Sahelian Masquerades:

Sahelian Masquerades Bruce Onobrakpeya, 1988 Masquerades in African Society Walter E. A. Van Beek, Harrie M. Leyten, 2023 What is the meaning of masks and masquerades in African traditions and how can we understand their role in rituals and performances Why do we find masks in some African regions and not in others and what does this mask habitat say about the general dynamics of masquerades in Africa Though masks are among the most famous art icons of Africa exploration of their uses and the way in which they articulate social characteristics of African societies has been underexamined This book takes an anthropological perspective on the phenomenon of masquerades on the African continent to show how mask rituals are an integral part of African indigenous religions and societies and are informed by and linked to specific types of social and ecological conditions Having established the commonalities of mask rituals and a mask typology the authors look at the varieties of mask performances and the types of rituals in which masks function in rites of passage and in rituals of gender power and identity Art History and Fetishism Abroad Gabriele Genge, Angela Stercken, 2014-12-15 By focusing on the various modes and media of the fetishised object this anthology shifts the debates on thingness into a new global art historical perspective The contributors explore the attention given to those material images in both artistic and cultural practice from the heyday of colonial expansion until today They show that in becoming vehicles and agents of transculturality so called fetishes take shape in the 17th to 19th century aesthetics psychology and ethnography and furthermore inspire a recent discourse on magical practice and its secular meanings requiring altered art historical approaches and methods Studies in Urhobo Culture Peter Palmer Ekeh, 2005 This unique book is the product of pioneering research carried out by scholars native to the Urhobo culture and language Unlike many of the other major ethnic cultures in Nigeria which were studied by Western anthropologist in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the Urhobo language and culture remained neglected Studies in Urhobo Culture represents a comparatively new area of research approached from an indigenous perspective The result is a wide ranging survey of Urhobo culture in Nigeria offering diverse perspectives on topics such as naming traditions and practices of the Urhobo religious beliefs values and movements traditions of marriage artistic productions food and dress subcultures and the geography of Urhoboland and agricultural practices In depth consideration is given to Urhobo traditional poetry and the intellectual aspects of Urhobo culture and language within the wider complex of the Edoid languages and cultures The contributors further situate the language question within the global context of language endangerment arguing the Urhobo case is an example of how English and Pidgin are imperilling small and medium sized languages in Africa and weakening the hold of indigenous cultures on the younger generation A Companion to Modern African Art Gitti Salami, Monica Blackmun Visona, 2013-10-22 Offering a wealth of perspectives on African modern and Modernist art from the mid nineteenth century to the present this new Companion features essays by African European and North American authors who assess the work of individual artists as well as exploring broader themes such as discoveries of new technologies and globalization A pioneering continent based assessment of modern art and modernity across Africa Includes original and previously unpublished fieldwork based material Features new and complex theoretical arguments about the nature of modernity and Modernism Addresses a widely acknowledged gap in the literature on African Art Image and Form ,1997 The Zaria Art Society P. Chike Dike,Pat Oyelola,1998 The African Guardian ,1992 Contemporary African Artists Studio Museum in Harlem,El Anatsui,1990 Artists include El Anatsui Youssouf Bath Ablade Glover Tapfuma Gutsa Rosemary Karuga Souleymane Keita Nicholas Mukomberanwa Henry Munyaradzi Bruce Onobrakpeya The Politics of Islam in the Sahel Rahmane Idrissa,2017-06-14 Ideologies need enemies to thrive religion does not Using the Sahel as a source of five comparative case studies this volume aims to engage in the painstaking task of disentangling Islam from the political ideologies that have issued from its theologies to fight for governmental power and the transformation of society While these ideologies tap into sources of religious legitimacy the author shows that they are fundamentally secular or temporal enterprises defined by confrontation with other political ideologies both progressive and liberal within the arena of nation states Their objectives are the same as these other ideologies i e to harness political power for changing national societies and they resort to various methods of persuasion until they break down into violence The two driving questions of the book are whence come these ideologies and why do they sometimes result in violence Ideologies of Salafi radicalism are at work in the five countries of the Sahel region Burkina Faso Mali Niger Northern Nigeria and Senegal but violence has broken out only in Mali and Northern Nigeria Using a theoretical framework of ideological development and methods of historical analysis Idrissa traces the emergence of Salafi radicalism in each of these countries as a spark ignited by the shock between concurrent processes of Islamization and colonization in the 1940s However while the spark eventually ignited a blaze in Mali and Nigeria it has only led to milder political heat in Niger and Senegal and has had no burning effect at all in Burkina Faso By meticulously examining the development of Salafi radicalism ideologies over time in connection with developments in national politics in each of the countries Idrissa arrives at compelling conclusions about these divergent outcomes Given the many similarities between the countries studied these divergences show in particular that history the behaviour of state leaders and national sociologies matter against assumptions of natural contradictions between religion Islam and secularism or democracy This volume offers a new perspective in discussions on ideology which remains as is shown here the independent variable of many key contemporary political processes either hidden in plain sight or disguised in a religious garb Nigerian Artists Janet L. Stanley,1993 The Arts of Africa ,1992 The Fourth Masquerade Yeibo, Ebi,2015-04-27 As one of the most important Nigerian poets who continue to write the nation in verse Yeibo in this fifth collection of poems has strategically fashioned a kind of poetry that does not only derive its idiom from the prosody and folk tradition of the Izon of Nigeria it equally advances the poet s vision through form and structure His recourse to folklore and reliance on oral materials in the image making process gives coherence and form to the poems However what distinguishes this collection from the previous ones is the question of the form through which he demonstrates an intense awareness of the Nigerian experience The Nigerian Artist of the Millennium Daniel Olaniyan Babalola,2004 The Visual Arts of Africa Judith Perani,Fred.
