Sharmila's Book Bharti Kirchner, 1999 But in spite of her mother's predictions a future filled with love and happiness may not be in the cards Crowdfunding: The Story of People Irfan Bashir, Ravina Banze, 2020-12-25 If we can acknowledge that our fate is connected with the fate of others and that of the collective world then we must ask ourselves how we can improve the world within our capacity How do we progress while ensuring the socio economic and emotional wellbeing of others One of the answers is through Crowdfunding Crowdfunding The Story Of People uses a data driven storytelling approach to capture the impact and potential of crowdfunding in a world governed by inequality It does so while maintaining a constant grip on both the micro and macro perspectives of collective giving social collaboration and financial inclusion As people we see life from a shared prism but how we interpret it often varies All of us have a unique way of deriving meaning from the stories around us We all share an inherent tendency to look at something small and connect it with larger patterns It is how we make sense of our world through connections patterns and shared interpretations By stitching together stories and data from around the world the authors have successfully mapped the crowdfunding universe in a lucid and riveting manner The authors flip through the pages of history to shed light on people's collective efforts and diverse fundraising techniques that have evolved into modern day crowdfunding They explore the current industry trends of crowdfunding the challenges it faces and piece together the potential solutions to those problems A Postcolonial Reading of Rabindranath Tagore's

Novels: Postcolonial Account of Tagore's Novels Dr. Karishma, Born in 1861 Rabindranath Tagore came on the Indian scene at a time when the Indian national movement for freedom was beginning to take shape Brought up in the environment of the Bengal renaissance and modernizing influence of the English education in India Tagore absorbed the new learning and made it his own Tagore always appreciated the culture and civilization of the west but he never failed to condemn the colonial hunger of England and other European countries The third world literatures and critical theory of Post colonialism are deeply rooted in the history of imperialism The postcolonial discourse pervading both creative and critical third world writings embraces the domains of race and ethnicity sex and class The Wait Damodar Mauzo, 2022-05-23 Damodar Mauzo's stories present us with vivid glimpses of the richly diverse cosmopolitan reality of contemporary Goa In these perceptive keenly observed stories Hindus Catholics and Muslims all find ways to co exist in defiance of bigotry AMITAV GHOSH A cab driver who assumes the identity of whoever his clients want him to be finds himself in a tricky situation with a passenger A late night call leads a doctor down a path of lust and desire but with unexpected results A writer acquaints himself with a thief who had broken into his house A migrant worker falls in love but wonders how he can present himself as a suitor A young man having lost the love of his life takes it upon himself to resolve another couple's dilemmas Konkani writer Damodar Mauzo's sometimes bizarre sometimes tender stories set largely in Goa create a world far removed from the sun and sand and the holiday resorts Here you find villagers facing moral choices children waking up to the realities of adult lives men who dwelling on remorse women who live a life of regret and communities whose bonds are growing tenuous in an age of religious polarization. Probing the deepest corners of the human psyche with tongue-in-cheek humour, Mauzo's stories reveal the many threads that connect us to others and the ease with which they can be broken. Written in simple prose and yet layered in nuances, The Wait is a collection that brings to the anglophone world one of the doyens of Konkani literature.
