Patton, 1994-10      Sales Management Simulation Ralph L. Day, Douglas J. Dalrymple, 1989-02 This simulation teaches the sales manager's role in a business organization. Participants learn to consider the nature of a simulated market and make realistic decisions concerning sales forecasting, hiring, deployment, compensation, product pricing, and market research. The Second Edition contains more sales territories and allows players to change prices, adjust compensation plans, and employ a sales contest. Moreover, it is now easier for instructors to enter data and modify parameters.      Sales Management Simulation A. J. Brown, 2017-10-19 With comprehensive coverage of topics related to learning, training, and development, this volume is a must-have resource for industrial and organizational I/O psychologists, human resource HR scholars, and adult education specialists. Brown provides a forward-looking exploration of the current research on workplace training, employee development, and organizational learning from the primary point of view of industrial organizational psychology. Each chapter discusses current practices, recent research, and importantly, the gaps between the two. In analyzing these aspects of the topic, the chapter authors both present the valuable knowledge available and show the opportunities for further study and practice.
