Shamanism Margaret Stutley,2003 Shamanism is one of the earliest and farthest reaching magical and religious traditions vestiges of which still underlie the major religious faiths of the modern world The function of the shaman is to show his or her people the unseen powers behind the mere appearances of nature as experienced through intuition in trance states or during ecstatic mystical visions Shamans possess healing powers communicate with the dead and the world beyond and influence the weather and movements of hunting animals The psychological exaltation of shamanism trance states is similar to the ecstasies of Yogis Christian mystics and dervishes Shamanism An Introduction traces the development of shamanism in its many fascinating global manifestations Looking at shamanic practices from Siberia to China and beyond it provides an accessible guide to one of the world s most ancient notorious and frequently misrepresented spiritual traditions Placing special emphasis on the climate geographic and cultural pressures under which shanic customs arose and continue to be observed Margaret Stutley summarizes and clearly explains the logic of a faith whose fantastical elements hold a special place in popular imagination

Malay Political Leadership Tony Shome,2004-08-02 This book demonstrates how particular values and notions of leadership which underpinned traditional Malay leadership have played a crucial role in the political evolution of the modern Malaysian nation The author discusses the nature of Malay notions of leadership and considers this throughout the Malay world at the local as well as at the national level and goes on to describe and analyse leadership from pre independence leadership in the colonial period through the rule of Malaysia s four prime ministers He draws on anthropology psychology and political and economic history to show how Malay leaders have kept within the established track of the Malay value system responding in particular to the expectation of their people to provide a sense of national identity and unity against the complex background of the Malaysian mosaic while addressing the needs of the wider multi ethnic community Throughout the evolutionary development of Malay leadership symbolisms for the perpetuation of leadership veneration persisted in its institutions and in the sublime power of the sultans The Malay case offers one of the most remarkable studies of leadership in its attempt to maintain indigenous primacy in a large multi racial environment subscribing to western democracy for its governance while retaining conservative Islamic values This book is a significant contribution to the understanding of the evolution of leadership It begins with an explanation of the early Malay World belief system and progresses to the period of colonization and nationalism It then follows through the dynamics of modern politics encapsulating the biographical profiles of all Malaysia s

Prime Ministers Tunku Razak Hussein and Mahathir in three aspects national unity the economy and foreign affairs The analysis of Mahathir s leadership extends into the new millennium This is the only book with biographical profiles of all of Malaysia s Prime Ministers This book will be of interest to students academics politicians foreign affairs specialists and any reader interested in leadership studies and about Malaysia s political and economic history Malay Literature of the 19th Century Siti Hawa Hj.
