detailed narratives about the parents children and family lives this book explores what it means to be multiracial and whether multiracial identity and status will matter for multiracial people s children Many couples suggested that their very existence and their children s is a step toward breaking down boundaries about the meaning of race and that the idea of a mixed race population is increasingly becoming normalized despite existing concerns about racism and racial bias within and beyond various communities A critical perspective on contemporary multiracial families Multiracial Parents raises fundamental questions about the future significance of racial boundaries and identities Multiracial hephzibah v. strmic-pawl,2022-10-14 The year 2000 was the first time the US Census permitted respondents to choose more than one race Although the US has long recognized that a mixed race population exists the contemporary multiracial population presents different questions and implications for today s diverse society This book is the first overview to bring a systematic critical race lens to the scholarship on mixedness Avoiding the common pitfall of conflating mixed with multiracial the book reveals how identity forms and fluctuates such that people with mixed heritage may identify as mixed monoracial and or multiracial throughout their lives It analyzes the dynamic and various manifestations of mixedness including at the global level to reveal its complex impact on both the structural and individual levels Multiracialcritically examinestopics such as family dynamics and racial socialization multiraciality in media and popular culture and intersections of race gender class and sexual orientation Integrating diverse theories qualitative research and national level data this accessible and engaging book is essential for students of race and those looking to understand the new field of multiraciality Political Blackness in Multiracial Britain Mohan Ambikaipaker,2018-07-06 One evening in 1980 a group of white friends drinking at the Duke of Edinburgh pub on East Ham High Street made a monstrous five pound wager The first person to kill a Paki would win the bet Ali Akhtar Baig a young Pakistani student who lived in the east London borough of Newham was their chosen victim Baig s murder was but one incident in a wave of antiblack racial attacks that were commonplace during the crisis of race relations in Britain in the 1970s and 1980s Ali Akhtar Baig s death also catalyzed the formation of a grassroots antiracist organization Newham Monitoring Project NMP that worked to transform the racist victimization of African African Caribbean and South Asian communities into campaigns for racial justice and social change In addition to providing a 24 hour hotline and casework services NMP activists worked to mitigate the scourge of racial injustice that included daily racial harassment hate crimes and antiblack police violence Since the advent of the War on Terror NMP widened its approach to support victims of the state s counterterror policies which have contributed to an unfettered surge in Islamophobia These realities as well as the many layers of gendered racism in contemporary Britain come to life through intimate ethnographic storytelling The reader gets to know a broad range of east Londoners and antiracist activists whose intersecting experiences present a multifaceted portrait of British racism Mohan Ambikaipaker examines the life experiences of these individuals through a strong theoretical lens that combines critical race theory and postcolonial studies Political Blackness in Multiracial Britain shows how the deep processes of everyday political whiteness shape the state's failure to provide effective remedies for ethnic racial and religious minorities who continue to face violence and institutional racism Racial Categorization of Multiracial Children in Schools Jane A. Chiong, 1998-05-21 Multiracial students have unique needs that are not being met in schools because teachers and school personnel assume that those needs are the same as those of monoracial minority children Children of multiple races are in fact invisible in the schools On school and federal forms they are racially categorized based on one race only and such categorizations are not limited to documents Schools and teachers may unknowingly transmit monoracial identity messages to multiracial students which is problematic for some students who may want to identify with more than one race Our racial categorization process reflects the deficiencies of the concept of race in American culture and needs to be renegotiated The multiracial child is a microcosm of the American cultural identity Current racial categorization of multiracial children reflects a society that is still renegotiating its own racial and ethnic identities and these children bear the burdens of the difficulties As America continues to become increasingly populated by diverse peoples what it means to be American is in transition Americans are moving away from a fixed notion of the American cultural identity toward an expanded more inclusive resolution Multicultural Education of Children and Adolescents G.
