Sailing Uphill An Unconventional Life On The Water:

Sailing Uphill Sam McKinney, 2000 Sam McKinney has spent many of the best parts of his life on the water sailing a dory along Canada's west coast crewing on the deck of a river steamer shipping out deep sea in freighters across the Atlantic In the middle of his life when he sold the hull of an ocean going sailboat which had absorbed two years of his love and labour he looked at his boat building shed and thought Hmm With all this lumber I could build a boat and go across the continent instead So he did In the Gander he travelled up the Columbia and Snake rivers down the Missouri up the Mississippi and Illinois and on ever eastward to New York City It took him four summers and three Ganders one of which had to be abandoned in the mud of the upper Missouri but he made it This is a lovely and evocative memoir by a perceptive and thoughtful writer

The Sea in the Literary Imagination Ekaterina V. Kobeleva, Ben P. Robertson, Shannon W. Thompson, 2019-01-03 This collection explores nautical themes in a variety of literary contexts from multiple cultures Including contributors from five continents it emphasizes the universality of human experience with the sea while focusing on literature that spans a millennium stretching from medieval romance to the twenty first century reimagining of classic literary texts in film These fresh essays engage in discussions of literature from the UK the USA India Chile Turkey Spain Japan Colombia and the Caribbean Scholars of maritime literature will find the collection interesting for the unique insights it offers on individual literary texts while general readers will be intrigued by the interconnectedness that it reveals in human experience with the sea *Canadian Books in Print. Canadian Books in Print 2002 Marian Butler, 2002-02 Heart of the Raincoast Alexandra Morton, Bill Proctor, 2016-05-03 Originally published in 1998 this updated edition has a brand new cover and interior design with a new foreword by Alexandra Morton Billy Proctor was born in 1934 and has spent his entire life in a remote coastal community called Echo Bay BC on an island off northern Vancouver Island Proctor has always done the time honoured work of generations of upcoast men hand logging fishing clam digging repairing boats beachcombing But Billy eventually began to notice that the thriving runs of Pacific salmon oolichans and herring that he remembers from his early years were vanishing some to near extinction and he understood that it was time to take action Heart of the Raincoast is the fascinating story of Billy Proctor's life and the wealth of knowledge and understanding that can only be gained from living in such close proximity to nature The writing is funny touching and honest and offers an engaging insider's view not only of the salmon whales eagles and independent people who populate Canada's wild and lovely coastal rainforest but on what we need to do to keep it as nature intended Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004 A Poet'S Guide to Outdoor Exercise John Famulary, 2013-03-01 In A Poets Guide to Outdoor Exercise author John Famulary shares some remarkable outdoor exercise adventures set in such exotic locales as Williamsburg Brooklyn Central Park the Catskill Mountains and a football field in New Jersey John discusses the advantages of outdoor exercise and in clues and descriptions suggests steps you can take to create your own outdoor exercise routine For the author outdoor exercise means being in nature wherever he finds it plus the joy of movement as they used to say Theres some philosophy here too A little poetry as well and some excerpts from an unconventional life the author s own In fresh and inventive prose Famulary has penned a thought provoking memoir thats also a practical guide to physical fitness and a metaphysical tool Sometimes humorous occasionally profound A Poets Guide to Outdoor Exercise invites readers to explore pathways and processes both physical and metaphysical that can help us energize and re vitalize almost every time      Deadeye Michael Smart,2014-07-14 Police Superintendent Jolene Johanssen s investigation of a fatal vehicular accident and a seemingly unrelated suicide leads her to a chilling discovery and an adversary tasked with protecting the conspiracy at all costs      Econoguide Cruises 2006 Corey Sandler,2005-11 From tips on choosing the perfect ship itinerary cabin and dining options for your style and budget to ratings for all the major cruise lines this guide offers a wealth of insider information about how to make your next cruise vacation truly memorable Author Corey Sandler is a former journalist and editor He has written more than 160 books on travel video games and computers      Econoguide Cruises 2005 Corey Sandler,2004-12 Overviews of today s best cruise ships to Europe the Caribbean Hawaii New England and Alaska Descriptions of a variety of cruises from trips aboard major cruise lines to private sailing vessels Power Trips Step by step daily itineraries to help avoid the crowds Day trip itineraries from various ports of call Time and money saving strategies for on board expenses shore excursions shopping and more      Sailing Uphill Gerald W. Mills,2013-04 Think of sailing the word and all the idyllic images it evokes about visiting new and exciting places while enjoying sunny skies refreshing free winds crystal waters aquatic life and gentle moonlight peeking between scudding clouds on balmy evenings Imagine relaxing with a refreshing drink after each satisfying few hours of delight on the water perhaps sharing experiences with other boaters and planning your next day s exciting sun blessed experience Do these images tell a true story Are they not similar to those seen on TV advertising far away locations and water parks and perfect people perfectly dressed for their perfect fun and the enjoyment promised Do these images represent reality part of the time Practically none of the time Choose the last answer and you ll be knocking on Truth s door Could this true story be about a happily married late middle aged couple with limited finances romantically cruising aboard a beautiful ocean sailing yacht after years of nose to the grindstone work sacrifice irony and setbacks Sorry no dice Wrong story The adventures unfolding in the following pages are not only at odds with armchair reader myths about cruising under sail in general but examine the subject of odds that ratio of numbers expressing the probability of an event happening to the probability of its not happening In a typical lottery with numbers ranging from one to fifty two the odds of success are billions to one We should have chosen the lottery Sailing was the easy part Getting the darned boat to go uphill was the problem      Blue Water, Green Skipper Stuart Woods,2012-08-02 The 1 New York Times bestselling author of the Stone Barrington series tells the true story of his journey sailing alone across the Atlantic Ocean Stuart Woods had never owned more than a dinghy before setting out on one of the world's most demanding sea voyages navigating single handedly across the Atlantic How at the age of thirty seven did this self proclaimed novice go from small ponds to the big sea Now with a new afterword that looks back at how one transatlantic race changed his life Woods takes readers on a spectacular journey not just of traveling across the world but of being tried in fire learning by accepting challenges appreciating the beauty of the open water and living to tell about it

Sailing Bear Cub Paula C. Vickery, 2022-01-13 Using offshore sailing as an analogy to sailing one's own life the author reflects back on her life long affiliation with water and boats and how they are intertwined with relationships in her life From one woman's perspective this memoir describes how a family built a sailboat cut society's comfort cord and began a five year sailing adventure to the South Pacific This memoir is an excellent read for sailing doers donors and dreamers It is full of adventure and humor The author was able to glean an awareness and insight into many cultures in Oceania and shares descriptive experiences with people she encountered It is a glimpse of off the beaten track places The author describes an extraordinary life that most people can't even fathom as well as lessons she learned and how she coped while the winds of life were filling her sails

Sailing to the Edge of Time John Kretschmer, 2018-11-13 John Kretschmer is sailing's practical philosopher as much a doer as a thinker And that is the overarching theme of this chronicle of a sailing life Often amusing sometimes poignant occasionally terrifying but always inspiring his deeply personal account is a welcome reminder of the good life waiting at sea With hundreds of thousands of nautical miles under his keel John's adventures have taken him several times around the world with challenging crossings of the Atlantic and the Pacific a narrow escape from a coup in Yemen an unlikely deliverance from a coral reef off Belize as well as more serene introspective passages where trade winds are blowing and stories are flowing His crew has included CEOs actors writers teachers kids in essence everyone John's narrative is interwoven with practical tips and advice in seamanship but also and just as importantly his hard won insights about making the most of our lives He truly believes we find out who we really are and what we are capable of far from the shackles of land when we find a place where time changes shape days may merge into one another but minutes are memorable To live adventurously is to live more fully and that is the life John Kretschmer continues to live In this book he shares his simple profundities that will inspire those who live to sail and those seeking something more rewarding from life

Blue Water Women Gina de Vere, 2018-11 This book is for the young and young at heart who yearn for adventure It is written for those women considering a life changing direction and those seeking a career at sea It is not an instruction book but you will learn from the experience of other blue water women what you need to know to have your own adventures Interviewed within are other blue water sailing women Shared advice and experiences show you how to make the most of your adventure This book will see you safely and confidently make that leap of faith to experience the joys of a life lived at sea

Uphill All the Way Alan Sears, 1998 Called the world's toughest yacht race the BT Global Challenge lived up to its name in every respect Sailing 30 000 miles around the world the wrong way the crews braved iceburys snowstorms and

hurricane force winds yet the fourteen identical yachts taking part were crewed by amateurs many with little or no previous sailing experience

Walking on Water Geoff Holt, 2008-12 On September 5 1984 eighteen year old Geoff Holt dived into an idyllic tropical sea and his life changed forever A broken neck cut short a promising career as a yachtsman and left him paralyzed with his horizons reduced to an uncertain future in a wheelchair On September 5 2007 after a journey of 109 days and 1445 miles Geoff Holt crossed the finish line in the Solent and reached the summit of his Personal Everest he was the first quadriplegic yachtsman to sail single handed around Britain Walking on Water is Geoff's very personal story of his life before the accident how he learned to live with his disability how he achieved remarkable success in spite of it and in particular how he rediscovered the sea and helped to promote sailing opportunities for disabled people It is also the story of how he conceived organized and completed the dangerous Personal Everest voyage Moving uplifting and written with humor it is above all a journey through a remarkable life a powerful affirmation of the potential of the human spirit Two Years Behind The Helm: From the Office to the Ocean Cam Seamus, 2021-05-29 A memoir of the author's journey from a sales executive to a working captain on a sailboat As Cam wanders through the world reflecting on his own life and the world around him he ultimately finds himself Where the Magic Happens Caspar Craven, 2018-05-17 In June 2009 Caspar and Nichola created a plan to sail around the world with their young children Most people thought they were crazy But over the past seven years they've embraced every moment of this momentous chapter of their lives Five years of planning the vision the values the practicalities the realities the excitement the highs the lows and the seemingly adventure stopping obstacles led to two wonderful years of living their dream the magical and the scary enjoying life and learning as a family This is Caspar's story It's a story of a fabulous sailing adventure but it's also so much more than that it's an inspirational tale for all those wishing they could do the same it's a practical guide to show you just how you can make it happen it's a motivational story of leadership and teamwork within a family and it's a funny heart warming tale of slightly unconventional family life The fascinating narrative of Caspar's story is accompanied by useful text features such as tip boxes sidebars and chapter summaries so that the reader can easily extrapolate the necessary nuggets about how they can make the dream a reality
