Beeton's Hero soldiers, sailors and travellers in Kafirland; gymnastics, telegraphy, fire-arms &c., ed. by S.O. Beeton Samuel Orchard Beeton, 1873      The Vital Spark John Armstrong, 2017-10-18 This book collects seventeen previously published essays by John Armstrong concerning the British coastal trade Armstrong is a leading maritime historian and the essays provided here offer a thorough exploration of the British coastal trade his specialisation during the period of industrialisation and technological development that would lead to modern shipping The purpose is to demonstrate the whether or not the coastal trade was the main carrier of internal trade and a pioneer of the technical developments that modernised the shipping industry Each essay makes an original contribution to the field and covers a broad range of topics including the fluctuating importance of the coastal trade and size of the coastal fleet over time the relationship between coastal shipping canals and railways a comparison between the coastal liner and coastal tramp trade the significance of the river Thames in enabling trade coastal trade economics maritime freight rates the early twentieth century shipping depression competition between coastal liner companies and a detailed study of the role of the government in coastal shipping The book also contains case studies of the London coal trade coastal trade through the River Dee port and the Liverpool Hull trade route It contains a foreword introduction and bibliography of Armstrong's writings There is no overall conclusion except the assertion that coastal shipping plays a tremendous role in British maritime history and a call for further research into the field      Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors of the Revolutionary War Massachusetts. Office of the Secretary of State, 1896      The Sailors' Magazine and Seamen's Friend, 1869      His Good Name Christina Geisen, Jean Li, Steven B. Shubert, Kei Yamamoto, 2021-03-20 The wish to affiliate with a specific cultural social or ethnical group is as important today as it was in past societies such as that of the ancient Egyptians The same significance applies to the self presentation of an individual within such a group Although it is inevitable that we perceive ancient cultures through the lens of our time place and value systems we can certainly try to look beyond these limitations Questions of how the ancient Egyptians saw themselves and how individuals tried to establish and thus present themselves in society are central pieces of the puzzle of how we interpret this ancient culture This volume focuses on the topic of identity and self presentation tackling the subject from many different angles the ways in which social and personal identities are constructed and maintained the manipulations of culture by individuals to reflect real or aspirational identities and the methods modern scholars use to attempt to say something about ancient persons Building on the work of Ronald J Leprohon to whom this volume is dedicated contributions in this volume present an overview of our current state of understanding of patterns of identity and self presentation in ancient Egypt The contributions approach various aspects of identity and self presentation through studies of gender literature material culture mythology names and officialdom      "The" Athenaeum James-Silk

Buckingham,1841      The Durham University Journal University of Durham,1898      European and Non-European Societies, 1450-1800 Robert Forster,2019-07-16 First published in 1997 this is the first of two volumes It looks at the process of European expansion which brought into contact societies and cultures across the world which had been initially alien to one another Conflict and violent conflict was one aspect of this interaction but accommodation mutual adaptation and institutional and behavioural synthesis were also present though often biased in favour of European norms The intent of this book is to avoid treating colonization dominance and exploitation as the only focuses of attention In the first volume Robert Forster explores issues of formative influences the impact of Eurocentrism on historiography and the reaction against it and the differing approaches and perceptions of the Europeans notably the Spanish French and English In this period he distinguishes three modes of interaction that of the trading empires generally in Africa and Asia where the European control of the encounter was slighter and those of the regions of settlement as in North America and of exploitation typified by the Caribbean where the European impact was profound The second volume focuses on the Americas and uses the topics of religion class gender and race as its points of entry      The Green Hand George Cupples,2018-09-21 Reproduction of the original The Green Hand by George Cupples      Through a Glass Darkly Ronald Hoffman,Mechal Sobel,Fredrika J. Teute,2012-12-01 These thirteen original essays are provocative explorations in the construction and representation of self in America s colonial and early republican eras Highlighting the increasing importance of interdisciplinary research for the field of early American history these leading scholars in the field extend their reach to literary criticism anthropology psychology and material culture The collection is organized into three parts Histories of Self Texts of Self and Reflections on Defining Self Individual essays examine the significance of dreams diaries and carved chests murder and suicide Indian kinship and the experiences of African American sailors Gathered in celebration of the Institute of Early American History and Culture s fiftieth anniversary these imaginative inquiries will stimulate critical thinking and open new avenues of investigation on the forging of self identity in early America The contributors are W Jeffrey Bolster T H Breen Elaine Forman Crane Greg Denning Philip Greven Rhys Isaac Kenneth A Lockridge James H Merrell Donna Merwick Mary Beth Norton Mechal Sobel Alan Taylor Laurel Thatcher Ulrich and Richard White      Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine ,1850      The baptist Magazine ,1835

Interpreting New Testament Narratives Eric J. Douglass,2018-10-02 Narratives are the concrete manifestation of an author s subjectivity They function as that person s voice and should be treated with the same respect that is granted to all voices In Interpreting New Testament Narratives Eric Douglass develops this ethical perspective so that narratives are treated as communication and the author s voice is regarded as a valued perspective Employing a cross disciplinary approach Douglass shows how readers engage narratives as mental simulations creating a temporary possible world that readers enter and experience To recover communication readers locate the events of this world in the culture of the intended audience and translate this meaning into the modern reader s worldview Using a staged reading design this initial reading is followed by
