Sallys Pet Story:

The Shaggy Dog Story Book Harvey Martin, 2009-03 This collection of classic stories was not compiled to be just another prizewinning book of humor However for the majority of individuals who get this book to read and enjoy as one of the funniest collections of groaners in existence today it will be just that You ll get the book read it get sick with laughter even though you don t understand many of the stories and then display it proudly in your bookcase along with the other best sellers you ve collected over the years About Harvey Martin I grew up in South St Louis in an ethnic neighborhood just north of a German area know as down by the Bevois Mill where the street car makes da bend in da track aint it yet My greatest accomplishment was graduating from Missouri School of Mines and Metallurgy in the early sixties Actually that was my second greatest accomplishment with my wife children and grandchildren being the most significant After graduating as a metallurgist I left St Louis and its terrible accent to go and make steel in Gary IN My resume includes that of an engineer an entrepreneur a writer a golfer an inventor a Shaggy Dog storyteller supreme and light hauling when I can get it My greatest downside is procrastination but I just could not decide where to state that fact That attribute completely explains why it has taken over 25 years to complete this project

Pet Loss and Children Cheri Barton Ross, 2013-05-13 Explaining the concept of death to a child is a very difficult confusing and uncomfortable experience for a parent educator or therapist and it is a topic that is often first introduced by the loss of a pet sometimes a child s earliest exposure to loss and grief There is an undeniably special bond that develops between people and their pets especially between animals and young children and while the death of a pet can be devastating to an adult children are often deeply affected by such a loss Without readily available outlets for their feelings the trauma of pet loss can remain with a child for life and without help many adults feel inadequate and not up to the task The aim of this book is to provide therapists counselors educators parents social workers veterinarians and physicians with resources to help children cope with the loss of a pet

Hospice Cindy Marks, 2017-05-18 Cindy Marks is a hospice nurse who has unfortunately witnessed heartbreaking fear and desperation in her patients and family members as they attempt to come to grips with death In her guide to facing death peacefully Marks reveals what she has learned while providing comfort and enlightenment Death is not to be feared but instead celebrated as a journey filled with miracles Marks who has cared for hundreds of hospice patients offers insight into her personal feelings while sharing real life stories of the dying as they transitioned to the next life From the woman who was blessed with the gift of hearing for the first time during her final days to the man who relied on a quiet strong faith and unconditional love to carry him through until the end and finally the young divorced woman who was terrified to die Marks offers a poignant glimpse into lessons learned from each patient that will help anyone walking the same journey to find clarity inspiration and ultimately peace of mind Hospice The Serene Warmth of Wisdom shares advice and true stories from a hospice nurse that will encourage the dying and their families to embrace the greatest miracle of all to return home to heaven with Gods grace
