Shaping Of Abbasid Rule:

The Shaping of 'Abbasid Rule Jacob Lassner,2017-03-14 In order to understand the transition between the revolutionary movement that propelled the Abbasids to power and the imperial government that later took root Jacob Lassner studies those elements that served to shape the political attitudes and institutions of the emerging regime during its formative years Originally published in 1980 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Religion and Politics under the Early 'Abbāsids Muhammad Qasim Zaman,2021-12-06 The main concern of this book is the religious policies of the early Abbasid caliphs It focuses on the religious trends which went into the making of Sunn Islam and traces the emergence of the nascent Sunn elite in relation to the Abbasids Various aspects of the caliphs evolving relationship with the religious scholars are studied and the nature of caliphal patronage and its impact on the scholars and ultimately on the evolution of early Sunnism is explored What emerges is a picture of close collaboration between the caliphs and the ulama with the caliphs playing an active and multifaceted role in religious life This book challenges the prevailing interpretations of the separation of religion and politics in early Islam and offers new insights into the social and religious history of Islam's formative centuries Sāsānid Soldiers in Early Muslim Society Mohsen Zakeri,1995 The Shaping of 'Abbāsīd Rule Jacob

Lassner,1980 The Description for this book The Shaping of Abbasid Rule will be forthcoming Medieval Islamic Civilization Josef W. The Bronze Horseman of Justinian in Constantinople Elena N. Boeck,2021-04-29 Biography of the medieval Mediterranean's most cross culturally significant sculptural monument the tallest in the pre modern world Spiritual Purification in Islam Gavin Picken,2011-03-21 Purification of the soul is a principle that is central to understanding Islamic spirituality but despite this relatively little has been written explicitly in the Islamic tradition regarding this discrete method of spiritual purification This book examines the work of a scholar of this discipline al-Harith al-Muhāsibī who lived and worked during the classical Islamic period under the Abbasids Although al-Muhāsibī was well known for his skills in many disciplines including the Qur'ān Prophetic narration and scholastic theology it is his mastery in the field of Islamic spirituality and moral psychology for which he is best remembered Assessing the extent to which the political social and economic factors played a part in his life and work Gavin Picken provides a comprehensive overview of his work and its great significance in the development of Islamic spirituality Reconstructing his life in chronological order and providing the most comprehensive appraisal of his works to date it explores a facet of al Muh sib s teaching which as yet has not been studied namely his understanding concept and methodology regarding the purification of the soul within the Islamic paradigm As such it will be of great interest not only to researchers and students of Sufism but also to scholars of comparative spirituality and mysticism

A History of the Arab Peoples Albert Habib Hourani, Albert Hourani, 2002 Chronicles the history of Arab civilization looking at the beauty of the great mosques the importance attached to education the achievements of Arab science the role of women internal conflicts and the Palestinian question A Treatise on the Veneration of the Holy Icons Abū Qurrah (Bishop of Ḥarrān.), 1997 Theodore Abu Qurrah c 750 c 825 was an intellectual heir of St John of Damascus Both became monks of Mar Sabas monastery in the Judean desert Whereas John of Damascus was prominent among the generations of Greek writers in the Holy Land in early Islamic times Theodore Abu Qurrah was the first Orthodox scholar whose name we know regularly to write Christian theology in Arabic He spoke and wrote the Arabic language at a time when it was just becoming the cultural language of classical Islamic civilization as well as the lingua sacra of the Qu ran and of the new world religion He was among the first Christians to exploit the apologetic potential of the new Arabic medium of public discourse Abu Qurrah s Arabic tract in defense of the veneration of the holy icons was a response to the problem of the public veneration of the symbols of Christianity in an Islamic environment in which the caliph s policies since the time of Abd al Malik 685 705 had been to claim the public space for Islam In this treatise one finds arguments once expounded by earlier Greek writers now deployed to meet the needs of a new generation of Arabic speaking Christians who were more evidently in contact and debate with Muslims Medieval Islamic Historiography Heather N. Keaney, 2013-07-18 This book is a comparative analysis of the medieval Sunni historiography of the caliphate of Uthman b Affan and the revolt against him By comparing treatments of Uthman in pietistic literature and universal chronicles the work traces the gradual silencing of more critical accounts in favor of those that portray Uthman as a saintly companion of the Prophet Muhammad Through a comparative analysis of authors between genres and time periods this book shows how authors were able to convey their personal perspectives on important religio political tensions that emerged through the revolt against Uthman namely the tension between Sunnis and Shiis religious and political authority and appeals to maintain stability and unity vs appeals for greater justice This last debate which in many ways began with the revolt against Uthman has been repeated most recently in the Arab Spring This work therefore provides readers with helpful historical context for important contemporary debates

The Construction of Knowledge in Islamic Civilization Paul Heck, 2002-03-01 This study examines the role of the state in the construction of knowledge in Islamic civilization in its early classical period third ninth and fourth tenth centuries Different voices representing different social groups savants litt rateurs religious scholars state officials all brought their particular conception of knowledge to bear on the formation of the various branches of knowledge known to Islamic civilization Reading the works of various branches of knowledge alongside the administrative encyclopedia of Qud ma b Ja far d 337 948 a state official in the employ of the Abbasid dynasty has served to highlight the particular point of view of the state in the intellectual and cultural dialogue of the day At the same time this approach has shown Islamic civilization to be as much a dialogue of values between the different social groups of the day as a series of events or collection of ideas The Sunna and Shi'a in History O. Bengio, Meir Litvak, 2014-12-16 Sunni Shi i relations have undergone significant transformations in recent decades In order to understand these developments the contributors to the present volume demonstrate the complexity of Sunni Shi i relations by analyzing political ideological and social encounters between the two communities from early Islamic history to the present Early Mahdism Jan-Olaf Blichfeldt, 1985 The Cambridge World History Merry E. Middle Eastern Politics and Historical Memory Jacob Lassner, 2020-07-09 How is the complex history of the ancient Near East and Islamic World brought to bear in contemporary political discourse In this book Medieval Near Eastern historian Jacob Lassner explores the resonance of ancient and medieval history in the political disputes that dominate the contemporary Middle East From identification with ancient forbears as a method of legitimization and nation building to tracing the deep history of the concept of revolution in the Arab world the author probes the historical foundations of modern conflicts in the region A medievalist the author takes the position that an appreciation of cultural history is essential to understanding the debate surrounding the Israel Palestine conflict In turn the book identifies the misappropriation and misunderstanding of the past deliberate or accidental as key weapon in the ongoing conflict The History of al-Ṭabarī Vol. 31 ,2015-06-29 This section of the History of al abar covers the caliphate of Mu ammad al Am n who succeeded his father H r n al Rash d on March 24 809 and was killed on September 25 813 The focus of this section is a single event the civil war between al Am n and his half brother al Ma m n Before his death al Rash d had arranged for the succession in a series of documents signed at Mecca and deposited for safekeeping in the Ka bah Al Am n was to become caliph al Ma m n was to govern Khurasan with virtual autonomy from Baghdad Al Am n could neither remove his brother from office nor interfere with his revenues or military support Furthermore al Ma m n was named as al Am n s successor and al Am n was forbidden to alter the succession If either brother violated these conditions he was to forfeit his rights It soon became apparent that the good will to carry out these arrangements did not exist Disagreement broke out when al Am n insisted that many of the forces that had accompanied al Rash d and al Ma m n to Khurasan return to Baghdad When the majority of army commanders obeyed the new caliph s orders al Ma m n was enraged and countered with measures to secure his position Angry letters were exchanged with al Am n pressing his brother to make concessions that al Ma m n regarded as contrary to the succession agreement By March 811 military conflict was imminent Al Amin demanded that certain border districts be returned to the control of Baghdad When al Ma m n refused al Am n despatched an expedition to seize the districts Al Am n s resort to force ended in disaster Al Ma m n s forces led by hir ibn al usayn and Harthamah ibn A yan quickly closed in on Baghdad In a siege lasting over a year Baghdad suffered extensive damage from the fighting and from bombardment by siege engines Gangs of vagrants and paupers organized by al Am n into irregular units fought a kind of urban guerrilla war But with Tahir and Harthamah enforcing the siege and with most of al Am n s associates having switched their loyalties to the winning side the caliph was forced to sue for terms These were worked out among representatives of al Am n Tahir and Harthamah However when the caliph boarded the boat that was to take him into Harthamah s custody troops loyal to Tahir assaulted and capsized the boat Al Am n fell into the Tigris was apprehended and was executed that night on orders from Tahir Thus ended this phase of the civil war Al Ma m n was now caliph Al abar i s history of these years includes accounts by participants in the event diplomatic letters between al Am n and al Ma m n Tahir s long letter to al Ma m n on the circumstances of al Amin s death and a dramatic eyewitness account of al Am n s last hours Also noteworthy is a 135 verse poem describing the devastation of Baghdad The section ends with a series of literary anecdotes on the character of al Am n
