SALALM and the Area Studies Community David Block, Benson Latin American Collection, 1994 Scholarship Research Libraries and Global Publishing Jutta Reed-Scott, 1996 Pathways to Progress John L. Ayala, Salvador Güereña, 2011-11-18 Supplying contributions from Latino librarian practitioners across the nation this anthology provides broad coverage of the subject of Latino Spanish speaking library service in the United States Emphasizing public school and academic libraries Pathways to Progress Issues and Advances in Latino Librarianship taps the leading minds of the Latino library world to provide expert discourse on a wide spectrum of library services to Latino patrons in the United States This collection of articles provides an accurate insightful discussion of the issues and advances in Latino library service Coverage of library service to the Latino community includes subjects such as special collections recruitment and mentoring leadership collection development reference services to gays and lesbians children services and special library populations Contributors include library practitioners who are of Mexican Chilean Peruvian Nicaraguan Puerto Rican and Cuban descent Best practices are presented and explained in depth with practical examples and documented citations Still Struggling for Equality Plummer A. Jones, 2004-12-30 A companion volume to Immigrants and the American Experience 1999 this book covers American public library services to immigrants from 1876 to 2003 As such it provides an excellent text on public library services to diverse groups and multiculturalism in public libraries It presents a detailed exposition of immigration law accompanied by an analysis of laws affecting libraries These legislative activities are placed in the context of library practice and the library profession treating fully developments within ALA and the government agencies tasked with the funding and oversight of libraries Scholarship, Research Libraries, and Global Publishing Jutta Scott-Reed, 2013-03-07 Discover how to meet the challenges of increasing your library s international publications through digital networks and large shared resource networks with other research libraries Scholarship Research Libraries and Global Publishing reveals a four year study conducted by the Association of Research Libraries ARL that shows a tremendous decrease in US and Canadian ARL libraries international publication acquisitions in a time when North American universities are becoming increasingly global and need to maintain collections of foreign articles This intense study reflects these trends and provides solutions for increasing acquisitions by studying the use of computers and communications technology to help libraries redesign their methods of service As a professional in the library science field you will gain a deeper understanding of making electronic information available to patrons and other libraries and help to keep your library current and proficient in today s high tech world of digital information In Scholarship Research Libraries and Global Publishing you will discover how you can increase your library s international publications by sharing the work and expense of acquiring foreign materials among a large number of research libraries and making these materials broadly available to scholars everywhere by electronic networks From this book you will learn about the obstacles facing each and the necessary steps to overcome them Some of the challenges you will gain expertise in handling are understanding the current trends in output of international publications price forecasts and the impact of electronic publishing in acquiring foreign publications identifying foreign materials that are collection priorities by discipline securing understandings with copyright holders to avoid intellectual property issues negotiating agreements between universities to shoulder the financial burdens of an extended collection refocusing the expectations of faculty about where and how they will find the books journals and other important library materials discussing and making changes to the acquisition process with scholars librarians presidents provosts and publishers Scholarship Research Libraries and Global Publishing provides tips and advice on how to provide cost effective information You will develop a clearer understanding of the forces influencing the ability of North American research libraries to build and maintain collections of publications produced outside the United States From Scholarship Research Libraries and Global Publishing you will receive proven effective methods to help increase the availability of international publications in your library in order to best serve your patrons

The Women's Revolution in Mexico, 1910-1953 Stephanie Evaline Mitchell, Patience Alexandra Schell, 2007 This book reinvigorates the debate on the Mexican Revolution exploring what this pivotal event meant to women The contributors offer a fresh look at women's participation in their homes and workplaces and through politics and community activism Drawing on a variety of perspectives the volume illuminates the ways women variously accepted contested used and manipulated the revolutionary project Recovering narratives that have been virtually written out of the historical record this book brings us a rich and complex array of women's experiences in the revolutionary and post revolutionary era in Mexico SALALM, the First Fifty Years Nancy L. Hallock, 2008

Dictionary of American Library Biography Donald G. Davis, 2003-01-30 This second supplement to DALB the Dictionary of American Library Biography 1978 adds 77 notable deceased members of the library and archival communities to the 302 entries in the main volume and the 51 entries in the first supplement 1990 The second supplement includes primarily those figures who died between 1987 and the end of the year 2000 though some 13 entries provide sketches for notable persons whose death dates are somewhat earlier and who were not included in earlier works Among the entries are a number of African Americans and nearly one half of the entries are women Some 80 contributors from the United States and Canada provided sketches many based on original source material This supplement follows the practice and format of the earlier volumes though it allows presidents of the American Library Association to compete for inclusion with other nominations

Building Area Studies Collections Dan C. Hazen, James H. Spohrer, 2007 These essays by noted Area Studies specialists at a number of US research libraries serve as a practical and theoretical guide to university and college administrators library directors and heads of collection development as well as selection practitioners who work to create foreign language collections for research libraries The volume constitutes a general introduction for new practitioners and even the most experienced Area Studies librarians will find useful practical advice for reviewing and refining their existing collecting practices Coverage includes East Asia Latin America Southeast Asia Africa South Asia and the Romance language areas of Europe as well as the German Nordic Netherlandic countries Each essay presents the Area Studies topic in question from an historical perspective and provides background on its present status and anticipated future development Special emphasis is placed on the techniques of both print and digital collecting and on the assessment methods by which collection strengths and future needs are determined Guidelines for expenditures for both collections and collateral activities such as providing access and preservation are provided and contributors also supply extensive documentation for the burgeoning array of online digital resources which have emerged in the past decade The volume editors Dan C Hazen Harvard and James H Spohrer University of California Berkeley also provide a general introduction to the topic and a detailed summary of current cooperative activities in Area Studies collecting Armed Forces Medical Library News National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1990
