Saltwater In Our Blood:

Saltwater in Our Blood Natalie Van Kirk, 2005-09-28 Follow the true story of the author as she tells of her adventures both on land and at Sea Her love of the ocean and her experiences on board the Queen Mary She tells of many strange and humorous events in her travels as she meets many new people that enter her life She gives a description of her ancestors and family that were sea going people and what the Sea meant to them Experience the thrill of sailing the Atlantic on board the Queen Mary The Sadness of the loss of a cousin on board the Titanic This and much more in the Authors new book Saltwater in our Blood

Saltwater in the Blood Easkey Britton, 2021-09-28 Powerful feminist nature writing by the pioneer of women s big wave surfing in Ireland Easkey Britton provides a rare female perspective on surfing exploring the mental skills it fosters and the need to recognize the value of the ocean and of nature s cycles in our lives This is an incredibly inspiring exploration of the sea s role in the wellness of people and the planet beautifully written by Easkey Britton surfer scientist and social activist She offers a powerful female perspective on the sea and surfing explaining what it s like to be a woman in a man s world and how she promoted the sport to women in Iran surfing while wearing a hijab She speaks of the undiscussed taboo around entering the water while menstruating and of how she has come to celebrate her own bodily cycles She has developed her own approach to surfing which instead of seeking to dominate the waves works in tune with the natural cycles of her body the moon and the seasons In a society that rewards busyness she believes that understanding the influence of cycles becomes even more important and we all have them men and women For Easkey the sea is a source of mental and physical wellbeing She explores the mental toughness needed in big wave surfing and presents surfing as an embodied mindfulness practice in which we can find flow and connect with the movement of the waves She stresses the need to recognize the ocean as our most powerful ally when addressing our greatest global challenge the climate crisis Above all Easkey s relationship to the sea has taught her about the need to meet life and evolve with it rather than seeking to control it By such wisdom our planet might just survive and thrive

A Woman's Book of Rituals and Celebrations Barbara Ardinger, Ph.D., 2011-12-11 This is a handbook on how to perform sacred ceremonies in the tradition of Goddess spirituality in one s own home with ordinary household items An annual cycle of celebrations is included as is advice on how to set up an altar and use simple tools The author a practitioner of Wicca witchcraft expounds the life affirming eco feminist values of that tradition Suggestions for rituals and ideas for inventing one s own are given Poetry and blessings blend in a title which supports celebration of the Goddess image in daily life These rituals are personal moving rites which celebrate love and peace and which act as meditations for considering new rituals old traditions and the course of women s lives

The Hunt for the Parathyroids Jörgen Nordenström, 2012-09-17 The Hunt for the Parathyroid Gland is a part fact part fiction overview of the discovery of the parathyroid gland by a Swedish scientist in 1880 The discovery of the parathyroid gland in humans in 1880 by an unknown Swedish medical student Ivar Viktor Sandström ended a 30 year search for its exact location within the human body following its discovery in an Indian rhino 30 years before It is one of the most engaging and remarkable stories in the history of medicine This book offers a fascinating insight into its discovery Endocrinologists and ENT health professionals both in clinical practice and researchers as well as anyone with an interest in the history of medicine will find this a fascinating insight into one of the 19th century s key medical discoveries Saltwater Buddha Jaimal Yogis,2009-05 Fed up with his suburban teenage life at age sixteen Jaimal Yogis ran off to Hawaii with little more than a copy of Hermann Hesse s Siddhartha and enough cash for a surfboard His wandering searching journey is a comingndash of age tale that takes him from Hawaiian communes to French monasteries to the icy New York shore Equal parts spiritual memoir and surfer s tale this is his chronicle of finding meditative focus in the barrel of a wave Trying to find Zen in the rhythmic crashing of waves Yogis eventually discovers something of eternal truth in the great salty blue Saltwater Buddha melds Zen insights with surf wisdom and stories in a clear confiding and frequently humorous voice The Sea Can Wash Away All Evils Kimberley Christine Patton,2007 Kimberley Patton examines the environmental crises facing the world s oceans from the perspective of religious history Much as the ancient Greeks believed and Euripides wrote that the sea can wash away all evils a wide range of cultures have sacralized the sea trusting in its power to wash away what is dangerous dirty and morally contaminating The sea makes life on land possible by keeping it pure Patton sets out to learn whether the treatment of the world s oceans by industrialized nations arises from the same faith in their infinite and regenerative qualities Indeed the sea s natural characteristics such as its vast size and depth chronic motion and chaos seeming biotic inexhaustibility and unique composition of powerful purifiers salt and water support a view of the sea as a no place capable of swallowing limitless amounts of waste And despite evidence to the contrary the idea that the oceans could be harmed by wasteful and reckless practices has been slow to take hold Patton believes that environmental scientists and ecological advocates ignore this relationship at great cost She bases her argument on three influential stories Euripides tragedy Iphigenia in Tauris an Inuit myth about the wild and angry sea spirit Sedna who lives on the ocean floor with hair dirtied by human transgression and a disturbing medieval Hindu tale of a lethal underwater mare She also studies narratives in which the sea spits back its contents sins corpses evidence of guilt long sequestered suggesting that there are limits to the ocean s vast salty heart In these stories the sea is either an agent of destruction or a giver of life yet it is also treated as a passive receptacle Combining a history of this ambivalence toward the world s oceans with a serious scientific analysis of modern marine pollution Patton writes a compelling cross disciplinary study that couldn t be more urgent or timely Life, Faith, and Saltwater Taffy J. B. Hazelton,2022-01-20 Life Faith and Saltwater Taffy combines a playful beach theme and scriptural foundation to bring fresh perspective to vital topics living in community with others balancing self care with service navigating the inevitable storms of life and growing in relationship with God Readers are welcomed as unique and beloved creations and invited to consider what they would carry for a day by the shore in order to embrace what is life giving and set down unnecessary burdens The book culminates with a look at lighthouses and an exploration of how each individual can provide a clear lens for shining God's light brightly into the world With its conversational tone and relatable anecdotes you just may close this book feeling as though you have been sitting by the water having a heart to heart with an encouraging friend Each chapter includes a thought provoking quote and a prayer A Diving Deeper section follows with suggestions for reflection gratitude further reading and action Designed for personal reading or group study Life Faith and Saltwater Taffy also makes a wonderful gift

Returning Home to Our Bodies Abigail Rose Clarke, 2024-01-09 For readers of adrienne maree brown Staci K Haines and Robin Wall Kimmerer A body based healing model that interrogates what we've been wrongly taught about hierarchies of nature and the body and pushes back against the white supremacy colonialism patriarchy and capitalism embedded in modern embodiment practices Pushing back against a consumerist pleasure centric somatics industry that privileges product over process Abigail Rose Clarke reminds us that truly meaningful embodiment practice nurtures our relationships among self nature and community Combining the rigor of the scientific method with the poetry and lyricism of movement and somatic studies Clarke's somatic learning system The Embodied Life Method centers the body as a guide through today's most seemingly intractable social and environmental challenges reclaiming the body as a source of liberatory comfort in times of great uncertainty and yet possibility With tools and practices to help us better understand and dismantle the many ways our bodies are weaponized to serve domination systems topics covered include Harnessing the vitality of curiosity and experimentation Using nature as a guide to possibility Embracing the necessity of difference Exposing the lie of universal isolation Dismantling the fallacy of hierarchy Uncovering the truth of endless capacity Awe as a driving force for transformation With methods honed over decades of inquiry teaching and practice Returning Home to Our Bodies provides a lucid body based model of healing and restoration one that imagines a world beyond systems of domination marginalization and isolation to nurture embodied whole community liberation

Nelson,Katherine Kassouf Cummings,2021-05-24 As we face an ever more fragmented world What Kind of Ancestor Do You Want to Be demands a return to the force of lineage to spiritual social and ecological connections across time It sparks a myriad of ageless yet urgent questions How will I be remembered What traditions do I want to continue What cycles do I want to break What new systems do I want to initiate for those yet to be born How do we endure Published in association with the Center for Humans and Nature and interweaving essays interviews and poetry this book brings together a thoughtful community of Indigenous and other voices including Linda Hogan Wendell Berry Winona LaDuke Vandana Shiva Robin Kimmerer and Wes Jackson to explore what we want to give to our descendants It is an offering to teachers who have come before and to those who will follow a tool for healing our relationships with ourselves with each other and with our most powerful ancestors the lands and waters that give and sustain all life Physics of Blackness

Michelle M. Wright,2015-02-15 What does it mean to be Black If Blackness is not biological in origin but socially and discursively constructed does the meaning of Blackness change over time and space In Physics of Blackness Beyond the Middle Passage Epistemology Michelle M Wright argues that although we often explicitly define Blackness as a what it in fact always operates as a when and a where By putting lay discourses on spacetime from physics into conversation with works on identity from the African Diaspora Physics of Blackness explores how Middle Passage epistemology subverts racist assumptions about Blackness yet its linear structure inhibits the kind of inclusive epistemology of Blackness needed in the twenty first century Wright then engages with bodies frequently excluded from contemporary mainstream consideration Black feminists Black queers recent Black African immigrants to the West and Blacks whose histories may weave in and out of the Middle Passage epistemology but do not cohere to it Physics of Blackness takes the reader on a journey both known and unfamiliar from Isaac Newton s laws of motion and gravity to the contemporary politics of diasporic Blackness in the academy from James Baldwin s postwar trope of the Eiffel Tower as the site for diasporic encounters to theoretical particle physics theory of multiverses and superpositioning to the almost erased lives of Black African women during World War II Accessible in its style global in its perspective and rigorous in its logic Physics of Blackness will change the way you look at Blackness Saltwater People

Nonie Sharp,2002-01-01 In October of 2001 the Australian High Court confirmed aboriginal title to two thousand kilometres of ocean off the north coast The decision which was the result of a seven year court battle highlighted aboriginal belief that the sea is a gift from the creator to be used for sustenance spirituality identity and community This evocative study of the people of northern coastal Australia and their sea worlds illuminates the power of human attachment to place Saltwater People The Waves of Memory offers a cross disciplinary approach to native land claims that incorporates historical and contemporary case studies from not only Australia but also New Zealand Scandinavia the US and Canada Nonie Sharp discusses various issues of indigenous heritage including land claims concepts of public and private property poverty and the environment Despite dispossession the aboriginals of northern coastal Australia never faltered in their devotion to the sea illustrating how profoundly such bonds are preserved in memory Their moving story of surviving and winning a lengthy court battle provides valuable information for all countries dealing with similar issues of rights to tenure and natural resources Sharp provides the first book length study of an integrated statement on the many defining qualities of the cultural relationship of aboriginals non aboriginals and the concept of ownership over the sea and illustrates the wisdom that different traditions can offer one another of Blood and Lead Jacob R. Dring, 2009-03-28 A collection of both poetry and short stories with war themes or based in war settings themselves Though they range from strictly emotional to highly graphic some focusing on the psychological effects war takes on men and others more physical tolls every piece has its own uniqueness Be it a sonnet free verse poem or short story depicting the struggle of soldiers against the enemy and for their own lives through hell on earth of Blood and Lead has all the adverse catalysts needed to fabricate a war from the pages

THE WIMP CHIMP T K Noell, 2024-03-22 A chance discovery was the impetus for this book I had a cerebral aneurysm was incapacitated for awhile and had time to amuse myself on the internet I discovered serendipitously that chimps our closest genetic relatives couldn't float Chimps only live in Africa and we have a common ancestor So by extension we must have been living with them in the beginning and probably separated from them by crossing some watery barrier there The rest of the book all came as a result of this realization and over the course of several years I believe I've discovered the answer to those age old questions where did we come from and how did we come to be The ebook is best viewed in colour

Assays of Toxic Pollutants by Fish Blood W. A. Curby, R. D. Winick, E. C. Moy, 1976 The Deep Sky Chronicles Michael Le Stark, 2016-08-26 In the Deep Sky Chronicles Michael Le Stark combines subject matter and opinions from some of our most respected scientists physicists and historians to tell a story He combines it with a few of his personal experiences in life and along with some exciting new theories everything is woven together as an extraordinary new picture emerges A few bold individuals already familiar to most of us are highlighted and how their courage and vision arrived just in time and how one in particular may have changed and shaped the world even more Although events in our personal lives and our world can seem overwhelming at times we are reminded that each of us are a world within ourselves and we are in charge of that world Described as very interesting and thought provoking this book covers an astonishing array of subject matter to create a few refreshing new perspectives
