coherent whole all the threads of history art culture and recent developments They steer you in most rewarding directions enlivening the hallowed hush of museum or sacristy with an original interpretation of some great painter El Greco Goya Picasso or an observation which suddenly illuminates the seemingly unexceptional Madrid rather than just a political capital at the geographical centre of the country is revealed as a true metropolis genuinely representative of all the aspects and regional variations of Spanish life Its art collections are justly renowned as superb Add in the cluster of historical cities at an easy distance including Segovia Avila and Toledo to say nothing of the lesser known treasures and delights secreted in the heartlands of Castile and you have within a manageable compass the core of Spanish civilisation

Patrons, Partisans, and Palace Intrigues Christoph Rosenmüller, 2008 Palace intrigues and clientelism drove politics at the viceregal court of colonial Mexico By carefully reconstructing social networks in the court of Viceroy Duke of Albuquerque 1702-1710 Christoph Rosenmüller reveals that the Duke presided over one of the most corrupt viceregal terms in Mexican history Albuquerque was appointed by Spain's King Philip V at a time when expanding state power was beginning to meet with opposition in colonial Mexico The Duke and his retainers though seemingly working for the crown actually built close alliances with locals to thwart the reform efforts emanating from Spain Albuquerque collaborated with contraband traders and opposed the secularization of Indian parishes He persecuted several local craftsmen and merchants some of whom died after languishing in jail accusing them of treason to bolster his own credentials as a loyal official In the end however the dominant clique at the royal court in Madrid sought revenge Albuquerque was forced to pay an unheard of indemnity of 700 000 silver pesos to regain the king's favour Dealing with a topic and period largely ignored by historiography Rosenmüller exposes the vast patronage power of the viceroy at the historical watershed between the expiring Habsburg dynasty and the incoming Bourbon rulers His analysis reveals that precursors of the Bourbon reforms and the struggle for Mexican independence were already at play in the early eighteenth century

Women's Fiction from Latin America Evelyn Picon Garfield, 1988 Evelyn Picon Garfield has chosen selections from the prose works of twelve female authors representing seven

Latin American countries to create a collection which speaks to a variety of issues and exhibits a pastiche of richly varied artistic styles. Containing short stories, a one act play and excerpts from novels, the volume touches on such topics as political commitment and persecution, regional ethnicity of African and Indian cultures, social issues between classes and races, misogyny, the complexities of the human psyche and female solidarity. Garfield includes works from the six authors she interviewed for her Women's Voices from Latin America and has added selections from six other writers including Isabel Allende and Clarice Lispector.

Gardens of the Iberian Peninsula Nadja Horsch, Michael Scholz-Hänsel, Marta Oliveira Sonius, 2023-11-22. In garden research, Spanish and Portuguese green spaces are scarcely visible. This is a striking contrast not only to their diversity and quality but also to the global network of both countries, especially during the Early Modern period. To counterbalance this, specialists from Spain, Portugal and Germany gathered in 2021 on an international and interdisciplinary conference. In the Portuguese Palace of Queluz, they discussed the fundamental issues of garden art on the Iberian Peninsula. Their contributions are collected in this book. They are proof of a cross border transcultural approach which has freed itself from national stereotypes. Also, it addresses insights which have been derived from the cultural interaction across the centuries and the different epochs of garden art.
