Chinatown Vancouver Donna Seto, 2025-05-01 A colourful illustrated history of the buildings in Vancouver's Chinatown celebrating the richness diversity and vibrancy of the Chinese community Buildings are more than just bricks and mortar they are keepers of secrets and history With more than seventy vibrant illustrations writeups on the buildings interviews with community members and select archival photographs Chinatown Vancouver celebrates the invaluable contributions of the Chinese to Canada The colourful illustrations portray Chinatown during its thriving days as a commercial hub when iconic businesses such as Cathay Importers Ho Inn Restaurant Ming Wo Cookware and Ho Ho Restaurant were pillars in the community Early Chinese settlers in Vancouver demonstrated immense resilience and perseverance in creating a self sustaining safety net to weather racial hostility discrimination and segregation from broader Canadian society The protection of cultural sites like Chinatown helps us understand our connection to place the past and the future In showcasing the unique architecture Chinatown Vancouver honours the neighbourhood as an irreplaceable living heritage site and cultural asset for all Canadians

Analysis of Ground-water Flow and Saltwater Encroachment in the Shallow Aquifer System of Cape May County, New Jersey Frederick J. Spitz, 1998

Far Cry Alissa York, 2023-02-28 In a novel as compelling as the forbidden love at its heart Alissa York one of Canada's most distinctive writers evokes an era of unspoken desires in which pain and longing are braided together along treacherous lines It's 1922 at Far Cry Cannery a quarter mile of boardwalk and wooden buildings strung along the rocks of Rivers Inlet on the northwest coast of British Columbia The time has come for Anders Viken storekeeper and honorary uncle to the recently orphaned Kit to give an account of his secret self from his first home in Norway another land of islands and fjords to his escape from his family's loving grip to his wide open years of rough living and impossible love As the sockeye flood up the inlet Anders sets his secrets down for 18 year old Kit the only member of his chosen family he has left after her mother Bobbie scandalized Far Cry by running off with the camp's handsome Chinese cook and her father Frank was found drowned alongside his own boat While Anders does his reckoning Kit fends off the attentions of the cannery manager and tries to earn her keep Oars in hand she glides her skiff out over the great returning school and casts her net This at least makes sense to her as opposed to the convoluted workings of love

Christianity Jason Byassee, Albert Y. S. Chu, Ross A. Lockhart, 2023-06-20 Is God changing the face of the church in North America today The secularization thesis makes it appear that churches are inevitably declining in membership and influence Too often however this assumption of decline is based on only watching the denominations that were church plants of Western Christendom in North America Christianity An Asian Religion in Vancouver focuses on the context of Vancouver British Columbia Canada and notes through a mixed methods study including interviews and participant observation that many churches in Vancouver with predominantly Asian composition are growing both in size and influence What might we learn about God's transforming power by looking to Asia rather than Europe to predict the future of Christian witness in the Pacific Northwest of North America The Best Place Danya Fast, 2023-11-10 In both local and international imaginations Vancouver Canada is often celebrated as one of the world's most beautiful cosmopolitan and livable cities Simultaneously the city continues to be ground zero for successive waves of public health emergency and intervention including a recent and unprecedented drug overdose crisis driven by the proliferation of illicitly manufactured fentanyl and related analogs in the local drug supply In The Best Place Addiction Intervention and Living and Dying Young in Vancouver Danya Fast explores these politics of place from the perspectives of young people who use drugs Those who are the subject of this book were in many ways relegated to the social spatial and economic margins of the city Yet they were also often at the very center of city life and state projects including the project of protecting life in the context of the current overdose crisis The Anthropocene and the Undead Simon Bacon, 2022-03-22 The Anthropocene and the Undead describes how our experience of an increasingly erratic environment and the idea of the undead are more closely linked than the obvious zombie horde signaling the end of the world In fact as described here much of how we understand the anthropocene both conceptually and in practice involves undead entities from the past that will not die undead traumas that rise up and consume the world and undead temporalities that can never end Fifteen original essays by cultural and anthropological experts such as Kyle William Bishop Nils Bubandt Johan H. Glund and Steffen Hantke among others study the nature of humanity's ongoing complicated relationship to the environment via the concept of the undead In doing so The Anthropocene and the Undead sheds invaluable light on adjacent concepts such as the Capitalocene Necrocene Disanthropocene Post anthropocene and the Symbiocene to trace real and imagined trajectories of our more than human selves into undead and undying futures The Rough Guide to Vancouver Tim Jepson, 2004 This travel guide to Vancouver and the surrounding area features advice on where to go and what to do from sea kayaking off the Gulf Islands to the museums and galleries downtown Maps and plans help the reader pinpoint recommended hotels restaurants and attractions Reconciling Larry Grant, Scott Steedman, 2025-09-09 Larry Grant's life is a model of what it means to rise above hardship transcend preconceived notions and live life in a good way I've had the honour of meeting him but this book makes me feel as if I know him And that is a profound gift Shelagh Rogers Honorary Witness Truth and Reconciliation Commission broadcast journalist CBC Radio A personal and historical story of identity place and belonging from a Musqueam Chinese Elder caught between cultures It's taken most of Larry Grant's long life for his extraordinary heritage to be appreciated He was born in a hop field outside Vancouver in 1936 the son of a Musqueam cultural leader and an immigrant from a village in Guangdong China In 1940 when the Indian agent discovered that their mother had married a non status man Larry and his two siblings were stripped of their status With one stroke of the pen they were disenfranchised no longer recognized as Indigenous Reconciling is a series of conversations between Larry and writer Scott Steedman as they visit pivotal geographical places together including the Musqueam reserve Chinatown the site of the Mission residential school the Vancouver docks and the University of British Columbia Larry tells the story of his life including his thoughts on reconciliation and the path forward for First Nations and Canada His life echoes the barely known story of Vancouver and spans key events of the last two centuries including Chinese immigration and the Head Tax the ravages of residential school and now Indigenous revival and the accompanying change in worldview When Larry talks about reconciliation he uses the verb reconciling an ongoing unfinished process we re all going through Indigenous and settler immigrant and Canadian born I have been reconciling my whole life with my inner self he explains To not belong was forced upon me by the colonial society that surrounded me But reconciling with myself is part of all that

Righting Canada's Wrongs: The Chinese Head Tax Arlene Chan, 2014-10-20 The first Chinese immigrants arrived in Canada in the mid 1800s searching for gold and a better life They found jobs in forestry mining and other resource industries But life in Canada was difficult and the immigrants had to face racism and cultural barriers Thousands were recruited to work building the Canadian Pacific Railway Once the railway was finished Canadian governments and many Canadians wanted the Chinese to go away The government took measures to stop immigration from China to Canada Starting in 1885 the government imposed a Head Tax with the goal of stopping immigration from China In 1923 a ban was imposed that lasted to 1947 Despite this hostility and racism Chinese Canadian citizens built lives for themselves and persisted in protesting official discrimination In June 2006 Prime Minister Harper apologized to Chinese Canadians for the former racist policies of the Canadian government Through historical photographs documents and first person narratives from Chinese Canadians who experienced the Head Tax or who were children of Head Tax payers this book offers a full account of the injustice of this period in Canadian history It documents how this official racism was confronted and finally acknowledged

Asian North American Identities Eleanor Ty, Donald C. Goellnicht, 2004-04-29 The nine essays in Asian North American Identities explore how Asian North Americans are no longer caught between worlds of the old and the new the east and the west and the south and the north Moving beyond national and diasporic models of ethnic identity to focus on the individual feelings and experiences of those who are not part of a dominant white majority the essays collected here draw from a wide range of sources including novels art photography poetry cinema theatre and popular culture The book illustrates how Asian North Americans are developing new ways of seeing and thinking about themselves by eluding imposed identities and creating spaces that offer alternative sites from which to speak and imagine Contributors are Jeanne Yu Mei Chiu Patricia Chu Rocio G Davis Donald C Goellnicht Karlyn Koh Josephine Lee Leilani Nishime Caroline Rody Jeffrey J Santa Ana Malini Johar Schueller and Eleanor Ty

Claiming Space Cheryl Teelucksingh, 2006-05-29 Claiming Space Racialization in Canadian Cities critically examines the various ways in which Canadian cities continue to be racialized despite objective evidence of racial diversity and the dominant ideology of multiculturalism Contributors consider how spatial conditions in Canadian cities are simultaneously part of and influenced by racial domination and racial resistance Reflecting on the ways in which race is systematically hidden within the workings of Canadian cities the book also explores the ways in which racialized people attempt to claim space These essays cover a diverse range of Canadian urban spaces and various racial groups as well as the intersection of ethnicity class gender and sexuality Linking themes include issues related to subjectivity and space the importance of new space that arises by challenging the dominant ideology of multiculturalism and the relationship between diasporic identities and claims to space

Writers of Multicultural Fiction for Young Adults M. Daphne Kutzer, 1996-01-09 Multicultural fiction is an essential part of the American literary landscape This reference helps scholars teachers and librarians choose significant texts from both the past and present and provides guidance in approaching multicultural issues as they are discussed in fiction for young adults Included are entries for 51 writers some of whom have nearly been forgotten others who are just emerging Each entry provides biographical critical and bibliographical information while a general bibliography of works on multicultural literature concludes the book Authors included range from the nearly forgotten such as Laura Adams Armer to the newly discovered such as Graham Salisbury winner of the 1994 Scott O Dell Award for Historical Fiction The breadth of authors covered ensures an historical context for the issues raised by multiculturalism and the sections on the critical reception of each author address such important issues as the authority and authenticity of the writer to comment on a different culture Contributors are of many different ethnicities and include important scholars of children s literature lending authenticity and authority to the volume itself

The Chinese in Vancouver, 1945-80 Wing Chung Ng, 2011-11-01 In The Chinese in Vancouver Wing Chung Ng captures the fascinating story of the city s Chinese in their search for identity He juxtaposes the cultural positions of different generations of Chinese immigrants and their Canadian born descendants and unveils the ongoing struggle over the definition of being Chinese It is an engrossing story about cultural identity in the context of migration and settlement where the influence of the native land and the appeal of the host city continued to impinge on the consciousness of the ethnic Chinese The Chinese in Canada is long overdue in view of the many previous studies that tend to describe Chinese people as victims of racial prejudice and discrimination and Chinese identity a matter of Western cultural hegemony Ng s account gives the Chinese people their own voice and shows that the Chinese in Vancouver had much to say and often disagreed about the meaning of being Chinese In his concluding chapter Ng looks beyond the Canadian context by engaging in a comparative discussion of the experiences of ethnic Chinese elsewhere in the diaspora References to the Chinese in various Southeast Asian countries and the U S force a rethinking of Chineseness He ends with reflections about Vancouver s Chinese community since 1980 The Interdisciplinary Theatre of Ping Chong Yuko Kurahashi, 2020-01-07 This first ever biography exploring the life of Ping Chong 1946 successful avant garde artist and Presidential Medal of Freedom recipient focuses on his valuable contributions to modern theatre Drawing on primary sources and her own attendance of Chong s productions the author takes a broad and informative approach to his work as a performer playwright and director over 48 years Neon Eulogy Keith McKellar, 2001 In Neon Eulogy street artist Laughing Hand sketches a disappearing landscape of cafes theatres and streets documenting a neglected heritage of neon landmarks most now lost McKellar s detailed line drawings are accompanied by a wonderful anecdotal history of the rise and fall of each unique establishment
