Pieter Bruegel and the Culture of the Early Modern Dinner Party Claudia Goldstein, 2017-07-05. Mining a rich interdisciplinary mix of sources including stoneware jugs, personal correspondence, paintings, inventories, and literature written for the dining room, this study offers a critical and entirely original examination of the function of early modern images for the people who owned and viewed them. The study explores the emergence, functions, and material culture of the Antwerp dinner party during the heady days of the mid-sixteenth century when Antwerp's art market was thriving and a new wealthy non-noble class dominated the city. The author recontextualizes some of Bruegel's work within the cultural nexus of the dining room where material culture and theatrical performance met humanist wit and the desire for professional advancement. The narrative also touches on the reception of Northern art in Lombardy on intersections among painting, material culture, and theater, and on intellectual history.

When Prayers Aren't Answered John E. Welshons, 2010-09-03. In the depths of grief, some find solace in their faith while others feel that God has deserted them. In this gentle and wise guide, a beloved spiritual teacher counsels that prayer works but not always in the ways we expect. Welshons, who has worked closely with Ram Dass and Stephen Levine and trained with Dr. Elisabeth Kubler-Ross, confronts life's most challenging experiences directly, acknowledging both the reality and inevitability of unexpected, unwanted change. Then, with insights gathered from the world's great spiritual traditions, he shows how to use painful circumstances as fuel for enlightenment. In short, step-by-step chapters, Welshons shares stories of transformation from his own life and the lives of those he has counseled. With deep empathy, he lights a path toward the communion, peace, and joy that are possible when we open our hearts to life in its totality.
