities to critiques of the foundational premises of writing programs steeped in repudiation of despised discourses Marshall and Ryden alternate chapters to sustain a multi layered dialogue that traces the rhetorical complexities and contradictions of teaching English and writing in a university setting Their lived experiences as faculty and administrators serve to underscore the complex code of whiteness even as they push to decode it and demonstrate how their own pedagogical practices are raced and racialized in multiple ways Collectively the essays ask instructors and administrators to consider more carefully the pernicious nature of whiteness in their professional activities and how it informs our practices The Routledge Handbook of Comparative World

Rhetorics Keith Lloyd, 2020-06-10 The Routledge Handbook of Comparative World Rhetorics offers a broad and comprehensive understanding of comparative or world rhetoric from ancient times to the modern day Bringing together an international team of established and emergent scholars this Handbook looks beyond Greco Roman traditions in the study of rhetoric to provide an international cross cultural study of communication practices around the globe With dedicated sections covering theory and practice history pedagogy hybrids and the modern context this extensive collection will provide the reader with a solid understanding of how comparative rhetoric evolved how it re defines and expands the field of rhetorical studies what it contributes to our understanding of human communication its implications for the advancement of related fields such as composition technology language studies and literacy In a world where understanding how people communicate argue and persuade is as important as understanding their languages The Routledge Handbook of Comparative World Rhetorics is an essential resource for scholars and students of communication composition rhetoric cultural studies cultural rhetoric cross cultural studies transnational studies translingual studies and languages South Atlantic Review, 1984 Writing That Makes Sense, 2nd Edition David S. Hogsette, 2019-11-05 The second edition of Writing That Makes Sense takes students through the fundamentals of the writing process and explores the basic steps of critical thinking Drawing upon over twenty years of experience teaching college composition and professional writing David S Hogsette combines relevant writing pedagogy and practical assignments with the basics of critical thinking to provide students with step by step guides for successful academic writing in a variety of rhetorical modes New in the second edition Expanded discussion of how to write effective thesis statements for informative persuasive evaluative and synthesis essays including helpful thesis statement templates Extensive templates introducing students to conventions of academic discourse including integrating outside sources interacting with other writers ideas and dialoguing with multiple perspectives Examples of academic writing from different disciplines illustrating essay titles abstracts thesis statements introductions conclusions and voice Expanded discussion of voice in academic writing including an exploration of active and passive voice constructions in different disciplines and tips on how to edit for clarity A new chapter on writing in the disciplines Updated sample student papers New readings with examples of opposing views and multiple perspectives Still Life with Rhetoric Laurie Gries, 2015-04-01 Winner of the 2016 CCCC Advancement of Knowledge Award and the 2016 CCCC Research Impact Award In Still Life with Rhetoric Laurie Gries forges connections among new materialism actor network theory and rhetoric to explore how images become rhetorically active in a digitally networked global environment Rather than study how an already materialized visual text functions within a specific context Gries investigates how images often circulate and transform across media genre and location at viral rates A four part case study of Shepard Fairey s now iconic Obama Hope image elucidates how images reassemble collective life as they actualize in different versions enter into various relations and spark a firework of activity across the globe While intent on tracking the rhetorical life of a single multiple image Still Life with Rhetoric is most concerned with studying rhetoric in motion To account for an image s widespread circulation and emergent activities Gries introduces iconographic tracking a digital research method for tracing an image s divergent rhetorical becomings Yet Gries also articulates a dynamic set of theoretical principles for studying rhetoric as a distributed generative and unforeseeable event that is applicable beyond the study of visual rhetoric With an eye toward futurity the strands of time beyond a thing s initial moment of production and delivery Still Life with Rhetoric intends to be taken up by those interested

Rhetorical Affect in Early Modern Writing R. Cockcroft, 2002-12-10 Emotive language is now best understood by combining the analytic techniques of classical rhetoric with current linguistic practices With or without prompting the passions of Renaissance culture can stir contrary feelings in today's readers which are enlisted to validate a range of theorised responses This book will mediate between critics readers the author and the original audience using the New Rhetoric to open fresh perspectives on writers as diverse as Christopher Marlowe Lucy Hutchinson and Margaret Cavendish

Resources in Education , 1998 Constructing Rhetorical Education Davida Charney, Wilma R. Ebbitt, 1992 In nineteen essays illustrating its many aspects this book offers an argument for what it takes to construct a complete rhetorical education The editors take an approach that is pragmatic and pluralistic based as it is on the assumptions that a rhetorical education is not limited to teaching freshman composition or any specific writing course and that the contexts in which such an education occurs are not limited to classrooms This thought provoking volume stresses that while a rhetorical education results in the growth of writing skills its larger goal is to foster critical thinking Integrating Values with
