New Thinking On Higher Education Creating A Context For Change:

New Thinking on Higher Education Joel W. Meyerson, 1998 Resources in Education, 2000-10 The Future of Higher Education Frank Newman, Lara Couturier, Jamie Scurry, 2010-04-30 A powerful look at the risks inherent in the trend toward making higher education a market rather than a regulated public sector The Future of Higher Education reveals the findings of an extensive four year investigation into the major forces that are transforming our American system of higher education The book explores the challenges of intensified competition among institutions globalization of colleges and universities the expansion of the new for profit and virtual institutions and the influence of technology on learning This important resource offers college and university leaders and policy makers an analysis of the impact of these forces of change and includes suggestions for creating an effective higher education market as well as a call for a renewed focus on the public purposes of higher education Private Higher Education Alma Maldonado-Maldonado, Yingxia Cao, Hong Zhu, Daniel C. Levy, Philip G. Altbach, 2006-08-01 This research project has been supported by the Ford Foundation the Lynch School of Education at Boston College and the Program of Research on Private Higher Education at the University at Albany

Governing Academia Ronald G. Ehrenberg, 2016-10-01 Public concern over sharp increases in undergraduate tuition has led many to question why colleges and universities cannot behave more like businesses and cut their costs to hold tuition down Ronald G Ehrenberg and his coauthors assert that understanding how academic institutions are governed provides part of the answer Factors that influence the governance of academic institutions include how states regulate higher education and govern their public institutions the size and method of selection of boards of trustees the roles of trustees administrators and faculty in shared governance at campuses how universities are organized for fiscal and academic purposes the presence or absence of collective bargaining for faculty staff and graduate student assistants pressures from government regulations donors insurance carriers athletic conferences and accreditation agencies and competition from for profit providers Governing Academia which covers all these aspects of governance is enlightening and accessible for anyone interested in higher education The authors are leading academic administrators and scholars from a wide range of fields including economics education law political science and public policy The Knowledge Economy and Postsecondary Education National Research Council, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Center for Education, Committee on the Impact of the Changing Economy on the Education System, 2002-05-11 The Workshop on the Knowledge Economy and Postsecondary Education documents changes seen in the postsecondary education system In her report Lisa Hudson focuses on who is participating in postsecondary education Tom Bailey concentrates on community colleges as the most responsive institutions to employer needs Carol Twigg surveys the ways that four year institutions are attempting to modify their curricular offerings and pedagogy to adapt those that will be more useful and Brian Pusser emphasizes the public's broader interests in higher education and challenges the acceptance of the primacy of job preparation for the individual and of market metaphors as an appropriate descriptor of American higher education An example of a for profit company providing necessary instruction for workers is also examined Richard Murnane Nancy Sharkey and Frank Levy investigate the experience of Cisco high school and community college students need to testify to their information technology skills to earn certificates Finally John Bransford Nancy Vye and Helen Bateman address the ways learning occurs and how these can be encouraged particularly in cyberspace Higher Education's Road to Relevance Susan A. Ambrose, Laura A.

Wankel, 2019-11-20 Explores the current context role and challenges of post secondary education and presents options for promising pathways forward The post secondary educational system has undergone dramatic changes and experienced immense stress in the past two decades Once regarded as the logical next step toward career opportunities and financial security higher education is a subject of growing uncertainty for millions of people across the United States It is more common than ever to question the return on investment skyrocketing cost and student debt burden of going to college Prospective students and many employers increasingly view attending institutions of higher learning as inadequate preparation for entering the 21st century workforce High profile scandals financial impropriety sexual abuse restrictions of free speech among others have further eroded public trust In response to these and other challenges leading voices are demanding strengthened accountability and measurable change Higher Education's Road to Relevance illustrates why change is needed in post secondary education and offers practical solutions to pressing concerns The authors internationally recognized experts in college level teaching and learning innovation draw heavily from contemporary research to provide an integrative approach for post secondary faculty staff and administrators of all levels This timely book helps readers identify the need for leadership in developing new networks and ecosystems of learning and workforce development This valuable book will help readers Understand the forces driving change in higher education Develop multiple pathways to create and credential self directed learners Promote access to flexible cost effective and relevant learning Adapt structures and pedagogies to address issues and overcome challenges Use an inclusive approach that extends to employers K 12 educators post secondary educators and policy makers among others Higher Education's Road to Relevance is a much needed resource for college and university administrators academic researchers instructors and other faculty and staff who support and interact with students

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Sustainability in Higher Education Wendy M. Purcell, Janet

Haddock-Fraser, 2023-01-12 This Handbook illustrates that universities per se and higher education in general are essential to catalyze and action the transformative change needed for sustainability and delivery of the Sustainable Development Goals Part One shows how sustainability can be adopted as a driver of change within higher education institutions HEIs as they react and respond to influencing factors outside the academy Part Two examines how a university working with and for sustainability can influence effect and amplify change beyond the institution working with and through others International contributors explore regional national and international perspectives presenting a variety of critically assessed accounts case studies that reflect different local and national contexts institutional archetypes and academic missions Frameworks of sustainability led transformation are illustrated at the level of the institution executive administrative organization culture place based anchor and student in various countries including Aruba Belgium Brazil Canada Hong Kong Japan Lebanon Nepal New Zealand Nigeria South Africa Spain Uganda United Kingdom and the United States of America The book concludes with a manifesto for change and a call to action It identifies that the sustainability journey of a HEI is influenced by context and place with mission leadership and strategy playing a vital role and change agency by students a key ingredient Recognizing the patience and resolve to effect change communication dialogue and inclusion were central to community building and partnership

Narratives of Academics' Personal Journeys in Contested Spaces Namrata Rao, Anesa Hosein, Ian M. Kinchin, 2023-05-18 Narratives of Academics Personal Journeys in Contested Spaces provides theoretically informed personal narratives of 11 emerging and established leaders in learning and teaching in Australia Finland New Zealand Singapore the UK and the USA The academics narratives focus on how the individuals have navigated to their current leadership role in learning and teaching whilst negotiating contested identities such as gender and physical and social marginalised spaces such as interstitial middle leadership positions These international narratives provide unique perspectives on the sense making of academics as they reflect on their learning and teaching leadership journey and how these journeys are shaped by their contested identities and the marginalised spaces they inhabit Often such identities and spaces are not recognised in higher education which may lead to even more isolating and challenging leadership journeys The book contributes to our understanding of the subjective experiences that academics encounter in their leadership journeys Further the personal narratives included in the book capture how the contested identities and marginalised spaces influence the learning and teaching leadership practices in various educational cultural and national contexts

Reforming Higher Education in Vietnam Grant Harman, Martin Hayden, Thanh Nghi Pham, 2009-12-16 Vietnam is a dynamic member of the community of Southeast Asian nations Consistent with aspirations across the region it is seeking to develop its higher education system as rapidly as possible Vietnam's approach stands out however as being extremely ambitious Indeed it may be at risk of attempting to do too much too quickly By 2020 for example Vietnam expects its higher education system to be advanced by modern standards and highly competitive in international terms This vision faces many challenges The economy though growing rapidly remains reliant on the availability of unskilled labour and the exploitation of natural resources and decision making in many areas of public life continues to be hamstrung by a legacy of over regulation and centralised control A large number of goals and objectives have been set for reform of the higher education system by 2020 The success of these reforms will have a major bearing on the future quality of the system This sober assessment Vietnam's global competitiveness forms a backdrop to the subject matter of this book that is the state of Vietnam's higher education system The book provides a comprehensive and scholarly review of various dimensions of the higher education system in Vietnam including its recent history its structure and governance its teaching and learning culture its research and research commercialisation environment its socio economic impact its strategic planning processes its progress with quality accreditation and its experience of internationalisation and privatisation

Reconceptualizing Securitization in Afghanistan Arif Sahar, Christian Kaunert, 2024-12-09 This book analyses the securitization of ethnic identities and social groups by the state in Afghanistan in the post 2001 context Securitization is arguably the most successful theoretical framework to analyse security beyond the military confines Yet despite its broadening agenda the securitization framework has been accused of a Western bias This book analyses the extent and the modalities and practices of the securitization of ethnic identities and social groups e g women by the state in Afghanistan post 2001 which is especially relevant following the takeover by the Taliban in August 2021 It puts forward a more nuanced argument by analytically distinguishing and empirically testing state policies practices and perspectives on ethnic and social groups that are largely informed by the fear and legacies of civil war 1978 2001 The work argues that the traditional lack of a stable state identity that could function as a basis for ontological security in Afghanistan has resulted in a persistent state of fragility exacerbated by the legacies and fears of civil war that have had a direct impact on the development of the state s perspectives on ethnic and social groups Whilst the state does not necessarily indulge in explicit securitization practices and discourses securitization often takes place through implicit activities to undermine ethnic and social groups ability to enter political economic and socio cultural competitions fairly and equitably which would in turn enable these groups to challenge the state The securitization process therefore has had an impact on the ability of these groups to benefit from opportunities fairly and equitably This book will be of much interest to students of critical security studies statebuilding Asian politics and International Relations in general

Reflective Teaching of Geography 11-18 Graham Butt, 2002-10-11 THIS IS THE SERIES BLURB LIST ALL BOOKS TOGETHER Continuum Studies in Reflective Practice and Research is a new series of textbooks aimed at teaching students As with Andrew Pollard s books they use the idiom of reflective teaching In other words they avoids the two extreme views about learning to teach namely that it is best done simply through acquiring practical tricks of the trade without any theory or that it is best done applying sytematized objective theory The distinctive feature of relective teaching is that it encourages practitioners to develop by continually inter relating theory and research findings to their own practice situation and style These comprehensive textbooks provide an accessible guide to all those who are new to teaching in secondary schools Covering all aspects of job from planning through to teaching and assessment the authors provide constructive accessible and above all practical advice to help subject teachers become more effective in their work
