Shattered Images Fred A. Reed, 2003 Discusses all of the major Islamic faiths in its search for the origins of contemporary fundamentalist movements Re-Imagining the Other M. Eid, K. Karim, 2014-07-24 The twenty first century exploded into the global imagination with unforgettable scenes of death and destruction An apocalyptic clash of civilizations seemed to be waged between two old foes the West and Islam However the decade long and ruinous war on terror has prompted re assessments of the militaristic approach to Western Muslim relations A growing number of academics policymakers religious leaders journalists and activists view the struggles as resulting from a clash of ignorance Re imagining the Other examines the ways in which knowledge is manipulated by dominant Western and Muslim discourses Authors from several disciplines study how the two societies have constructed images of each other in historical and contemporary times The complexities and subtleties of their mutually productive relationship are overshadowed by portrayals of unrelenting clash thus serving as encouragement for the promotion of war and terrorism The book proposes specific approaches to re imagine the Other in order to mitigate Western Muslim conflict And Freedom Became a Public-square Najib George Awad, 2012 Introduction Assaad E Kattan pt I The Arabic uprisings observations appraisals and expectations From despair and fear into face to face encounter A possible secularism and civil society In what form The West and the Islamist alternative in the Arab world pt II The Christians of the Arab world and the region's transformation The Christians in the Arab world The Christians' drainage and the persecution threat The Christians and the Islamist threat theory reflections on Syria 1 The Christians and the call for change reflections on Syria 2 pt III The Arab Christians and the promise of a contextual discourse A possible Arabic contextual theology why The Arab Christians and the question of the political role The Arab Christians and the question of interreligious relationships The Arab Christians and the question of human rights The Arab Christians and the question of national peace Conclusion Appendix I The Christians and the Syrian uprising how do we deal with their fears Appendix II The Arabic Spring and the democracy of the non democrats The Nation, 2003

The Crossing Samar Yazbek, 2015 Samar Yazbek was well known in her native Syria as a writer and a journalist but in 2011 she fell foul of the Assad regime and was forced to flee Since then determined to bear witness to the suffering of her people she bravely revisited her homeland by squeezing through a hole in the fence on the Turkish border In The Crossing she testifies to the appalling reality that is Syria today From the first innocent demonstrations for democracy through the beginnings of the Free Syrian Army to the arrival of ISIS she offers remarkable snapshots of soldiers children and ordinary men and women simply trying to stay alive Some of these stories are of hardship and brutality that is hard to bear but she also gives testimony to touches of humanity along the way how people live under the gaze of a sniper how principled young men try to resist orders from their military superiors how children cope in bunkers Yazbek s portraits of life in Syria are very real and her prose luminous The Crossing is undoubtedly both an important historical document and a work of literature
