[really written] by B. Hemyng Samuel Bracebridge Hemyng,1870      Pearl-Shellers Of Torres Strait Regina Ganter,1990-10-31 In an ethnically stratified work force Japanese South Sea Islander Torres Strait Islander and Aboriginal divers brought up from the sea floor the shell that produced mother of pearl and sometimes pearls Many men died at this dangerous work This was an industry that could have given the indigenous peoples of Torres Strait an occupation that preserved their identity and independence Yet in spite of a co operative lugger scheme that operated fairly successfully in the early twentieth century a real independence was not achieved And a resource that could have been conserved by small scale indigenous harvesting was depleted time and again by the colonial practices of resource raiding and mass extraction Regina Ganter charts the progress of pearl shelling from its heyday through its several crises resulting from overfishing to its present cautious management The book is greatly enhanced by the oral testimony of divers and boat owners      Learning at Home Pre K-3 Ann Barbour,2012-02 Establish a strong home school connection through family activities that extend      Their Names Shall Live Forever More Trevor Jardine,2023-07-25 This book is a thorough and thought provoking account of the first year of existence of the 60th Australian Infantry Battalion Interspersed with Divisional Brigade and other Battalion s perspectives are the personal views of officers and other ranks relating to events and places Included in the story is an investigation into a previously untold account of a group of soldiers called the Needle Trench 10 who were killed by a single artillery shell on the 26th November 1916 For more than 100 years the identity of one of these soldiers buried in the Guards Cemetery at Lesboeuvs France has been lost to time A document filed in the archives of the Commonwealth War Graves Commission in Maidenhead England for over 100 years and only coming to light in 2021 has finally enabled this soldier's possible identity to be established. Also revealed in the same document is the initial burial location of another soldier wounded by the same artillery shell and dying later that day whilst on his way to receive medical treatment. Woven throughout the book are the human stories of the battalion's soldiers including biographies of those killed on the 26th November with many of the details provided by the descendants of these soldiers. The investigation details how a simple bookkeeping entry resulted in families and descendants of ten of the eleven soldiers who died on the 26th November being provided incorrect details concerning their deaths. This error has been perpetuated in official documents, publications, online resources and inscribed in stone since this time. Eyewitnesses to Massacre Zhang Kaiyuan, Donald MacInnis, 2015-05-20

The infamous Nanjing Massacre of 1937 in which the Japanese Imperial Army raped and slaughtered countless Chinese citizens on the eve of World War II has been described in well-publicized books from various Chinese, Japanese and German perspectives. But this collection of first-hand testimony from the archives of the Yale Divinity School Library may be the most powerful record of all. Here are eyewitness accounts by a remarkable group of nine men and one woman, dedicated, compassionate, well-educated, articulate and devout missionaries who were there on the scene, refusing to leave and doing everything in their power to save the Chinese victims of this appalling atrocity. The Complete Home Learning Sourcebook Rebecca Rupp, 1998. Wheeler, 1865 [A Year Ago; Eye-Witness's Narrative Of The War From March 20th To July 18th, 1915 \[Illustrated Edition\]](#) Major-General Ernest D. Swinton, Captain Alan Ian Percy Duke of Northumberland, 2015-11-06. Includes The First World War On The Western Front 1914-1915 Illustrations Pack with 101 maps, plans and photos. Major General Ernest Swinton had already had a long and illustrious career in the British Army before the advent of the First World War in 1914. Appointed as the official war correspondent by the war Minister Lord Kitchener in 1914, his reporting home was the only way for the British people to follow the war as journalists were at that time banned at the front. In these dispatches from the front, Swinton told the public of the bloody fighting in Flanders and the heroic efforts of the Allies to stop the German juggernaut. So even-handed and realistic they were brought together in a series of books under the pseudonym Eyewitness for further publication. Swinton was not a chateau general by any means and visited the front with dangerous regularity, wrote of the fighting with real authority, often including anecdotes of the ordinary soldiers that he interviewed. The miserable conditions and bloody siege warfare of the trenches left a lasting impression on him and he looked for a scientific solution to the muddy stalemate of the Western Front. He would gain lasting fame as the architect of the tank project that was to revolutionize warfare in the First World War and for many years thereafter. Eye-witness's Narrative of the War; from the Marne to Neuve Chapelle, September, 1914-March, 1915 Ernest Dunlop Swinton, Alan Ian Percy Duke of Northumberland, 1915 Eye Witness George Harmon Coxe, 2011-11-08.
