Nuestra Buenos Aires:

The Unfinished Song of Francisco Urondo Hernan Fontanet, 2014-10-24 The Unfinished Song of Francisco Urondo When Poetry is Not Enough is a comprehensive well written documented and carefully developed study of the literary work and life of Francisco Urondo an Argentine poet intellectual activist cultural promoter revolutionary and clandestine guerilla member who died in 1976 fighting for a cause in which he believed against the oppressive Argentine Military Junta This methodical but never mechanistic work shows how life events cultural milieu political movements and world circumstances interacted and impacted Urondo s temperament to produce his poetic voice his prose and his theatrical works By studying the man we get closer to his poetry With his poetry the author makes a compelling case for understanding the man Francisco Urondo s life work and praxis were varied agonizing at times and always marked by imperatives This book fills a significant lacuna in the scholarship on the work of this worthy yet neglected and under studied writer Readers of this book will come away with not only a deepened understanding of the man and his writings but also of a key period in recent Argentine political social and intellectual history

Jewish Serials of the World Robert Singerman, 2000-11-30 Jewish journalism history is a growing field of active research as evidenced by the growing number of new serials devoted to it Given the geographic extent of the Jewish diaspora the Jewish press offers valuable primary source materials for any historical study of the Jewish people The social and intellectual history of the Jews in modern times can similarly be advanced by an examination of the Jewish press of the world This volume the first supplement to Jewish Serials of the World A Research Bibliography continues and extends the bibliographic coverage to include 3 000 new entries The new volume s classified arrangement enhanced by author and subject indexes provide up to date coverage of all pertinent research including theses and dissertations on Jewish press and journalism history throughout the world in all languages This new bibliography is indispensable for libraries supporting academic programs in Jewish Studies and journalism as well as area studies Singerman s coverage of the studies and research about the Jewish press is broadly defined his scope is worldwide and all pertinent languages are treated The 3 000 entries are verified and bibliographically complete and special efforts have been made to analyze hidden sections on the Jewish press buried within larger more expansive studies of related topics The entries are organized into regional subcategories Together with the foundation volume over 6 000 entries are provided making this an important addition to any libraries with Jewish Studies or journalism collections
