Ten Days of Birthright Israel Leonard Saxe,Barry I. Chazan,2008 The remarkable story of Birthright Israel an intensive ten day educational program designed to connect Jewish young adults to their heritage The Courage for Civil Repair Carlo Tognato,Bernadette Nadya Jaworsky,Jeffrey C. Alexander,2020-07-04 This original scholarly collection of essays investigates the intersections of large scale international migration and solidarity building Unpacking how civil courage occurs under what forms and what sustains it Carlo Tognato Bernadette Nadya Jaworsky and Jeffrey C Alexander bring together authors to explore a new theory of the exemplary individual or collective in the recent age of migration crises actors who stand against injuries or injustices toward migrants even when it is costly or risky in a context of hostility or indifference A resource for those interested in the triggers and safeguards of democracy and civil society and for scholars and practitioners alike this volume offers empirical case studies from the US Europe Australia and Latin America of cross group solidarity efforts Lament for a Son Nicholas Wolterstorff,1987-05-18 Well known Christian philosopher Nicholas Wolterstorff has authored many books that have contributed significantly to scholarship in several subjects In Lament for a Son he writes not as a scholar but as a loving father grieving the loss of his son In brief vignettes Wolterstorff explores with a moving honesty and intensity all the facets of his experience of this irreversible loss Though he grieves not as one who has no hope he finds no comfort in the pious sounding phrases that would diminish the malevolence of death The book is in one sense a narrative account of events from the numbing telephone call on a sunny Sunday afternoon that tells of 25 year old Eric s death in a mountain climbing accident to a graveside visit a year later But the book is far more than narrative Every event is an occasion for remembering for meditating for Job like anguish in the struggle to accept and understand A profoundly faith affirming book Lament for a Son gives eloquent expression to a grief that is at once unique and universal a grief for an individual irreplaceable person Though it is an intensely personal book Wolterstorff decided to publish it he says in the hope that it will be of help to some of those who find themselves with us in the company of mourners Mosques in the Metropolis Elisabeth Becker,2021-09-20 Mosques in the Metropolis is a dual site ethnographic study of two of Europe s largest mosques one a conservative Islamist community in London and the other a progressive Muslim community in Berlin The contrasting sites allow sociologist Elisabeth Becker to provide a complex picture of Islam in Europe at a particularly fraught time She spent over thirty months studying the mosques through immersion and interviews and provides an analysis that goes deep into European Muslim communities Individual Muslim voices come through loud and clear for example the young mother of three in London trying to reconcile her conservative religious views with her desire to leave her husband as do the historical and structural forces at play Ultimately Becker insists that caste is a crucial lens through which to view

Islam in Europe and through this lens she critiques what she perceives as failing European pluralism To amplify her point Becker brings Jewish history and twentieth century Jewish thought into the conversation directly drawing on the ways in which Bauman and Arendt utilized the concept of caste to describe Jewish life and marginality What is at stake here is nothing less than the fundamental values of freedom equality and individual rights ostensibly the bedrock of European identity

As Resident Aliens Kathleen Kern,2010-01-01 As the crucifixes drenched with Jewish blood drop from our hands we stand impotent and wordless before this tragedy of Israel and Palestine In the name of the crucified Messiah we must struggle against the conditions which make history a trail of crucifixions Only then in solidarity with Jews and Palestinians can we dream of Messianic times of a shalom without victims With these words theologian Rosemary Radford Reuther laid out the pitfalls for Christians entering the arena of the Palestinian Israeli conflict Nevertheless in 1995 a small cohort of pacifist Christians decided to paddle against the currents of history against the crusades pogroms and colonial enterprises of their co religionists toward that goal of a shalom without victims Setting up a project in the West Bank city of Hebron over the next ten years Christian Peacemaker Teams forged relationships with Palestinians Israelis and internationals who were resisting the Israeli military occupation of Palestine As resident aliens See Exodus 23 9 they have sojourned in the Holy Land to support Palestinians and Israelis who reject violence as a means of solving the conflict who think that one nation has no right to subjugate and exploit another and who believe all the residents of the region are entitled to the same exactly the same human rights This book charts the growth of CPT in Palestine how it adapted to changing political conditions spread to locations outside of Hebron and developed networks with activists throughout Palestine and Israel

Interreligious Curriculum for Peace Education in Nigeria Isaiah Ekundayo Dada, 2019-04-18 Nigeria a country under a military regime for several years transitioned to a civilian regime in May 1999 Since this change violent conflicts between Christians and Muslims have continued to erupt They constitute one of the gravest dangers facing Nigeria a country with a population of 189 million people What have Nigerian religious leaders done about this situation especially in educational circles Have they received formal educational training to understand the causes of this violence and especially how to provide alternatives for more peaceful relations within Nigeria Does the current educational system in Nigeria provide the main ingredients for the promotion of a culture of peace The absence and neglect of interreligious peace education as part of a peace education core program and the lack of an interreligious curriculum for peace education in the training of religious leaders are the two problems contributing towards the lack of effectiveness of religious leaders in promoting less violent and more peaceful living The solution to the problem is proposed in this book entitled Interreligious Curriculum for Peace Education in Nigeria The book develops a one year curriculum building on Yoruba Islamic Christian conceptions of peace and teaches how to create safe caring spiritual peaceful and successful interfaith relationships between all Nigerian religious communities In the long term the book helps to educate religious leaders to contribute in themselves and with the help of their respective religious communities to reducing the growing religious violence in Nigeria

Muslim Families, Politics and the Law Ralph Grillo, 2016-03-09 Contemporary European societies are multi ethnic and multi cultural certainly in terms of the diversity which has stemmed from the immigration of workers and refugees and their settlement Currently however there is widespread often acrimonious debate about other cultural and religious beliefs and practices and limits to their accommodation This book focuses principally on Muslim families and on the way in which gender relations and associated questions of women's agency, consent and autonomy have become the focus of political and social commentary with followers of the religion under constant public scrutiny and criticism. Practices concerning marriage and divorce are especially controversial and the book includes a detailed overview of the public debate about the application of Islamic legal and ethical norms, shari'a in family law matters and the associated role of Shari'a councils in a British context. In short, Islam generally and the Muslim family in particular have become highly politicized sites of contestation and the book considers how and why and with what implications for British multiculturalism past, present and future. The study will be of great interest to international scholars and academics researching the governance of diversity and the accommodation of other faiths including Islam.
