twentieth and twenty first century America as Thomas Jefferson and James Madison and Samuel Adams were to the initial creation of the Republic itself in the eighteenth century A believer in the injunction that one should love one s neighbor as oneself Lewis was arguably a saint in our time risking limb and life to bear witness for the powerless in the face of the powerful In many ways he brought a still evolving nation closer to realizing its ideals and his story offers inspiration and illumination for Americans today who are working for social and political change Dead of Winter P.
