Nuestra Natacha:

Nuestra Natacha Alejandro Casona, 1979-10-01 Nuestra Natacha ; Otra vez el diablo Alejandro Casona, 1943

Escritores, editoriales y revistas del exilio republicano de 1939 Manuel Aznar Soler, 2006 Literatura española contemporánea (1898-1950) Juan Chabás, Carmen Valcárcel, 2001-01-01 Esta edición rescata una de las realizaciones más ambiciosas del exilio republicano y por extensión de la España de posguerra. Publicada en La Habana en 1952, la obra no puede comprenderse en su total significación sin atender al compromiso sociopolítico que representa así como al método que aplica que no son otros en primer lugar que la concreción de una crítica militante y en segundo la coherente conjunción de la Estilística y los principios de la doctrina marxista. Theatre Censorship in Spain, 1931-1985 Catherine O'Leary, Michael Thompson, 2023-05-15 This is a comprehensive study of the impact of censorship on theatre in twentieth century Spain. It draws on extensive archival evidence, vivid personal testimonies and in-depth analysis of legislation to document the different kinds of theatre censorship practised during the Second Republic 1931-6, the civil war 1936-9, the Franco dictatorship 1939-75 and the transition to democracy 1975-85. Changes in criteria, administrative structures and personnel from these periods are traced in relation to wider political, social and cultural developments and the responses of playwrights, directors and companies are explored. With a focus on censorship, new light is cast on particular theatre-makers and their work, the conditions in which all kinds of theatre were produced, the construction of genres and canons as well as on broader cultural history and changing ideological climate, all of which are linked to reflections on the nature of censorship and the relationship between culture and the state. Directory of World Cinema: Brazil Louis Bayman, Natalia Pinazza, 2014-02-15 Best known to international audiences for its carnivalesque irreverence and recent gangster blockbusters, Brazilian cinema is gaining prominence with critics at global film festivals and on DVD shelves. This volume seeks to introduce newcomers to Brazilian cinema and to offer valuable insights to those already well versed in the topic. It brings into sharp focus some of the most important movements, genres and themes from across the eras of Brazilian cinema, from cinema novo to musical, chanchada, the road movie to cinema de bordas, avant-garde to pornochanchada. Delving deep beyond the surface of cinema, the volume also addresses key themes such as gender, indigenous and diasporic communities and Afro-Brazilian identity. Situating Brazilian cinema within the country's changing position in the global capitalist system, the essays consider uneven modernization, class division, dictatorship, liberation struggles and globalization alongside questions of entertainment and artistic innovation. Latin American Melodrama Darlene J. Sadlier, 2010-10-01 Like their Hollywood counterparts, Latin American film and TV melodramas have always been popular and highly profitable. The first of its kind, this anthology engages in a serious study of the aesthetics and cultural implications of Latin American melodramas. Written by some of the major figures in Latin American film scholarship, the studies range across seventy years of movies and television within a transnational context, focusing specifically on the period known as the Golden Age of melodrama, the impact of classic
