

A woman with dark hair and blue eyes is looking out a window. Her reflection is visible in the glass. The scene is softly lit, with a warm, golden glow from the left. The title 'Revealed' is written in a large, elegant, cursive script across the top. Below it, the subtitle 'Spiritual Reality in a Makeover World' is written in a smaller, simpler font.

Andre E. Keeley, 2019-10-03 It has been said that the eleven o'clock hour on Sunday morning is the most segregated hour of the week. In churches that tout Christian unity as the one quality essential to accomplishing God's will in the world, division still remains the one quality that defines the place of the Church in the world today. That division is not limited to the varied members of the worshipping community but in leadership as well. Scripture the record of our faith tells the faithful that regardless of person the varied gifts and talents that exist among us are the tools essential for building the beloved kingdom. Those tools have been dispersed to the faithful who understand the importance of identifying the kingdom of heaven and pointing the way to it. In short as Scripture describes it: To make the path straight. Using the eight parables of Jesus that begin with the words the kingdom of heaven is like to describe heaven's nature and our place in it is the central focus of the book. The faithful of the Church over ages past understood the work to be carried out if God's will is to be done on earth as it is in heaven. That work is given to those regardless of person who acknowledge heaven as a place of eternal oneness and divine presence. Pointing to that place is the task given to the faithful that all humanity may know the reaches of a loving God. The God of creation has given gifts to the faithful to identify divine presence. The God of divine guidance has given talents to the faithful to illumine the way to that presence. The God of eternal salvation has given blessing to the faithful to help make the way a blessing to all regardless of person.

The Svetlana Boym Reader Svetlana Boym, 2018-04-19 Svetlana Boym was a prolific writer, a charismatic professor, a novelist, and a public intellectual. She was also a fiercely resourceful and reflective immigrant. Her most resonant book, The Future of Nostalgia, was deeply rooted in that experience. Even after The Future of Nostalgia carried her fame beyond academic circles, few readers were aware of all of her creative personas. She was simply too prolific, and her work migrated across most people's disciplinary boundaries from literary and cultural studies through film, visual, and material culture studies, performance, intermedia, and new media. The Svetlana Boym Reader presents a comprehensive view of Boym's singularly creative work in all its aspects. It includes Boym's classic essays, carefully chosen excerpts from her five books, and journalistic gems. Showcasing her roles both as curator and as curator, the reader includes interviews and excerpts from exhibition catalogues as well as samples of intermedial works like Hydrant Immigrants. It also features autobiographical pieces that shed light on the genealogy of her scholarly work and rarities like an excerpt from Boym's first graduate school essay on Russian literature, complete with marginalia by her mentor Donald Fanger. Last but not least, the reader includes late pieces that Boym did not live to see through publication as well as transcripts of her memorable last lectures and performances.
