Library, 1863 Less Translated Languages Albert Branchadell, Lovell Margaret West, 2005 This is the first collection of articles devoted entirely to less translated languages a term that brings together well known widely used languages such as Arabic or Chinese and long neglected minority languages with power as the key word at play It starts with some views on English the dominant language in Translation as elsewhere considers the role of translation for minority languages both a source of inequality and a means to overcome it takes a look at translation from less translated major languages and cultures and ends up with a closer look at translation into Catalan a paradigmatic case of less translated language in a final section that includes a vindication of six prominent Catalan translators Combining sound theoretical insight and accurate analysis of relevant case studies the contributors to this collection make a convincing case for a more thorough examination of less translated languages within the field of Translation Studies The Histories of the Latin American Church Joel Morales Cruz, 2014 Part one provides an overview of Christianity the Bible and theology in Latin America Part two provides information for each country including demographics timeline church and state autonomous churches major religious festivals popular devotions saints and blessed and biographies Apropos of Ideology Maria Calzada-Pérez, 2014-04-08 Today s worldwide ideological tensions have captured the interest of such varied disciplines as political science anthropology sociology cultural studies and linguistics There are two primary reasons why translation studies cannot ignore the ideological debate Historically translation has always been a site for ideological clashes In addition globalization is now setting off translational mechanisms even within monolingual artifacts and this calls for the expertise of translation scholars Apropos of Ideology aims to contribute to the broader discussion of ideology by providing a forum for debating ideological issues in translation as well as by bringing together within the pages of a single volume different types of translation research informed by very different research ideologies Adopting a wide definition of ideology as a set of ideas beliefs and codes of behaviour that govern a community by virtue of being regarded as the norm a number of translation scholars look into ideological phenomena as they impinge on the process of translation They consider questions of politics but also reflect upon gender sexuality religion secularity technology and even the very discipline of translation studies At the same time the volume displays the kaleidoscopic complexity of the discipline while providing a strong argument that such diversity of perspectives is highly desirable Contributors include Maria Tymoczko Rosemary Arrojo Christiane Nord Keith Harvey Peter Fawcett Ma Carmen Africa Vidal Christina Sch ffner David Katan Francesco Straniero Sergio and Sehnaz Tahir The

Return to Ethics Anthony Pym, 2016-04-22 If civilizations are to cooperate as well as clash our mediators must solve problems using serious thought about relations between Self and Other Translation Studies has thus returned to questions of ethics But this is no return to any prescriptive linguistics of equivalence As the articles in this volume show ethics is now a broadly contextual question dependent on practice in specific cultural locations and situational determinants It concerns people perhaps more than texts It involves representing dynamics seeking specific goals challenging established norms and bringing theory closer to historical practice The contributions to this volume study a wide range of translational activity questioning global copyright regimes denouncing exploitation within the translation profession defending a Bible translation in terms of multilateral loyalty and delving into the dynamics of popular genres the culture bubbles of talk shows the horrors of disaster relief in Turkey military interpreters in the Balkans and urgent political pleas from a Greek prison The theoretical approaches range from empirical text analysis to applications of fuzzy logic passing through a proposed Translator's Oath and converging in a common concern with cross cultural alterity The Gospels and Acts of the Apostles in the
