Excerpt consolidated into one company and transferred to the 2d Regiment to which Capt B was transferred as their commanding officer and served some months in that regiment. After the war he was made U S Inspector and settled in Richmond Va. He died suddenly of apoplexy July 26 1880. The Richmond Dispatch says of him Capt B was widely known much respected and greatly beloved. He came to us fresh from service in the Union army as an officer in the internal revenue service and soon became very popular in business and social relations. He was a man of very brilliant talents a popular speaker and a poet of much merit. He was also prominent as a politician but never offensively so. On Confederate Memorial Day he delivered the address at Oakwood cemetery which was replete with tender feeling and patriotism. Genial warm hearted sympathetic all who came within the range of his acquaintance seemed irresistibly drawn towards him. Few men certainly none of northern birth and of his political opinions ever had more numerous or more sincere friends among all classes of the community. The news of his death was soon circulated and his body lying in state at St Alban's hall was visited by a large number among all of whom pervaded a feeling of great sorrow at the untimely ending of a career that promised so brightly. Of this old family now almost extinct in town it may be said their virtues were of the plain old fashioned sort loyal to country and kin strong in their attachments modest brave industrious kind and unselfish generous to friend or foe hospitable never seeking official position.
