Österberg,2018-01-16 The early history of American settlement pioneering and independence is marked by fascinating characters and events often shrouded in legend Filmmakers have sought to capture these characters as diverse as Daniel Boone Francis Marion and Pocahontas and events as disparate as the Lost Colony the Boston Tea Party and the French and Indian War This comprehensive filmography provides production information and commentary on all films and television episodes set during the years between the first settlements in the future United States and the fledgling country's War of 1812 with Britain. Films are arranged alphabetically and a detailed introduction provides a thorough overview of the period with references to films chronicling specific events. A New History of Kentucky Lowell Hayes Harrison, 1997-03-27

B rings the Commonwealth of Kentucky to life cover Follow the River James Alexander Thom, 1981 Mary Ingles was twenty-three married and pregnant when Shawnee Indians invaded her peaceful Virginia settlement, killed the men and women, then took her captive. For months she lived with them unbroken until she escaped and followed a thousand-mile trail to freedom, an extraordinary story of a pioneer woman who risked her life to return to her people.
