Noir Movies Facts Figures And Fun:

Noir Movies Facts, Figures and Fun John Grant, 2005-09 We're living in the middle of a Cinema Noir revival to the extent that in recent years a whole new category of movie has been identified as neo noir. In this short but well researched book readers will find a treasure house of noir from the classics to the turkeys from the modern to the ancestral. Also featured are some of the great screen stars who forced this genre into the limelight whatever the critics of the day might have said as well as those authors who penned many of the stories.

Historical Dictionary of Film Noir Andrew Spicer, 2010-03-19 Film noir, literally black cinema, is the label customarily given to a group of black and white American films, mostly crime thrillers made between 1940 and 1959. Today there is considerable dispute about what are the shared features that classify a noir film and therefore which films should be included in this category. These problems are partly caused because film noir is a retrospective label that was not used in the 1940s or 1950s by the film industry as a production category and therefore its existence and features cannot be established through reference to trade documents. The Historical Dictionary of Film Noir is a comprehensive guide that ranges from 1940 to present day neo noir. It consists of a chronology, an introductory essay, a bibliography, a filmography and over 400 cross-referenced dictionary entries on every aspect of film noir and neo noir, including key films, personnel, actors, cinematographers, composers, directors, producers, set designers and writers, themes, issues, influences, visual style, cycles of films, e.g. amnesiac noirs, the representation of the city and gender, other forms, comics, graphic novels, television and videogames, and noir's presence in world cinema. It is an essential reference work for all those interested in this important cultural phenomenon.

European Film Noir Andrew Spicer, 2019-01-04 European Film Noir is the first book to bring together specialist discussions of film noir in specific European national cinemas. Written by leading scholars, this groundbreaking study provides an authoritative understanding of an important aspect of European cinema and of film noir itself, for too long considered as a solely American form. The Introduction reviews the problems of defining film noir, its key characteristics and discusses its significance to the development of European film, the relationship of specific national films, noirs to each other, to American noir and to historical and social change. Eight chapters then discuss film noir in France, Germany, Britain and Spain, analysing both earlier developments and the evolution of neo noir through to the present. A further chapter explores film noir in Italian cinema, where its presence is not so well defined. Each piece provides a critical overview of the most significant films in relation to their industrial and social contexts. European Film Noir is an important contribution to the study of European cinema that will have a broad appeal to undergraduates, cinema film teachers and researchers.

Historical Dictionary of Crime Films Geoff Mayer, 2012-09-13 The crime film genre consists of detective films, gangster films, suspense thrillers, film noir and caper films and is produced throughout the world. Crime film was there at the birth of cinema and it has accompanied cinema over more than a century of history, passing from silent films to talkies, from black and white to color. The genre includes such classics as The Maltese Falcon, The Godfather, Gaslight, The French Connection and Serpico as well as more recent successes like Seven and Drive and L.A. Confidential. The Historical Dictionary of Crime Films covers the history of this genre through a chronology, an introductory essay, and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has over 300 cross-referenced entries on key films, directors, performers, and studios. This book is an excellent access point for students, researchers, and anyone wanting to know more about crime cinema.

The Maltese Touch of Evil Shannon Scott Clute, Richard L. Edwards, 2011. Part thinking man's fan crush, part crazily inspired remix of the most beloved of film genres, this book will force scholars and film lovers alike to view film noir afresh.

Neo-noir Douglas Keesey, 2010-12-01. Directors discussed include the Coen Brothers, David Lynch, Michael Mann, Christopher Nolan, Steven Soderbergh, and Quentin Tarantino. A world-weary detective, a seductive femme fatale, a mysterious murder—these elements of classic film noir live again in more recent hardboiled detective films from Chinatown to Sin City. But the themes and styles of noir have also spilled over into contemporary films about gangsters, cops, and serial killers such as Reservoir Dogs, The Departed, and Se7en. New hybrid genres have been created, including psycho noirs such as Memento, techno noirs such as The Matrix, and superhero noirs like The Dark Knight. Beginning by showing how neo noirs have drawn upon contemporary social and historical events as well as the latest technological advances in filmmaking, this book then discusses the landmark neo noirs, the cult auteur figures of neo noir, international films, and the remakes that put a new spin on past noirs. The main credits and a plot summary are given for each movie, including Fargo, Get Carter, L.A. Confidential, Mulholland Drive, Oldboy, and Pulp Fiction, followed by an in-depth analysis containing original insights into the film's meaning. Also included are fascinating facts behind the scenes, anecdotes, and lively quotes from the cast and crew.

American Noir Film M. Keith Booker, 2024-11-19. A deep dive into classic noir films and how filmmakers today are refreshing and updating the genre for new generations. Publishers Weekly praises the book, noting: "Cinephiles will be enthralled." Library Journal says it's a well-written introduction to noir films and how the genre has continued to thrive as times changed. Booklist calls it a riveting history of the film noir genre in a starred review, saying: "This is one of the best, best-written, most insightful analyses of film noir and it demands to be read by fans of film history." In American Noir Film, M. Keith Booker introduces readers to the cult favorite genre of film noir and discusses the ongoing power and popularity of the genre's key elements and themes in modern films often considered neo noir well into the twenty-first century. Booker covers a wide range of noir favorites from the early classics The Maltese Falcon and The Big Sleep to late twentieth-century neo noir such as Chinatown and ultimately newer iterations of the genre as seen in such films as Inherent Vice, Promising Young Woman, and Uncut Gems. American Noir Film contains three separate parts, each exploring crucial categories of noir: the detective film, the lost man film, and femme fatale films. Within each section, Booker discusses the essential classic noir films that embody these themes as well as neo noir films that invite viewers to analyze how the traditional components of noir have evolved with filmmaking. Finally, each section concludes with twenty-first-century films that evoke noir elements while refreshing the genre and enhancing viewers' experience.
