Saints Lives And Illuminations:

Saints Ruth Sanderson, 2010 This combined edition of our picture books Saints More Saints presents the stories of remarkable people martyrs hermits miracle workers scholars and evangelists who were the pioneers of the early Church and who spread the Christian faith to the rest of the world With brief biographical sketches and lush pencil and oil portraits author and illustrator Ruth Sanderson stokes the flame of our centuries old and ongoing interest in the faith and lives of these spiritual examples saints who have forever changed the way we look at and live our lives in relationship to God

More Saints Ruth Sanderson, 2007 Provides brief stories from the lives of thirty six Christian saints of the second millennium Medieval Saints' Lives Emma Campbell, 2008 The significance of Old French hagiography in current theoretical debates in medieval studies and the humanities Contending that the study of hagiography is significant both for a consideration of medieval literature and for current theoretical debates in medieval studies this book considers a range of Old French and Anglo Norman texts using modern theories of kinship and community to show how saints lives construe social and sexual relations Focusing on the depiction of the gift kinship and community the book maintains that social and sexual systems play a keyrole in vernacular hagiography Such systems along with the desires they produce and control are it is argued central to hagiography s religious functions particularly its role as a vehicle of community formation In attempting to think beyond the limits of human relationships saints lives nonetheless create an environment in which queer desires and modes of connection become possible suggesting that in this case at least the orthodox nurtures the queer This book thus suggests not only that medieval hagiography is worthy of greater attention but also that this corpus might provide an important resource for theorizing community in its medieval contexts and for thinking it in the present EMMA CAMPBELL is Associate Professor of French at the University of Warwick Saints' Lives in Middle English Collections Anne B

Thompson, Robert K Upchurch, E Gordon Whatley, 2005-04-01 This volume is conceived as a complement to another Middle English Texts series text Sherry Reames Middle English Legends of Women Saints This selection is intended to be broadly representative of saints lives in Middle English and of the classic types of hagiographic legend as these were presented to the lay public and less literate clergy of late medieval England Illuminating the Vitae patrum Denva Gallant, 2024-04-30

During the fourteenth century in Western Europe there was a growing interest in imitating the practices of a group of hermits known as the Desert Fathers and Mothers Laypeople and religious alike learned about their rituals not only through readings from the Vitae patrum Lives of the Desert Fathers and sermons but also through the images that brought their stories to life In this volume Denva Gallant examines the Morgan Library s richly illustrated manuscript of the Vitae patrum MS M 626 whose extraordinary artworks witness the rise of the eremitic ideal and its impact on the visual culture of late medieval Italy Drawing upon scholarship on the history of psychology eastern monasticism gender and hagiography Gallant deepens our understanding of the centrality of the Desert Fathers and Mothers to late medieval piety She provides important insights into the role of images in making the practices of the desert saints both compelling and accessible to fourteenth century city dwellers who were just beginning to cultivate the habit of private devotion on a wide scale By focusing on the most extensively illuminated manuscript of the Vitae patrum to emerge during the trecento this book sheds new light on the ways in which images communicated and reinforced modes of piety It will be of interest to art historians religious historians and students focusing on this period in Italian history

Storytelling Janice M. Del Negro, 2021-06-24 This book serves as both a textbook and reference for faculty and students in LIS courses on storytelling and a professional guide for practicing librarians particularly youth services librarians in public and school libraries Storytelling Art and Technique serves professors students and practitioners alike as a textbook reference and professional guide It provides practical instruction and concrete examples of how to use the power of story to build literacy and presentation skills as well as to create community in those same educational spaces This text illustrates the value of storytelling covers the history of storytelling in libraries and offers valuable guidance for bringing stories to contemporary listeners with detailed instructions on the selection preparation and presentation of stories It also provides guidance around the planning and administration of a storytelling program Topics include digital storytelling open mics and slams and the neuroscience of storytelling An extensive and helpful section of resources for the storyteller is included in an expanded Part V of this edition

Fostering Children's Faith Jeanne Hall, 2012-03-29 Fostering faith in children is a shared privilege and responsibility of parents godparents and the church community We promise our children at baptism that we will support them in their faith formation in the formation of their relationship with God We need to take this promise seriously This book is intended to be an accessible and helpful resource for parents and other adults who seek to foster children s faith This book succinctly explores many ways we can support children s faith formation including our day to day interactions with children the images of God we share with them how we pray together the rituals we create service opportunities we provide music we share together the stories we tell and listen to our celebration of the sacraments and more While this book has a distinctly Roman Catholic orientation much of the content will be relevant for a wider Christian audience Lastly but perhaps most importantly this book is rooted in the conviction that the God we seek relationship with and that we hope to foster our children s relationship with is one who is infinitely loving welcoming and always yearning for deeper connection with us

Religious Diversity and Children's Literature Connie R. Green, Sandra Brenneman Oldendorf, 2011-05-01 This book is an invaluable resource for enabling teachers religious educators and families to learn about religious diversity themselves and to teach children about both their own religion as well as the beliefs of others The traditions featured include indigenous beliefs throughout the world Native American spirituality Hinduism Buddhism Judaism Christianity Orthodoxy Catholicism and Protestantism Islam Sikhism and other beliefs such as Bah Unitarian Universalism Humanism and Atheism Each chapter highlights a specific religion or spiritual tradition with a brief discussion about major beliefs misconceptions sacred texts and holy days or celebrations This summary of each tradition is followed by extensive annotated recommendations for children s and adolescent literature as well as suggested teaching strategies The recommended literature includes informational books traditional religious stories and fiction with religious themes Teachers religious educators and family members will find the literature from these genres to be invaluable tools for bridging the religious experience of the child with that of the global society in which they live

Italian Illuminated Manuscripts in the J. Paul Getty Museum Thomas Kren,Kurt Barstow,J. Paul Getty Museum,2005 A wide range of artists is included Two of the most well known Pisanello and Girolamo de Cremona worked for distinguished patrons at court while others worked in obscurity and are known today only through their illuminations One of the finest miniatures in this collection for example is credited to an artist known only as the Master of Gerona BOOK JACKET

Language and Culture in Medieval Britain Jocelyn Wogan-Browne,2013 The essays in this volume form a new cultural history focused round but not confined to the presence and interactions of francophone speakers writers readers texts and documents in England from the 11th to the later 15th century

Timothy Husband,J. Paul Getty Museum,Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),2008 The Lesbian Premodern N. Giffney,M. Sauer,P D Watt,2011-01-31 Key scholars in the field of lesbian and sexuality studies take part in an innovative conversation that offers a radical new methodology for writing lesbian history and geography drawing new conclusions on the important and often overlooked work being done on female same sex desire and identity in relation to premodern cultures

Painting and Illumination in Early Renaissance Florence, 1300-1450 Laurence B. Kanter,Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),1994 By way of introduction to the objects themselves are three essays The first by Laurence B Kanter presents an overview of Florentine illumination between 1300 and 1450 and thumbnail sketches of the artists featured in this volume The second essay by Barbara Drake Boehm focuses on the types of books illuminators helped to create As most of them were liturgical her contribution limns for the modern reader the medieval religious ceremonies in which the manuscripts were utilized Carl Brandon Strehlke here publishes important new material about Fra Angelico s early years and patrons the result of the author s recent archival research in Florence

Anglo-Saxon Saints Lives as History Writing in Late Medieval England Cynthia Turner Camp,2015 A groundbreaking assessment of the use medieval English history writers made of saints lives The past was ever present in later medieval England as secular and religious institutions worked to recover or create originary narratives that could guarantee they hoped their political and spiritual legitimacy Anglo SaxonEngland in particular was imagined as a spiritual golden age and a rich source of precedent for kings and for the monasteries that housed early English saints remains This book examines the vernacular hagiography produced in a monastic context demonstrating how writers illuminators and policy makers used English saints including St Edmund to re envision the bonds between ancient spiritual purity and contemporary conditions Treating history and ethical practice as inseparable poets such as Osborn Bokenham Henry Bradshaw and John Lydgate reconfigured England's history through its saints engaging with contemporary concerns about institutional identity authority and ethics Cynthia Turner Camp is an Assistant Professor of English at the University of Georgia The Book of Hours of Johanne Ravenelle and the Parisian Book Illumination Around 1400 Eva Lindqvist Sandgren, 2002 Communities of Saint Martin Sharon Farmer, 2019-03-15 Sharon Farmer here investigates the ways in which three medieval communities the town of Tours the basilica of Saint Martin there and the abbey of Marmoutier nearby all defined themselves through the cult of Saint Martin She demonstrates how in the early Middle Ages the bishops of Tours used the cult of Martin their fourth-century predecessor to shape an idealized image of Tours as Martin's town As the heirs to Martin's see the bishops projected themselves as the rightful leaders of the community However in the late eleventh century she shows the canons of Saint Martin where the saint's relics resided and the monks of Marmoutier which Martin had founded took control of the cult and produced new legends and rituals to strengthen their corporate interests Since the basilica and the abbey differed in their spiritualities structures and external ties the canons and monks elaborated and manipulated Martin's cult in quite different ways Farmer shows how one saint's cult lent itself to these varying uses and analyzes the strikingly dissimilar Martins that emerged Her skillful inquiry into the relationship between group identity and cultural expression illuminates the degree to which culture is contested territory Farmer's rich blend of social history and hagiography will appeal to a wide range of medievalists cultural anthropologists religious historians and urban historians The Catholic Library World, 2004 The Life of Saint Eufrosine, 2021-03-01 As a young woman from a wealthy family Eufrosine was expected to marry a nobleman Instead she wanted to serve God So she cut her hair dressed as a man and traveled to a monastery becoming a monk named Emerald Adapted from a Latin source this saint's life dates to about 1200 CE Devout yet erotic lyrical yet didactic it blends hagiography with romance and epic in order to engage and inspire a broad audience The tale invites readers to rethink preconceived notions of the Middle Ages the relation between spiritual and secular values and ideas about the history of sexuality identity and family Only fragments of the poem have been previously translated This edition includes the first full translation alongside the Old French original as well as a glossary and other supporting material The Horn Book Guide to Children's and Young Adult Books, 2007
