religious transformations of this eastern region of South Asia It explores many new inscriptions including Persian epigraphs that appeared immediately after the Muslim conquest of Bengal indicating an early introduction of Persian language in the region through a cultural interaction with Khurasan and Central Asia In addition to deciphering and editing the epigraphic texts the information derived from them has been analyzed to construct the political administrative social religious and cultural scenario of the period The first survey of the Muslim inscriptions in India ever to be attempted on this scale the book reveals the significance of epigraphy as a source for Islamic history and culture As such it will be of interest to students and scholars of Asian Studies Asian History and Islamic Studies Iqra',2003 Cultural and Heritage Tourism in the Middle East and North Africa Siamak Seyfi,C.
