Sharing Heavens Music The Heart Of Christian Preaching:

Sharing Heaven's Music Barry L. Callen, 1995 Offered in honor of James Earl Massey Sharing Heaven's Music is a collection of thought provoking essays on Christian preaching its methods meaning and message Contributors include William Pannell William Willimon Gail O Day David Buttrick Frederick Norris Cheryl Sanders Ronald Allen Justo Gonzalez among others Also contains a bibliography of Massey's work Postcolonial Preaching HyeRan Kim-Cragg, 2021-02-11 In Postcolonial Preaching HyeRan Kim Cragg argues that preaching is the act of dropping the stone of the Gospel into a lake making waves to move hearts and transform the world wounded by colonial violence The ripple effect serves as a metaphor and acronym to guide to preaching that takes postcolonial concerns seriously Rehearsal Imagination Place Pattern Language and Exegesis RIPPLE Kim Cragg explains each ripple in this approach and exercise of creating and delivering sermons The author delivers fresh insights while drawing on some traditional homiletical perspectives in the service of a homiletic that takes the reality of racism migration and environmental degradation seriously Moreover Kim Cragg demonstrates the postcolonial sermon in action by including annotated homilies This book contributes to the very first wave of the application of postcolonial scholarship in preaching Given the continuing extent and influence of colonial worldviews and legacies this approach should become a staple in preaching over the next generation Contemporary African American preaching

P3040 , L Susan Bond reveals the full range and diversity of African American preaching in this exploration of African American homiletical theories Portraying the many approaches that are empowering preaching in African American churches today Bond shows how different theological perspectives produce different methods of sermon preparation and delivery different strategies for selecting illustrative material and even different ways of beginning and ending sermons Her goal is not to lift up the right way to preach in the African American tradition but to show the richness and nuance contained within this powerful cultural expression Sharing heaven's music : the heart of Christian preaching : essays in honor of

James Earl Massey Barry L. Callen (ed), 1995 The Web of Preaching Richard L. Eslinger, 2002-08-01 Preaching is not as simple as it may appear The preacher today is confronted with a dizzying array of homiletic methods and approaches each holding important insights into how to proclaim the Good News While pastors wish to learn from these different ways of preaching they often do not know where to begin Who are the best representatives of a given approach How do the different methods relate to one another How has the preaching scene changed in recent years In The Web of Preaching Richard Eslinger addresses these and other questions about contemporary approaches to preaching Surveying the most important current theories of preaching he argues that no homiletic method can be understood on its own The different schools of thought on preaching all intersect at such common points as Scripture narrative and the role of preaching in worship A strength in one compensates for a weakness in another and seen together they form one comprehensive web of preaching This book is a follow up to Eslinger's earlier A New Hearing which has been a standard text in preaching courses since its publication in 1987 Preaching Through Time Casey C. Barton, 2017-07-28 As preachers who come to the pulpit before God and before God's people each and every week how do we make sense of the text as we live a new moment of its ongoing story Most options available to the preacher necessitate a hermeneutical step that requires us to preach outside of time in timeless truths experiences or realities But the gospel is the drama of God appearing to and working with and loving God's people in time Preaching Through Time gives the preacher a timely homiletic for preaching together the times of God's gospel then and now while calling God's people to perform their own roles in today's moment of that gospel drama Anachronism preaching together the moments of God's drama is the language event that will get us from text to timely sermon week by week Claiming the Call to Preach Donna Giver-Johnston, 2021-05-25 Claiming the Call to Preach critically examines the dominant historical narrative that overtly or covertly has exercised its power to keep women from preaching Donna Giver Johnston here recovers the histories of four notable female preaching pioneers who affected change in the religious landscape of nineteenth century America Jarena Lee Frances Willard Louisa Woosley and Florence Spearing Randolph These women diverse in religion race class and culture each told their story of call in distinctive ways that articulated strong and effective rhetorical arguments for ecclesiastical sanction to give them a place in the pulpit

Reverberating Word Michael Denham, 2018-06-12 Like sounds of beautiful music worship can renew us for God's glory and our good by the invigorating power of God's reverberating Word It is God's story that redeems all our stories We want to tell it again and again as best we can clearly conveying its message meaning richness claim and call Through its every facet and component worship that is biblically expositional can heighten how we proclaim God's story faithfully and creatively pointing to the One who alone offers us true identity security and destiny If you seek me you will find me if you search with all your heart declares the Lord With the ancient prophets and apostles we must repeat and repeat and repeat the most wonderful truth that God wants to be found In Christian worship such tremendous and tender encounter is available to us as nowhere else Preaching with Sacred Fire: An Anthology of African American Sermons, 1750 to the Present

Martha Simmons, Frank A. Thomas, 2010-08-16 One hundred sermons that display the victorious although sometimes painful historical and spiritual pilgrimage of black people in America A groundbreaking anthology Preaching with Sacred Fire is a unique and powerful work It captures the stunning diversity of the cultural and historical legacy of African American preaching more than three hundred years in the making Each sermon as editors Martha Simmons and Frank A Thomas reveal is a work of art and a lesson in unmatched rhetoric The journey through this anthology which includes selections from Jarena Lee Frederick Douglass Malcolm X Martin Luther King Jr Gardner C Taylor Vashti McKenzie and many others offers a rare view of the unheralded role of the African American preacher in American history The collection provides new insights into the underpinnings of the black fight for emancipation and the rise and growth of the Civil Rights and Black Power movements Sermons from the first decade of the twenty first century point toward the future of African American preaching

Biographies of the preachers put their work in the cultural and homiletic context of their periods. The preachers of these sermons are men and women from a range of faiths, ancestries and educational backgrounds. They draw on a vast and luminous landscape of poetic language using metaphor, rhythm and imagery to communicate with their congregations. What they all have in common is hope, resilience and sacred fire. Even during the most difficult and oppressive times, Simmons and Thomas write in the preface, the delivery, creativity, charisma, expressivity, fervor, forcefulness, passion, persuasiveness, poise, power, rhetoric, spirit, style and vision of black preaching gave and gives hope to a community under siege. This magnificent work beautifully renders the complexity, spiritual richness and strength of African American life. Handbook of

Contemporary Preaching, 2nd Edition Michael Duduit, 2024-07-15. The revised and updated 2nd edition of Handbook of Contemporary Preaching is a comprehensive textbook on preaching and teaching the Bible. Pastors will be better equipped after reading and learning from some of the most notable scholars and pastors on the topic of preaching. We Have Heard That God Is with You Rein Bos, 2008-08-20. A perfect tool for busy preachers who want to faithfully proclaim God's Word. The preparation of sermons on Old Testament texts confronts preachers time and time again with such questions as: How can I connect an Old Testament text with the situation of my congregation today in a responsible way? and What is the role of Jesus in that connection? In this practical scholarly guidebook, Rein Bos tackles such questions and offers thoughtful answers. We Have Heard That God Is with You gives pastors a creative and innovative grammar to preach the Old Testament in a Christian context. Bos offers multiple examples from American sermons to illustrate how his model can be used in sermon preparation and how it can serve the practice of preaching. Each chapter is a rich meal for the busy preacher looking for creative, relevant options for sermons that are faithful to Scripture. Christian Hope among Rivals Michael W.

Zeigler, 2017-08-29. Hope is a widespread if not a universal human experience. For centuries, followers of Jesus of Nazareth have ordered their lives around a central hope. How is their experience similar to or different from others who live by hope? This book seeks an answer in the idea that living by hope involves living within a peculiar story of the world, an incomplete story. The stories that shape these hopes are threatened by evil; however, it may be defined as the hopeful struggle as characters caught up in plots that move toward resolution. They exercise an as yet unverified hope that evil will not prevail. In this regard, the hope of Christians is similar to others. Yet it is different because they wait for the God of Jesus to transform the world to match the promise he made to Abraham. To arrive at this conclusion, this book takes a detour through four model life-organizing stories. Christians and participants in other stories of the world may not agree on the ultimate ground for hope. However, taking a detour into the hopeful experience of another may help uncover a place where rivals can stand together long enough to talk. Michael Zeigler's insightful text rightly returns us to the immense power of life-organizing stories. The Christian description of reality continues to mold and shape our individual narratives, imbuing them with meaning found in the cross and empty tomb, the place where the essential conflict between God, sin and humanity is resolved. Ever gracious

Christian Hope Among Rivals invites Christians into meaningful conversation with other traditions without surrendering the profound hope that is offered in Christ alone Joel Oesch Associate Professor of Theology Concordia University Irvine

Proverbs and the Formation of Character Bland Dave, 2016-11-24 Proverbs and the Formation of Character presses the wisdom of Proverbs into active duty in the trenches of everyday life and puts the principles of character formation in working clothes The wisdom Proverbs describes is not designed to master life's challenges but to learn to manage them and adapt In learning to adapt individuals grow and mature spiritually Relying on solid biblical scholarship Dave Bland brings to the fore the neglected sentence literature in Proverbs 10-29 and the vital resources they contribute to the process of character formation Contrary to popular opinion the book of Proverbs even though addressed to youth is not a book solely for the young but for those of all ages who desire to continue to grow personally as well as in their relationship with others and God The wise in the book of Proverbs employ a plethora of resources to help train up young and old alike to grow into the character of God Among others these resources include the value of interacting with others a healthy understanding of conflict an appropriate perspective on wealth a new appreciation for and reliance on the role of the neglected proverb in the education process and the vital role of family and the faith community

The Jagged Journey Barry L. Callen, 2018-05-15 It's the most important subject in Christianity It reveals who God is how God works how we mature as followers of Jesus and how we are to conduct ourselves in this sinful world The subject is suffering To explore it biblically and inspirationally is to identify the basic elements of a responsible Christian theology that's more than a set of pious abstractions This subject forces us close to where we hurt doubt believe and relate to our neighbors God suffers Jesus cries The tears of God are the deepest meaning of our history God's problem is not that God is not able to do certain things but that God loves The cross of Jesus was in God's heart before it appeared on Golgatha The pain of God is the healing of humanity The cross the worst of human doing and the best of divine revelation clarifies that we must die to really live We must share in the sufferings of Jesus

Faithful in the Meantime Barry L. Callen, 2017-06-27 Barry Callen is a church theologian in the finest sense In this book he once again brings the commitments nurtured by Pietist Anabaptist and Wesleyan theological streams into conversation with the issues and debates in contemporary church life and with the most formative voices in contemporary theology The result is a convincing reminder that Christian teachings about ultimate things eschatology are much more concerned with providing hope and direction for living faithfully in our present settings than they are with providing timetables for the future His exposition of the role of the church and sacrament in nurturing such hope is particularly helpful Randy L Maddox Professor of Wesleyan and Methodist Studies Duke University Divinity School In a day when fanciful end times speculations abound the church does well to give heed to voices that call us back to the fundamentals of biblical eschatology Barry Callen is such a voice As he so forcefully declares rather than focusing on dates and times God calls us to be faithful in the meantime Stanley J Grenz Professor Emeritus of Theology Ethics Baptist Heritage Carey Theological College and Regent

College The doctrine of last things is important because faith would be empty if it could not hope for the coming of the kingdom of God What we have in eschatology are not so much secrets about the future as images of God's final purposes which are meant to impact our every action and judgment Here we have thanks to Barry Callen a responsible informed interesting and up to date account of our blessed hope Clark H Pinnock Professor Emeritus of Theology McMaster Divinity College

Resonate Lisa Washington Lamb, 2022-12-06 We need good news now more than ever We are hungry to connect with God and with each other Whether you preach from a pulpit or simply want to communicate more effectively as a leader this book will empower you to bring that good news with fresh boldness It teaches a simple practical method of testing the crucial connection points that too often go missing in our preaching It invites you to pay attention to the verbs of your sermons so that you will be better able to lament painful struggles with empathy awaken joyful hope for the future and catalyze faithful discipleship in the present

Praying for a Whole New World William G. Carter, 2000 A history professor told me that the earliest Protestants in America discouraged the celebration of Christmas It's too much fun the Puritans reasoned and the Gospel of Jesus Christ requires our utmost seriousness from the Introduction At a time of year which is often as stressful and exhausting as it is exhilarating William Carter reminds us that while holiday celebrations will fade into winter gloom Jesus Christ the light that casts no shadow remains at the center of our faith and lives This collection of seventeen sermons based on the Revised Common Lectionary is for readers who wish to take the gospel seriously during a season when commercialism and social activities can be overwhelming Carter's messages provide a wonderful interplay between the biblical text and illustrations drawn from contemporary life He brings the sensibilities of an accomplished jazz musician to the lectionary readings creating new melodies that arise from the established material some in counterpoint to the scripture others elaborating upon the original tune The sermons of this outstanding preacher are inspiring reading for both clergy and laypeople Senior pastor of First Presbyterian Church in Clarks Summit Pennsylvania William G Carter has received national recognition for his preaching and writing with sermons and articles appearing in Journal for Preachers Presbyterian Survey Preaching Lectionary Homiletics The Christian Ministry and Best Sermons 7 In 1999 he was selected to preach on The Protestant Hour an international radio ministry that reaches over two million listeners each week He frequently leads workshops for pastors on homiletical themes and practices A graduate of Princeton Theological Seminary Carter serves on the seminary's board of trustees Reverend Carter is also a highly regarded jazz pianist who has studied and performed with such noted artists as Phil Woods and Bob Brookmeyer He has traveled widely presenting contemporary worship services and frequently weaves his music into his ministry

Third Article Theology Myk Habets, 2016-09-01 Third Article Theology TAT is the name given to a new movement in constructive theology utilizing a distinctly pneumatological approach to dogmatics Trinitarian in its foundation pneumatological in its impetus and comprehensive in its scope TAT specifies both a method and a theology Thinking through the theological loci of the tradition in relation to the Holy Spirit opens up new vistas and a deeper vision of the task of theology revealing ways of thinking hitherto eclipsed by the tradition Drawing upon the trinitarianism of the Great Tradition theologians from across the theological spectrum bring their voices to bear upon central and defining theological issues of today in order to present a new form of systematic theology a pneumatological dogmatics capable of representing the faith in a contemporary mode For students scholars and clergy the volume unfolds the classic articles of systematic theology in this new register Each doctrinal article is written by a leading theologian in the field with essays from Amos Yong Eugene Rogers Veli Matti Karkkainen Joel Green Marc Cortez Frank Macchia Myk Habets and others

Preaching Like Paul James W. Thompson, 2000-01-01 In contrast with the widely popular interest in narrative styles Professor Thompson believes Paul's letters offer a different and valid model for preaching today He clearly demonstrates how the manner of preaching used in the pre-Christian culture of Paul is both appropriate and effective in our contemporary post-Christian culture Unlike most books on preaching this book does not focus on homiletic technique but on the goal of preaching a needed missing component in contemporary homiletic discussion

God as Loving Grace Barry L. Callen, 2018-06-27 This work impressively documented avoids fruitless speculation and gets down to the basics of the Christian faith In a clear writing style the author powerfully articulates the unique activity of Father Son and Holy Spirit and shows how the work of each complements the other Dr Kenneth Kinghorn Dean of the School of Theology Asbury Theological Seminary Focus is all important This book biblical throughout proceeds from the perspective of God's loving grace and maintains this perspective as the whole revelation of God is unfolded in its light The Trinity is rightly honored as this theology interacts helpfully with many other theological views and clarifies anew much that traditionally has been valued This is fresh material that serves the church fruitfully and also speaks meaningfully to contemporary culture exactly what good theology should do Rev Dr James Earl Massey Dean Emeritus Anderson University School of Theology Dr Barry L Callen is Professor of Theology and Dean Emeritus of Anderson University and School of Theology Former Editor of the Wesleyan Theological Journal and current Editor of Aldersgate Press he holds graduate degrees in theology from Anderson Asbury and Chicago Theological Seminaries and has authored numerous books on theology
